

COLBY WANTS MEXICO RECOGNITION IS NEAR

Firm Friendship is Asked in Envoy's Letter.

STATEMENT IS IN REPLY

Neighbor is Declared to Be New Nation That Faces World in Pride and Confidence.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Early recognition of the new government in Mexico was forecast today by Secretary Colby. Whether it will precede inaugurating of President-elect Obregon next December 1, was not stated. In revealing that "discussions" have been in progress, confidential agent of the Mexico City government, however, Mr. Colby said that these gave promise of a speedy and happy outcome.

The announcement came as a surprise. Earlier in the day a report circulated in New York that recognition was imminent met with emphatic denial at the state department. A few hours later, however, Secretary Colby made public a letter from Mr. Poguera, as the basis for his announcement. The letter, which was a foundation upon which the preliminaries to recognition can confidently proceed.

Early Solution Expected. "I think I am warranted in saying," Mr. Colby's formal announcement said, "that the Mexican question will soon cease to be a question at all, inasmuch as it is about to be answered, not only as it concerns the United States, but indeed, the whole world as well."

Mr. Poguera's letter told of his earlier informal negotiations with Under-Secretary Davis at the state department and said it was "a new Mexico," which "submitting herself to the recognized principles of international law," now sought recognition by the United States.

Mr. Colby declared the letter as "a very significant and a very gratifying and reassuring statement of the attitude and purposes of the new government of Mexico." Secretary Colby's formal statement in part follows:

"Mr. Poguera came to Washington bearing the fullest powers to speak and act on behalf of his government and has exhibited throughout the course of the discussions a complete realization of Mexico's international obligations just as his letter reflects clearly the firm resolve of his government to discharge them.

"The new government of Mexico has given indications of stability, sincerity and a creditable sensitiveness to its duties and their just performance. While the full protection of valid American interests which is clearly enjoined upon us as a duty has at all times been a matter of primary concern, it is our belief that on the part of this country there has been no attempt to pre-empt right and justice in any way which a recognition of the Mexican government would be expressly conditioned.

Mr. Poguera's letter to the secretary follows in part:

"Dear Mr. Secretary: While the informal and frank conversations I had with Norman Davis, the under-secretary of state, have resulted in a friendly and thorough understanding, I beg the liberty of putting on paper the exact position and definite desires of my government.

"As you know, and as the United States must see, it is a new Mexico that faces the world in pride and confidence. From border to border there is peace. Not a single rebel remains in arms against the federal government and a whole nation thinks in terms of law and order and reconstruction. September 5 our citizens cast their votes in due accord with democratic procedure and a patriotism, the great soldier-statesman chosen to be president, is supported not only by a coalition of parties but by a union of faith and patriotism.

New Spirit is Announced. "What you may not know, however, is the new spirit that animates my country. It is not only the case that our men and women have come to a deep and lasting realization that Mexico owes to the idealism of President Wilson, so nobly and patiently exhibited in the unhappy years during which our oppressed millions fought against the injustice which weighed them down for centuries. It is equally true that they have thrilled to the world vision of the president, his tremendous ideal of universal fraternity.

"A first task of course is firm and enduring friendship between Mexico and the United States. Not only are we neighbors, but every other consideration points to the wisdom of an understanding that goes beyond mere treaties and sinks its root into the heart of each nation. We have the same political institutions, the same aspirations, the same ideals, the same goals.

stability, honesty and sincerity of my government. "The Mexican government is prepared to establish a joint arbitration commission to pass upon and adjudicate the claims presented by foreigners on account of damages caused during the revolution. Any claim that cannot be adjusted by means of direct negotiations between the claimant and the Mexican government will be submitted to the consideration of this commission, whose decisions will be deemed final and binding.

"Mexico has likewise held that, in order to place relations on a solid foundation, the existence of a permanent machinery of arbitration is essential for the purpose of deciding any difference. As regards the United States specifically, Mexico has already expressed her intention in article 21 of the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo and is prepared to enlarge and strengthen this machinery."

VAN WINKLE IS INDORSED

ATTORNEY-GENERAL REGARDED AS EFFICIENT. Well-Known Citizens of Oregon Urge All Republicans to Give Candidate Their Support.

I. H. Van Winkle, recently appointed attorney-general, and candidate for that office in the coming election, has received the following endorsement from citizens throughout the state:

"Three republicans and one democrat are candidates for the office of attorney-general. Unless republican voters unite in one name, the republican cause is in grave danger that the democratic candidate may be elected.

The undersigned republican voters, believing after a careful canvass that the present attorney-general, I. H. Van Winkle, is the strongest republican candidate for the office, urge all republicans to vote for him.

Mr. Van Winkle has had more than 15 years experience as first assistant attorney-general. He is dean of the law school of Willamette university and is a lawyer of high standards and ability. He is unquestionably the best fitted and most logical of all the candidates for the office. Voters are urged to remember that no names are put on the ballot for the office of attorney-general, and that it is necessary to write in on the ballot the candidate's name with initials and place before it an X.

ALASKA DECLARED IN GUGGENHEIM GRIP

Natives Hate Interests, Says Special Rail Observer.

SHIP LINE IS ADVOCATED

David Cohen, With Commission, Reports Entrance to Northland Is Being Discouraged.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Alaska, body and soul, future, is in the grip of the Guggenheim interests.

David Cohen, special observer with the Alaska railroad commission, suggests the Alaska situation with the above statement. Cohen returned to the states to lay before the committee the true story of Alaska, which, he says, has never been told to the world before.

Lakes of oil, veins of purest copper and the richest coal fields in the world soon will be thrown open, ostensibly to the world, but really to the Guggenheim interests, Cohen said, with the completion of the Seward-Fairbanks railroad.

Native Alaskans are watching the progress of the rail enterprise with certain misgivings, Cohen observed, although seeing in it ultimately the dream of the "hundredth" fulfilled. Guggenheim Interests Hated.

More intense than the bitterness of her barren cold is the hatred of Alaska by the Guggenheim interests, who control nearly every resource in the country, Cohen declared. With the driving of the last spike on the new government railroad, Alaska wins or loses, he added.

"If the government," suggested Cohen, "could appropriate a fund to build even one better competitor on the coast it would encourage capital to enter Alaska and develop the country. Without such aid, the government programme to develop Alaska will fail of its purpose."

Transportation throughout Alaska and away from her coasts is controlled by Guggenheim today, he added. In laying out the problem facing Alaska, entrance to the northland, Cohen stated, is being discouraged by the interests who have transportation under control. The Copper River railroad and the Alaska Steamship company make no attempt to give an efficient service, he said.

Steamship Line Suggested. "With the completion of the rail line Alaska will be opened to the coast. The big purpose of the government will be defeated unless a steamship line, established and operated by the shipping board, is inaugurated between Alaska and the states. Transportation is not the only problem with which Alaska has to deal.

Alaska has been constantly misrepresented by those who have stayed within her borders not long enough to become acquainted with her, and who then have carried to the "outside" a story of surface impressions gained on her barren coast. "Our northern territory is judged too quickly and too often by her coast," Cohen declared.

Great Fortunes Are Feared. "Capitalists," he said, "who are aware of the future in Alaska still do not care to buck the Guggenheim interests, because it means bringing into play vast fortunes and changing all at one throw.

"There is a Guggenheim agent at every man's elbow in Alaska, ready and willing to buy him out at his own price at the first sign of failure and a disposition to sell.

"No friendlier people exist than the Alaskans. In the frozen wastes of the northland within the 'circle' hearts grow warm for the wanderer who ventures in from the 'outside.'"

Why Foreign Countries Anxiously Watch Next Tuesday's Election

Never before has an American election been fraught with so much meaning to the rest of the world, to judge from the anxiety evident in the comment of the foreign press. In fact, this became so evident as the campaign went on that THE LITERARY DIGEST sent out an inquiry to the press abroad asking their views on our political struggle.

In this week's number of "THE DIGEST"—October 30th—the replies to this inquiry are printed. They range from a tone of ardent hope that whether the next President be Mr. Harding or Mr. Cox, his election will clear away the after-mists of war which have risen from the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations, through degrees of distrust and cynicism to utter dismay that the United States, which was capable and courageous enough to help win the war, seems to lack the intelligence to realize she must also help win the peace. The replies that are printed represent seventeen countries in all, including England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, Belgium, Japan, Spain, China, Sweden, etc.

Coming, as it does, practically on the eve of our Presidential election this article will be read with great interest in America, as it reveals the world-wide anxiety over the outcome. Among other striking features in this number of "THE DIGEST" you will find

Eruptions of the Skin Cause Torturous Itching

If you are afflicted with any form of skin disorder, you are well acquainted with the flaming, burning itching that these diseases produce.

So many people continue to suffer from eczema, tetter, and other forms of skin disease because they do not seek the source of their suffering, and no disease can be successfully combated unless attacked at its source.

Skin diseases are caused by an impurity or disorder in the blood, and there is no real and genuine relief within your reach until such impurities are removed.

This explains why disappointment comes from the use of lotions, salves, ointments and other local remedies. S.S.S. has given great satisfaction in the treatment of these disorders, because it is such a thoroughly satisfactory blood purifier. It cleanses the blood of all impurities, and thus counteracts the effects of the germs that attack the skin.
