

HAUNTING SEARCHERS FIND BODY IN RIVER

Man May Be E. A. Hearty, One of Missing Five.

E. H. LETTERS ON BELT

Deputies From Sheriff's Office Unable to Tell If Man Was Drowned or Killed.

A body believed to be that of Edward A. Hearty Jr., of 287 Twenty-second street North, one of the five men missing after an automobile went over the bank into the Sandy river Sunday night, was recovered last night.

The body had drifted 100 yards down the river from the spot where the motor car made the plunge. Deputy Sheriff Christofferson, Bailey, Rexford and Mullenhour were in the searching party when the body was recovered.

The letters "E. H." were on a leather belt found on the body. None of the men who found the body was acquainted with the five who are supposed to be dead and positive identification was deferred until Coroner Smith could bring the body to Portland, where acquaintances might view it.

One of the legs was broken, and injuries had been received about the face. The doctors will decide whether the dead man had been drowned or had been killed.

Renew Search Today.

Further search for the bodies was postponed until today. The wrecked machine was taken from the river late yesterday morning. It was fully inflated and showed every indication of having been driven at a high rate of speed when it left the river banks on the steep incline to the river bed.

Hope that any of the five missing men might have reached shore late Sunday night waned yesterday when searching parties tramped for several miles down the river banks on both sides looking for some trace of the missing men.

Diver Drags River.

Clyde Lieser, a diver of Vancouver, Wash., dragged the river bottom for hours after the automobile had been brought to the surface. Because of the swift current, he believed that if the men were drowned the bodies were swept down stream for some distance and it may be several days before they come to the surface.

The five missing men are Richard McIntosh, 212 9th St., Vancouver; Edward A. Hearty Jr., 287 North Twenty-second street; M. D. McDonald, 32 1/2 E. 8th street; Walter McDonald, 25, Uehler apartments; Alec McDonald, 30, 818 Thurman street.

The two survivors of the fatal automobile party are J. Conkannon, 494 Thurman street, and H. C. Cooney, 638 Lovejoy street. Neither could throw additional light on the tragedy other than that given Sunday night. H. D. Emory, 255 North Nineteenth street, reported yesterday to Sheriff Hurlburt that it was his belief that which the other was passing when it left the highway and plunged down the bank.

Autolists Says They Passed at 10.

"I was coming in from the highway when I heard people in a car back of me yelling for me to get out of the way. I saw the car was heading nearly 50 miles an hour. Shortly after they passed me they left the pavement and plunged down the bank."

That the party of seven autolists had been drinking moonshine whisky was an admission made by Conkannon after he was taken to the county jail Sunday night for questioning. He said he did not know the party who were drinking the whisky. He admitted having taken some of it. He was in a dazed condition when he was brought into Portland.

ROADS OFFERED TO CITY

County Commissioners Would Give Away Paved Highways.

Request will be made by the county commissioners that the city take over all streets all county roads improved with an 18-foot width or more of hard surfacing within the city limits. This was decided at yesterday's meeting of the board by unanimous vote. It will also be asked that this policy be followed in the future. Action was taken because of demands for sidewalks on certain highways improved by the county.

CHAOS LAID TO SENATE

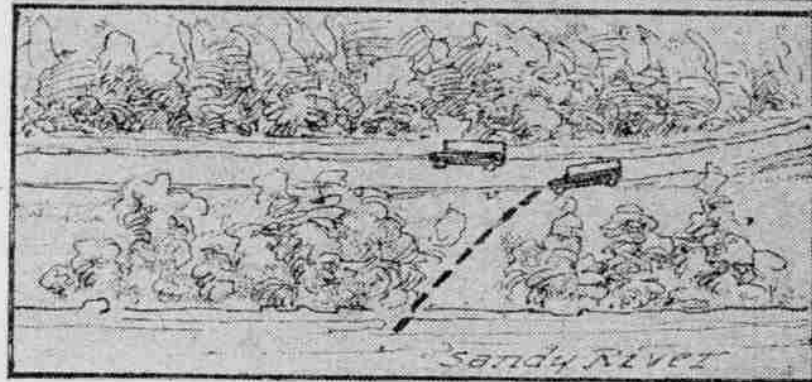

League Foes Declared Responsible for Deaths in Disorders.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 18.—Responsibility for the "blood of every man killed because of world instability" following the war "lies upon the heads of those senators who have sought to "scrape the immortal document of Versailles." Secretary Daniels declared in an address here tonight. The world today would be "stable and prosperous" if the senate majority had "measured up to its duty" as did American soldiers in the trenches, he added.

CHILDREN GET PATHWAY

WALK CONSTRUCTED TO AVOID ACCIDENTS ON ROAD.

City Proposes to Take Over Area From County; Pupils Declared in Danger From Autos.

School children of the Creston school district now have a temporary pathway from East Thirty-ninth to Fifteenth street Southeast which they can use instead of the middle of the paved road, which has been the only "walk" open to them before. The old bicycle path along the Powell Valley road was completed yesterday for their use under the direction of the office of public works, working through the chief of the bureau of maintenance. The path was dressed with crushed rock screenings.

A resolution providing for the taking over of the sidewalk area along the road from the county by the city will be presented at the council meeting tomorrow. The proposed sidewalk will run from East Thirty-ninth to East Eighty-second street.

This matter has come to the attention of the council through petitions signed by several hundred property owners and residents in the vicinity of the Creston school. The petitioners requested the city to arrange for sidewalks. This action was necessary since county roads do not have sidewalks.

The children, state the petitioners, were forced to walk in the middle of the paved road, in constant danger of accidents from passing traffic.

IRRIGATION PROJECT BRINGS PROSPERITY

Redmond District Declared Progressing Rapidly.

CHAMBER OFFICIAL BACK

J. W. Brewer, Field Secretary of State Chamber of Commerce, Highly Impressed.

Irrigation projects in Central Oregon in the vicinity of the Redmond district have injected a new prosperity into the agricultural and commercial life of that section, according to J. W. Brewer, field secretary of the Oregon State chamber of commerce who returned Sunday from a trip to Redmond where he met representatives of all the irrigation projects from the Bend, Prineville and Deschutes districts.

The trip was made under the auspices of the state chamber for the purpose of compiling data on the progress made during the past year on all the irrigation and development projects of that state. A complete report of the aggregate data gathered will be ready in about a week, according to Brewer. He is expected to include some astonishing facts in regard to the rapid strides made in Eastern Oregon districts in regard to development work.

County Fair Attended.

Mr. Brewer timed his trip to coincide with the first annual Deschutes county fair held in Redmond October 14-16, so that representatives from the surrounding territory would be on hand with their reports and a consultation could be held during the fair, where exhibitors from the entire county had gathered.

The Redmond Potato show, which has been staged by the city every season for the past eight years, has been incorporated into the Deschutes county fair, according to Mr. Brewer, with the result that the exhibition last week was a complete success.

Shitima the Japanese "potato king" from California, was in Redmond during the potato show and was so much impressed with the potato raising possibilities of that district that he purchased a tract of 2000 acres and proposes to raise potatoes on the same land. He is planning to plant in the valley. The Japanese denied, however that he intended to start a Japanese "colony" in that district.

Wonderful Strides Made.

"Redmond has been making wonderful strides during the past year," said Mr. Brewer. "A new plant in the process of construction which will manufacture pencil slats from juniper wood. This is the first commercial lumber plant seen up to, and it is possible that a large industry may spring up as there are large quantities of juniper available in the immediate vicinity of Redmond. The plant at first will employ 15 men, but it is expected that it will employ 50 men when the product has been sold in advance."

"It is intended by the financial men of the town that the Deschutes county road be rapidly completed, and will develop into the biggest event of the year for the county. They are estimated to cost $1,000,000. Improvements of the fair grounds, including new stables for the racing course, and additional buildings for the exhibition of stock. An enterprising, aggressive spirit is evident among the citizens of the town."

Rate Hearing Is Concluded.

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 18.—(Special).—H. H. Corey, member of the Oregon public service commission, returned here last night from Clackamas, Multnomah and Lakeview, where he conducted hearings relating to proposed increases in electric and water rates. Mr. Corey said the water rates were severe in Lake county at the time of his visit there and he rode through blinding snow storms for more than three hours.

Highway Secretary on Inspection.

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 18.—(Special).—Roy Klein, secretary of the state highway department, returned here last night for eastern and central Oregon, where he will inspect some road improvements now under way and contemplated.

ITCHING BURNING PIMPLES ON FACE

And Back, Hard and Red. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"Pimples broke out on my face and back. They were hard and red and itched and burned so badly that I had to scratch them, and at times I could not sleep. I tried but it didn't do any good. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and then bought more. When I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap with the Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." WILL HAND, 62, IS KILLED

Apron Caught in Revolving Pulley While on Ladder.

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 18.—(Special).—Charles Voight, 62 years old, died at a local hospital here this afternoon as the result of injuries received while working in the Thomas Kay Woolen mills at noon today.

Although there were no eye-witnesses to the accident, employees of the plant said it was apparent that Mr. Voight was standing on a ladder oiling some shafting when his apron caught in the revolving pulley. When found he was unconscious.

Mr. Voight lived in Salem for ten years and had been employed in the woolen mills for 20 years. He is survived by his widow, a resident of Salem, and a brother who lives in Wisconsin.

Release for Women who Suffer

The multitude of American women who suffer terribly day after day and year after year from ills peculiar to their sex is almost beyond belief, yet there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman, and often many, do not reside who have been restored to health from some of the worst forms of female ills, and often avoided operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

These Two Women Tell of Their Experience.

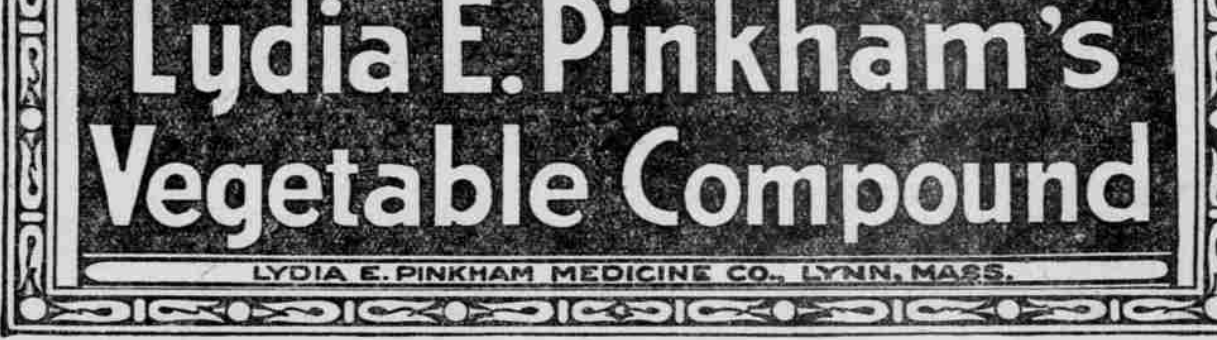

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound."—LILLIAN THARP, 824 South 6th Street, Carrollton, Ky.

Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die, and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my housework, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and can do my own housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good for female weakness as can Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—MRS. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis.
