Revulsion Noticeable Against

the republican lead of 5703 in Multnemah county accounted for all but 1023 of that total.

In the coming November election Harding will carry Oregon by no such will have a substantial lead in vir-tually every one. It is possible that the democrats may retain Baker coun-ty, although the republican state central committee does not concede Ba-ker to the opposition. The republican reports are that Coos county will go strong for the republican ticket, but the democrats declare that a canvast his week disclosed a great deal Cox sentiment, Jackson county, whi considered democratic, probably will go for Cox, but these three coun ties, Baker, Coos and Jackson, appear to be the only ones in which the dem-ocrats have a fighting chance.

Wasco county silpped away from the republican column in 1916, al-though a strongly republican district. Everything points to Wasco going re-publican substantially on November 2. Harney county, which went demo-cratic, has had more or less had luck with cross and stock and is deterwith crops and stock and is deter mined to vote against the democratic ticket in the hope of better days. Linn county, which some times elects dem-ocrats to the legislature, is predicted a strongly republican this year. Active work is being performed in nion and Umatilia counties and lese counties will be in the repub-can column. Reports from Malheur by "everything is Harding here." There is a noticeable revulsion against Wilson throughout the state ttributable largely to his policies of attributable largely to his policies of the last two years. Mr. Wilson at-tracted the women's vote four years ago, but this time, judging from re-peated straw votes, the Oregon wom-en are lining up for Harding.

SURE VICTORY IS SEEN

Tariff Issue Dominant in Eastern

Part of Oregon. Letters received from various parts of the state by the Harding and Coolidge club point to an overwhelming victory for the straight republit the club officers, says that she is onfident the club membership will a 20,000 within the next few days and it may reach 25,000. This, said Mrs. Martin, is conclusive evidence that the 40,000 republican majority set for Harding and Coolidge in Ore-gon sometime ago will probably go

P. J. Gallagher of Ontario writes: "Public sentiment has changed very largely in eastern Oregon regarding the presidential and senatorial campalgns and I expect. Harding and Coolidge and Robert Stanfield to carry every county east of the mountains. The tariff question is the dominant issue. Every butcher shop of the country is selling Argentine canned meats, while native raised beef are fattening in the pasture, the owner beling unable to get enough outof them to pay the banks and buckof them to pay the banks and buck-eroos' wages. The same thing is true about mutton and wool. If sentiment has changed as fast in other parts of Oregon as it has here, as the result of learning that it is necessary to have a republican senate to back Harding, Stanfield will carry the state by 20,009 at least and we will have a wonderful victory all along the line."
