DONOHOE CALLED AUTHOR

Committeeman Declared to Have Asserted Division Was Expected to Contribute $250.

SEATTLE. Wash. Oct. 14.—(Spe-cial.) — While Governor Cox, demo-cratic presidential nominee, is raisthe cry over the country against alleged republican slush fund, democratic national committee is busy collecting "contributions" from democratic office-holders in Alaska, according to Charles E. Allen, secretary of the republican ctain committee. Copies of the Alaska Dally Capital, published at Juneau, of the date of appealed to in a October 4 reached state headquarters here today, and Secretary Allen pointed to a two-column article on pointed to a two-column article on the first page as authority for his charge. The Capital printed what is purported to be a letter written May 23 by T. J. Donohoe, democratic na-tional committeeman for Alaska, to the democratic division committee at the democratic division committee at Juneau, in which Donohoe reminded the committee that the division was expected by the national committee to contribute $250. According to National Committeeman Donohoe in the quoted letter, the third district promptly paid up, but the first and second were tardy.
