

BODY MAY BE SENT TO CORK SECRETLY

Trouble Over MacSwiney Funeral May Be Avoided.

PRISON HAS NO RIOTS

Relatives of Lord Mayor Are Not Informed of Death Until Some Time Afterwards.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—It is well within the possibilities that the body of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who died in Brixton prison today after a 73-day hunger strike, will be taken to Cork secretly in order to avoid unpleasant results from whatever demonstrations might be arranged in England along the route.

The home office, which would control the movement of the body in England, said that the plan for removal of the body had been officially considered. At the Irish office it was declared that no plan had been formulated for the transfer to Ireland and that final decision on this point would rest with Dublin.

It is within the power of the home office to give up the body of a prisoner in whatever way is deemed most expedient. It is pointed out that it could legally transfer it in secret to some out-of-the-way port and later to a government vessel and deliver it to Cork.

News Kept Secret.—The death of his brother and the chaplain were not permitted to leave Brixton prison until 4.15. John MacSwiney immediately conveyed word to the widow of the lord mayor, who was staying at a hotel with Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien.

Mrs. MacSwiney, accompanied by her parents and the Misses Annie and Mary MacSwiney, sisters of the lord mayor, arrived at Brixton prison at 5.30 o'clock. News of MacSwiney's death had not become known in the district around Brixton prison until after 9 o'clock.

As soon as the news of the lord mayor's death reached the city, a mob of people began moving toward Brixton prison. The police, however, did not allow any one to move into the prison leading to the prison entrance. Fears had previously been expressed that the lord mayor's death might cause a demonstration at the prison.

The MacSwiney family left the prison at 11.30. The body will be taken to St. George's cathedral in London, where it will lie in state until it is taken to Dublin, where it is planned to place the body for a day or two in the Mansion House.

Doctors Answer Critic.—The cause of MacSwiney's death was heart failure, according to a statement by the home office. This statement is considered an indirect answer to the criticism of Dr. Josiah Oldfield, the physician and publicist, who had declared it was poison.

When one of the officials was asked today regarding Mrs. MacSwiney's absence from the bedside when death occurred, he replied that the restrictions which were placed upon the visits of relatives were urged by the attending physicians as vital to the prisoner's own interests.

Grave to Be Near Predecessor.—MacSwiney's grave will be alongside that of his official predecessor, Lord Mayor Thomas Mac Curtain, who was shot in his home in Cork on March 20. MacSwiney will be the fourth to be buried in this plot, the others being Lord Mayor Thomas McQuirk, who was taken out of bed in his Galway home and shot, and Jeremiah McEneaney, who was killed in the Easter rising in Dublin in 1916.

These arrangements are contingent upon the possibility of governmental interference, which however, is regarded as unlikely. The progress of the funeral preparations will be marked by a series of services at all the populous centers en route. Final obsequies will be held in St. George's cathedral and interment will be made in St. Fin Barre's cemetery in Cork.

The grave in which MacSwiney will be buried is known as "republican plot," which has been reserved for Irish nationalist soldiers.

CORK EXCITED BUT QUIET.—No Demonstrations Are Expected, but Guards Are Doubled.

CORK, Ireland, Oct. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fervent interest in possible developments caused by the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of this city, which occurred in Brixton prison, London, this morning, is mingled with the grief into which his death has plunged the city.

Although the people appear stirred to the highest degree of bitterness, it is regarded as probable that there will be any outbreaks or disorderly demonstration here. It is expected, however, there will be a considerable extension and intensification of guerrilla warfare against the police and military forces which, anticipating reprisals, are doubling their vigilance, especially in remote districts.

Cork jail, where a number of hunger strikers are in a grave condition, is guarded inside and out by soldiers with machine guns and armored cars. The news of Lord Mayor MacSwiney's death, which was telegraphed to his friends, traveled quickly throughout the city.

STARVATION KILLS PRISONER IN CORK

Joseph Murphy, Who Was Born in America, Dead.

HUNGER STRIKE IS FATAL

Butte Report Says Victim Was Native of Utah; Well-Known in Ireland as Athlete.

CORK, Oct. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Joseph Murphy, one of the hunger strikers in Cork jail, died last night. He was the second to die in the Cork jail because he would not eat.

Joseph Murphy was one of 11 men incarcerated in Cork jail two days before Lord Mayor MacSwiney was sent to Brixton prison in London.

All the men in Cork jail immediately went on a hunger strike. Last week one of them, Michael Fitzgerald, died.

The death of Murphy occurred at 8.35 o'clock. He was 25 years old and unmarried. Murphy was a member of the Irish Volunteers and was well known as an athlete.

There were reports last month that Murphy was an American citizen. It was asserted that he was born in Lynn, Mass.

Secretary Colby Investigates.—Secretary of State Colby was declared to be investigating the claim. A dispatch from Cork, September 10, asserted that the American consul there had established the fact that Murphy was born in Lynn, but that he had been brought to Ireland when an infant by his father, who is a British subject.

Murphy's father, Timothy Murphy, a shoemaker, resides in Pouladuff, a suburb of Cork. He said he was the father of 15 children, only six of whom are living. He emigrated to America in 1894 and lived in Lynn where three of his children, including Joseph, were born.

First Papers Taken Out.—His father declared that he took out his first citizenship papers in 1895, but that he left the United States before the naturalization became complete.

At the beginning of the war, one son, born in Lynn, according to Mr. Murphy, registered at the American consulate in Queenstown as an American. Joseph, however, failed to register.

It is asserted that the government accusation against Murphy was that he had a bomb in his possession.

PARENTS MARRIED IN BUTTE.—California Woman Says Joseph Murphy Was Born in Provo, Utah.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 25.—The parents of Joseph Murphy, the hunger striker, who died today in Cork, Ireland, were married in St. Patrick's church in Butte more than 20 years ago, according to a dispatch received in this city.

After residing in Butte for about a year, the Murphys moved to Provo, Utah, where Joseph Murphy was born, according to this telegram.

Little is known of young Murphy's life in Utah, but it is said that the Murphys finally moved to an eastern city and that Joseph went to Ireland several years ago.

Republican Rally Announced.—A republican rally under the auspices of the Albina Republican club will be held at the Albina branch library, 350 Knott street, tonight at 8 o'clock.

Dog's Bite Recalled.—The monkey's attack on the king recalls a somewhat similar episode which occurred in the spring of 1919, when the youthful monarch was bitten by a dog which had been presented to him by an admiring member of the Scottish Women's hospital at Saloniki.

The correspondent of the Associated Press, who visited the king at his palace in Athens at that time, found the king wearing his right arm in a sling.

"Did you shoot the dog?" he was asked. "No," replied the king, "he's only a pup, and I decided to give him another chance. He bit me only in a playful spirit."

The king at one time was reported engaged to an American girl, Miss Josephine Kelly, of St. Paul, Minn., a stenographer employed by the Greek government.

DUBLIN, Oct. 25.—(Special Cable.)—All through Ireland today there were evidences of public and popular mourning for Lord Mayor MacSwiney.

Flags were at half-mast and window blinds were drawn, while in the country villages crepe was hung from many houses.

In Cork all amusement houses were closed, and there was silent mourning and gloomy tenseness everywhere.

U. S. FINANCIERS GET BIG SIBERIA LEASE

Vanderlip Announces Deal by Western Men.

Development of Coal, Oil and Fisheries to Be Started in Spring Is Declaration.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Washington D. Vanderlip of California, who recently visited Russia, has sent a telegram from Copenhagen saying he has concluded an extensive arrangement with the Russian soviet authorities by which an organization of western American financiers acquires a 60-year lease of a vast tract in northern Siberia, with exclusive rights to develop coal, oil and fisheries.

Vanderlip's telegram describes the tract as covering an area of 100,000 square miles. He said that active operations will begin in the spring of next year.

"I am highly amused by stories contained in recent foreign papers about the rebellions in Russia. Moscow is as safe as any city in the world. Reports of rebellions and of fighting are absolutely false, and are, I believe, foreign propaganda designed to prevent legitimate American business activity in this great Russian market. I have confidence in their power to carry out their part of any agreement we may enter into."

HARRY CHANDLER IS IN DEAL.—Publisher of Los Angeles Times Comments on Enterprise.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 25.—Harry Chandler, publisher of the Los Angeles Times and interested in numerous financial and industrial enterprises here and elsewhere, said today that he was one of the persons associated with Washington D. Vanderlip, an oil and mining engineer, in the latter's exploration of a section of Siberia.

Mr. Chandler said that about 25 business men had become associated with Mr. Vanderlip, who has spent two years in Siberia, and that they were going to conduct extensive explorations to determine the mining, oil and fishing possibilities of a large section of that country.

He said that for the present at least their work would be confined to exploration, but that they held an option for actual development if it should be determined that such work would bring financial returns.

The men named by Mr. Chandler as associated with Mr. Vanderlip are all rated locally as wealthy. Several of them are reputed to be multi-millionaires.
