

REACTIONARY FORCES ROUTED, SAYS COX

Issue Clear to AN Americans, Nominee Declares.

LEAGUE ENTRY PROMISED

People Have Taken Harding at His Word, That He Opposes Covenant, Says Governor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 28.—Arguments developed particularly to voters favoring Senator Harding upon the broad, general ground of desiring "a change" in national affairs, were emphasized tonight by Governor Cox. To a large audience in Tomlinson hall and in a formal statement Governor Cox fired a broadside of questions to the American people, attacking Senator Harding and other republican leaders for their league of nations, legislative and political records.

"Republicans, when they are honest," Governor Cox declared, "have acknowledged what is patent to everyone—that no one really wants Senator Harding for president—and yet they tell me that as partisans many are expected to vote for him because they have been taught to believe that they 'want a change.' The expression was preached as propaganda by reactionary leaders until it has become nauseating to the public."

Governor Cox asked whether the voters "desire a change back to normalcy relative to legislation," to "evasion by big business," to "success of reactionary politicians," to "control of government by men led by Lodge and Penrose," and to other conditions.

Hoosier Democrats Cheer.
Governor Cox's visit here was the occasion for a great rally of Hoosier democracy. A parade, with fireworks, torchlights and bands, was staged and the governor spoke to an overflow meeting outside of the hall. Hundreds of persons, including many clubs, marched in the parade.

The governor arrived at 5:30 P. M. from Dayton, O., where he spent the day resting and where he issued a second statement attacking the Saturday Evening Post for its growing charges of unfair partisanship.

Governor Cox also preached the league of nations and predicted victory next Tuesday.

"When I started this campaign," he said, "I made the charge that we would drive our opponents out of the front trench by mid-October. I have now visited 36 states. Not only has that prediction come true, but the retreat of the reactionaries' forces has become a rout. The American people are clearly for me because they are for the league. The lines are definitely set. My election means our going into the league and not withdrawing from it. The league and wobbler of Senator Harding, the voters have taken him at his word that he is against the league and that he has turned his back upon it."

Enemy Held Hopeless.
"Every smoke screen set up by the 'senatorial oligarchy' has been pierced and every entanglement has been torn down. Tomorrow we must build up a slogan for a 'change' is the last to fall."

His opponents make their fight upon the league issue and upon the issue of the tariff. They have failed in their attempt to divert the issue. They have been compelled to recognize that Cox is the candidate and no longer can they continue their assault upon President Wilson, whom they have not only labored for months, even though they knew he was sick and unable to defend himself, but in the midst of the war as is any disabled soldier in the hospital."

In his assault upon sentiment for "a change," Governor Cox put these questions to voters: "Do they want a change that will mean tax revision from a big business point of view? That is the change they would get from Senator Harding."

"Do the cattle raisers want the change desired by the packers, so that the Kenyon-Kendrick bill will be killed, leaving the cattle raiser with whatever prices the big five elect to give? All of Senator Harding's political associates are opposed to that bill."

Possible Changes Noted.
"Do they desire a change 'back to normalcy' relative to legislation? Will Johnson, Borah, Norris and the other progressives in and out of congress deny they are hoping to prevent Penrose from writing the next tariff bill? Do they want a change that will mean success to the programme of reactionary politicians, including Senator Harding, desirous of abolishing all direct primaries and thus eliminating the 'troublesome' influence of delegation when the old guard leaders assemble at 2:11 A. M. for their quadrennial conference to pick the presidential nominee for the republican voters of America?"

"Do the farmers want a change to a federal government headed by Senator Harding, who declared in 1917 that wheat could be raised at a profit for $1 a bushel?"

"Do the farmers want a change to the type of political control that brought about the agrarian revolt in North Dakota?"

"Do the workmen of America want a change to an administration headed by Senator Harding, who voted for the anti-strike section of the Cummins bill, although in keeping with his general conduct he would pose now as a friend of labor?"

Appeal Made to Women.
"Do the women of America want a change that would mean control of government by men led by Lodge and Penrose, who opposed woman suffrage and every other moral issue and who are just as wrong on all social service problems now as they are on the league of nations? During that portion of the last year when there was a democratic congress more humanitarian and national welfare legislation was enacted than during the whole history of preceding republican congresses, and more of it was passed."

will be added to the statutes when the women will have rejected the party of evasion and misrepresentation.

"Do the small business men of the nation want a change in the federal reserve banking system that would enable a small group of bankers to retain control of the money power of the country?"

"Do the supporters of fair and honest elections want a change that would mean more power to Senator Watson of Indiana, who engineered the dilatory tactics that prevented action by the senate committee by which Senator Truman Newberry remained a senator for two years after the Michigan election and after his conviction by a republican jury in a republican court in his own republican state for having purchased his seat in the senate?"

Irish Question Raised.
"Do the men and women of Irish descent want a change that will mean, according to Senator Harding, that the question of Irish independence shall not be one for the consideration of official America; or do they want a change that will mean the presentation of Ireland's case at the bar of world opinion?"

"Do the men and women of German descent want a change, as they fear Viereck, because of some promise of a separate peace under more favorable terms to Germany, want a change from the conditions at Paris where, as everyone knows, Germany would have been cut to pieces like a headless chicken had it not been for the United States? Or do they want the influence of the United States in the league of nations to be used to question the settlement on the basis of justice, humanity and fair dealing instead of vindictiveness and destruction?"

"Do the former service men want a change that will mean nothing more than the repetition of the farce staged by congress when it played horse for a pension question and came to no definite conclusion? Or do they want a change to a positive pledge of support for the four-fold plan of action by the American legion at Cleveland?"

Roosevelt Bolt Recalled.
"Do the people who regard the supreme court as the greatest bulwark of justice want a change to majority control by reactionary justices selected by a reactionary president?"

"Do the people want a change back to the old conditions that caused Roosevelt to revolt in 1912? Have they forgotten that the men now in control of the republican party are the same that Roosevelt fought and the people turned out of office? Those men have not changed. It is impossible that the public estimate of them has changed."

Groundless, Says Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post, in a statement tonight, in reply to charges of unfair partisanship on the part of the Post and its editor, made today by Governor Cox, said that the Saturday Evening Post is not influenced in its stand by a desire for the stand taken by the Saturday Evening Post during the past year has not occurred and probably could not occur.

"It is common knowledge that the Saturday Evening Post is not influenced in its stand by a desire for the stand taken by the Saturday Evening Post during the past year has not occurred and probably could not occur."

With Unfair Partisanship.

DATON, O., Oct. 28.—Another statement charging the Saturday Evening Post and its editor, George Horace Lorimer, with unfair partisanship, was issued today by Governor Cox of Ohio, democratic presidential candidate.

"The insidious purpose of the Saturday Evening Post, headed by Senator Harding, who declared in 1917 that wheat could be raised at a profit for $1 a bushel?"

The Easiest Way

Whenever our country experiences a money furry, many advertising appropriations are curtailed and some stopped altogether.

The producer of raw material, the labor leader, the makers of railroad tariffs, have all demanded and received, since 1914, great increases in the amount spent by manufacturers for material, labor and transportation.

But the advocates of advertising are not in a position to demand. Advertising is not indispensable.

When the banker puts on the screws of conservatism and retrenchment, the quickest and easiest place to effect a "saving" is in the advertising appropriation.

The "gain" is immediate and the loss is gradual and cannot be proved anyway.

Men who are steadfast in their advertising are either gifted with imagination or protected by having been born resolute.

"normalcy" under which his publication sought to prosper by unfair methods.

"Is it because the Curtis Publishing company was found guilty of the use of unfair and illegal methods of competition and of violation of the anti-trust law prohibiting use of certain contracts and of violation of the federal trade commission's ruling?"

The complaint in each case was based upon the fact that the Curtis Publishing company made contracts with wholesale distributors which prevented them from handling other publications without permission from the Curtis Publishing company and which prohibited the sale of all competing publications.

The plan of the Curtis Publishing company was with the intent and had the effect of largely through the ordinary distribution channels and forced them to distribute through channels which did not reach the ordinary consumer.

Proof of these unlawful practices was found by the federal trade commission in a series of extensive hearings on July 21, 1919, and the Curtis Publishing company was forced to cease and desist."

GREEK REGENT'S ELECTED

CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES NAMES
ADMIRAL COUNDOURIOTIS.

Minister of Marine in Venizelos
Cabinet Wins by Vote of 137 to 3.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Greek chamber of deputies has elected Admiral P. Coundouriotis as regent of Greece by a vote of 137 to 3, says a dispatch to the London Times from Athens.

Admiral Coundouriotis is minister of marine in the Venizelos cabinet.
