

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

CITY EDITOR: Main 7070, 560-85. Sunday Editor: Main 7070, 560-85. Advertising Department: Main 7070, 560-85. Superintendent of Bldg.: Main 7070, 560-85.

AMUSEMENTS. HEILIG (Broadway at Taylor)—Musical play, "Buddies," tonight. BAKER (Alder at Eleventh)—Baker stock company in "A Voice in the Dark," tonight.

ALLEGED BOOTLEGER CAUGHT.—Ed Schmidt, wanted in Portland on a charge of selling bootleg liquor, has been caught in Sacramento, according to word received yesterday by federal authorities. Schmidt was placed under $500 bail here about a year and a half ago. He fled to Indiana.

MOUNT HOOD LOOKOUTS THROUGH.—The lookout house on the top of Mount Hood has been locked up for the winter and will not be opened again until July 1. A. T. Maas and W. Kelly of the forest service lookouts on the mountain top during the past summer. The experimental wireless which was installed during the summer for the first time, will probably be used again next year.

PAID $1000 TO WIDOW.—Four thousand dollars have been given to Mrs. Katy Schwartz by the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for the death of her husband, J. C. Schwartz, on September 1. Confession of judgment was filed yesterday in the circuit court. Mrs. Schwartz, an employe of the company, lost her life when he was thrown from a work car.

UNDERTAKING ESTABLISHMENT AUTHORIZED.—Permission was granted yesterday to M. G. Griffin for the erection of an undertaking establishment at the southwest corner of Seventeenth and Taylor streets. The council acted upon the recommendation of City Commissioner Barker, who announced that there was no opposition to the granting of the permit.

GORDON AND FIRE CHIEF TO DEBATE.—A hot debate is expected at the special members' forum luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce on Monday day, when Herbert Gordon, candidate for mayor will oppose the 3-mill tax levy charter amendment and Jay Stevens, San Francisco fire chief and manager of the fire prevention bureau of the Pacific, will urge its passage.

BIOLOGISTS ASK BUSTLING.—Dr. Scheffer and L. K. Couch, assistant biologists of the United States bureau of biological survey, were in Portland yesterday to confer with Stanley S. Jewett, predatory animal inspector. Since Mr. Jewett was out of the city, they will probably return today to the state of Washington, where they are in rodent control work.

PROGRESS IN DENTISTRY.—Our nerve-blocking method enables us to eradicate pyorrhea, extract, fill, or crown teeth without pain. We can fit your mouth with permanent, comfortable and slightly artificial teeth soon after we extract your worthless teeth. Harley, Kiser, and Marshall, 307 Journal bldg.—Adv.

PRESS CLUB TO HEAR POLITICS.—A "free-for-all" political programme is to occupy today's luncheon session of the Portland Press club at the Elks' building. Proponents and opponents of various measures proposed have been asked to attend and deliver three-minute speeches. Numerous candidates are to be present.

DR. HINSON LECTURES TODAY.—Dr. W. B. Hinson will give his regular Thursday afternoon Bible lecture on "The Facts of the Bible" from 3 to 4 today at the East Side Baptist church, East Twentieth and Salmon streets. Mrs. Virginia Spencer Hutchinson will sing.

CITY BANKERS GO TO SEATTLE.—Portland will be represented at a meeting of the executives of the north-west chapters of the American Institute of Banking which is in session in Seattle today and tomorrow, by J. K. Bryon of the Ladd & Tilton bank, Christian Peterson of the United States National bank and Thomas H. West, a member of the national executive council. Bryon is president of the local chapter and Peterson is vice-president.

BREACH OF PROMISE CHARGED.—Fifteen thousand dollars for failure to keep a promise to marry is asked of Frank Skinner, an electrician, by Mrs. Nadine Gardner of Multnomah station in a complaint filed yesterday in the circuit court. Mrs. Gardner, who is a widow, asserts that on January 17, 1920, the defendant promised to marry her, setting March 18 as the date. In April she asked him to keep his word and he declined, she alleges.

CHURCHY IS CHARGED.—Cruelty is charged in three divorce complaints filed yesterday in the circuit court. Those asking separations on these grounds are Mrs. Lavina Hirsch from Louis Thomas Hirsch, Pearl Miller from Claude Miller and E. B. Goughnour from Marie E. Goughnour. Ralph L. Dundas is seeking a divorce from Daisy M. Dundas. He alleges desertion.

JOHN MALISKOFF MISSING.—John Maliskoff, aged 10, did not want to go to school, so he decided to run away instead. His father yesterday asked the police to assist in finding the youthful runaway, who has been missing since Monday evening. He was wearing white canvas shoes, a blue shirt and short black trousers. The family lives at 552 Front street.

PHONE TOLL BOXES ROBBED.—Coins in the toll boxes of the pay stations on the first and fifth floors of the courthouse were found to have been stolen when the collector for the telephone company went to remove the change yesterday. The theft had been committed by prying the receptacles open, then showing the doors back into place.

CITY PLANT GETS CONTRACT.—The municipal paving plant was awarded the contract yesterday for the improvement of Woodward avenue from Grand avenue to Milwaukee street. The city's bid was $25,648.65, compared with a bid of $23,913.65 by the nearest competitor. Woodward avenue is the principal thoroughfare in Brooklyn.

RESTAURANT OWNER ACCUSED.—Steve Chocales, a Greek restaurant owner, was given a 30-day suspended sentence yesterday by Municipal Judge Rossman on complaint of J. C. Madden, who charged the Greek with assault. It was alleged Chocales hit Madden over the head with a bottle in the course of an argument at the restaurant.

ADULT GETS YEAR IN JAIL.—Two county jail sentences of six months each were imposed against James Stanley, drug addict, by Municipal Judge Rossman yesterday. Stanley pleaded guilty to separate charges of carrying concealed weapons and having narcotics in his possession. He was arrested Sunday by Police Inspectors Tackberry and Phillips.

TEN-MILE ROAD FINISHED.—A ten-mile strip of road south of Clear lake, which links the link between Mount Hood loop and the Deschutes country, has just been completed, according to H. J. Sheppard, supervisor of the Oregon national forest. Twenty more miles remain to be built. A crew of 15 men has been at work on the last-mile strip since June.

REED STUDENTS TOLD OF ISSUES.—C. C. Chapman addressed the students of Reed college yesterday on the constitutional amendment which comes up before the voters for a decision next Tuesday, giving the second of a series of such talks. Charles H. Cheney will talk on "City Planning" at the college at 10 o'clock this morning.

FORESTRY EXAMINATION HELD.—Nine candidates, three of whom are ex-service men, have taken the examination for forestry ranger, conducted by the Oregon national forest. The results of the examination will not be announced for several months. The papers must be sent to the civil service commission at Washington, D. C.

ACCUSED FATHER ARRESTED.—Edward Rathbone, known here as D. W. Stewart, was arrested Tuesday by Deputy Sheriff Hamaker and is being held for removal to Boseman, Mont. He is wanted to answer to charges of committing a statutory crime against his daughter. An officer from Montana is to be sent for him.

'BUDDIES' OPENS TONIGHT

OLIVE REEVES SMITH HAS FAMOUS FATHER. Mrs. Denman Maley, in Private Life, Plays Leading Role of Julie.

Olive Reeves Smith is the daughter of a famous father, Reeves Smith of the English stage. She is Mrs. Denman Maley in private life and theirs is one of the happy marriages of the theatrical world. Miss Reeves Smith plays the role of Julie in the musical play "Buddies," which opens tonight at the Heilig Smith.

And there are other well-known brands, too. Superior fabrics and finish; unmistakable style. Swagger reversible leather and gabardine coats. Snug winter-weight Knit Overcoats. Raincoats of Priestley's gabardine. Overcoats in all the popular models and colors. Suits whose keynote is quality and good taste.

Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats $60. And there are other well-known brands, too. Superior fabrics and finish; unmistakable style. Swagger reversible leather and gabardine coats. Snug winter-weight Knit Overcoats. Raincoats of Priestley's gabardine. Overcoats in all the popular models and colors. Suits whose keynote is quality and good taste.

Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats $45. Values to $65—Special at. See our windows. Lion Clothing Co. Exclusive Kuppenheimer House in Portland. Morrison at Fourth S. & H. Stamps Given

Bill Features Election Returns to Be Announced by Orpheum Actors. Result of Ballot to Be Furnished Theater-Goers Hot From Special Telegraph.

Two complete Orpheum shows will be staged at the Heilig next Tuesday night, election day, and the election returns will be read by the various vaudeville artists at each night performance. The first night show will start at 8 o'clock and the second show at 10 o'clock. After the second night show reading of the election returns will be continued until after midnight and as long as desired by the majority of the Orpheum patrons.

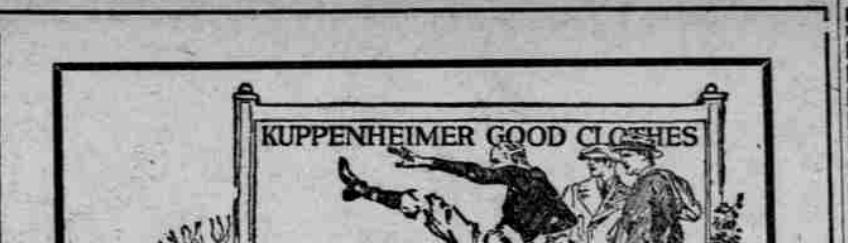

Special arrangements have been made by the Orpheum to provide its patrons with fresh-from-the-wire election returns. A telegraph instrument will be installed in the lobby of the theater and from that point the returns will be relayed to the stage by messenger and reading of the returns will proceed as the show is in progress.

City Auditor Declares Reports of Municipal Departments Public. Statements said to have been made by certain candidates for mayor that reports of the conduct of municipal departments have not been published since 1916 are political bombast, intricate and misleading, said City Auditor Funk, who is in charge of the city's records, yesterday.

ENGINEER TO GET $100 A DAY.—Payment of $100 for eight days' service in extending the Burnside bridge to John Lyle Harrington of Kansas City was authorized yesterday by the county commissioners. Mr. Harrington is a consulting engineer and valued his services at $100 a day.

MOONSHINE COSTS $100.—Martin Luskach was fined $100 yesterday in police court after Judge Rossman had found him guilty of violating the prohibition laws. Police testified they found a quantity of moonshine liquor in his possession.

J. D. MERRYMAN IS DEAD. Ex-Cashier of Custom House Dies at Klamath Falls. Captain John D. Merryman, cashier in the Portland custom-house from 1898 to 1913, died Tuesday at Klamath Falls, Or., according to word received here yesterday.

You'll Find the Famous Kuppenheimer Label Among These $75 and $85. Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats. Now Special at $60.

And there are other well-known brands, too. Superior fabrics and finish; unmistakable style. Swagger reversible leather and gabardine coats. Snug winter-weight Knit Overcoats. Raincoats of Priestley's gabardine. Overcoats in all the popular models and colors. Suits whose keynote is quality and good taste.

Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats $45. Values to $65—Special at. See our windows. Lion Clothing Co. Exclusive Kuppenheimer House in Portland. Morrison at Fourth S. & H. Stamps Given

Bill Features Election Returns to Be Announced by Orpheum Actors. Result of Ballot to Be Furnished Theater-Goers Hot From Special Telegraph.

Two complete Orpheum shows will be staged at the Heilig next Tuesday night, election day, and the election returns will be read by the various vaudeville artists at each night performance. The first night show will start at 8 o'clock and the second show at 10 o'clock. After the second night show reading of the election returns will be continued until after midnight and as long as desired by the majority of the Orpheum patrons.

Special arrangements have been made by the Orpheum to provide its patrons with fresh-from-the-wire election returns. A telegraph instrument will be installed in the lobby of the theater and from that point the returns will be relayed to the stage by messenger and reading of the returns will proceed as the show is in progress.

City Auditor Declares Reports of Municipal Departments Public. Statements said to have been made by certain candidates for mayor that reports of the conduct of municipal departments have not been published since 1916 are political bombast, intricate and misleading, said City Auditor Funk, who is in charge of the city's records, yesterday.

ENGINEER TO GET $100 A DAY.—Payment of $100 for eight days' service in extending the Burnside bridge to John Lyle Harrington of Kansas City was authorized yesterday by the county commissioners. Mr. Harrington is a consulting engineer and valued his services at $100 a day.

MOONSHINE COSTS $100.—Martin Luskach was fined $100 yesterday in police court after Judge Rossman had found him guilty of violating the prohibition laws. Police testified they found a quantity of moonshine liquor in his possession.

J. D. MERRYMAN IS DEAD. Ex-Cashier of Custom House Dies at Klamath Falls. Captain John D. Merryman, cashier in the Portland custom-house from 1898 to 1913, died Tuesday at Klamath Falls, Or., according to word received here yesterday.

Room for 20,000 Letters in These Four Drawers! Filing and Finding Your Papers Made Easy by Globe-Wernicke Filing Cabinets in Wood and Steel. We carry filing cabinet supplies of every description and for every system in our spacious third-floor furniture department.

SUPPOSE You Wanted to Borrow $10,000 OR You Wanted to Rent a House OR You Wanted to Buy Life Insurance

WHICH WOULD YOU TAKE? Suppose you wanted to borrow $10,000. And ONE BANK said: We charge 6% interest, BUT at the end of the year we will return you some of this, according to our general success.

Suppose you wanted to rent a house. And ONE owner said: I charge $1000 a year; BUT at the end of the year I will refund you something according to my profits on all tenants. IF I prosper you net rent is only $850.00 or $800.00. Next year it may be less.

Now suppose you want LIFE INSURANCE. ONE Company says: We charge $1000 a year for this policy; but each year we will pay you a dividend. Now a day's the dividend reduces your net cost to $850 or even $800, with a steady reduction thereafter.

Which Loan Would YOU TAKE? Which House Would YOU Rent? The TRAVELERS Insurance Company. has been for over half a century the leading advocate of Guaranteed Low Cost Life Insurance.

The TRAVELERS Insurance Company. PHIL GROSSMAYER CO., General Agents. Phone Main 702. Wilcox Bldg., Sixth Floor. For Information, See Any of the Following: Wm. C. Kavanagh, Cyril Brownell, L. L. Nason, Lloyd S. Lawson, Chas. E. Fuller, Todd Hazen, Frank Herman, Albert Eschricht, Dow V. Walker, Charles Barton, Rockey D. Hodgkin, Ralph G. DeLano.

Y and E Direct Name Filing System. Can your file clerk find a letter in ten seconds? Probably not; in fact, two minutes would be nearer the average time in most filing departments.

31,349 cars stolen last year. IN NINETEEN CITIES The Decker Lock-Steering Wheel. Stops the Thief! Ask FORD, DODGE, CHEVROLET, OVERLAND 4 or MAXWELL dealers to show you this wheel, or write R. P. RICE, Kansas City - - - Missouri.

All Night TOWING Service. If stuck or wrecked, call our Cadillac 8 towing car, equipped for the most difficult jobs. We can also supply your tire requirements at any time, any place, nights, Sundays, holidays. WE NEVER CLOSE. Covey Motor Car Company.

TIP TOP DELICATESSEN AND GROCERY. REMEMBER OUR COMPLETE ASSORTMENT of Home Prepared, Home Cooked Foods - Salads Cold Meats and Pastries "Everything for a Luncheon" STOP AND SHOP AT THE TIP TOP.

REPAIRED PIANOS, PLAYER-PIANOS, PHONOGRAPHS. Also repaired by a new and better process for less money. Grand Ball Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Auxiliary FRIDAY, OCT. 29, 8:30 P. M. Cotillion Hall, 14th, Near Washington. Tickets on sale by members and at the door.

Glass & Prudhomme COMPANY. Printers Bookbinders Desks Filing Cabinets 65-67 Broadway. A Moderately-Priced Hotel of Most HOTEL CLIFFORD. 61-63 East Day. $6 Per Week Up.

NATIONAL LAUNDRY CO. A Different Kind of Laundry & Different Prices EAST 494. TWO of the most homelike hotels in Portland, located in the heart of the shopping and theater district. All Oregon Electric trains stop at the Seward Hotel, the House of Cheer. Excellent dining room in connection. The Hotel Cornelius, the House of Welcome, is only two short blocks from the Seward. Our brown buses meet all trains. Rates $1.50 and up. W. C. Culbertson, Prop.

PHONE YOUR WANT ADS TO THE OREGONIAN