HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Unofficial complete returns for Hood River county were available when north precincts completed their count today. The republican tide that swept the nation struck here with force in all offices except for United States senator. Chamberlain received 1116 votes to Stanfield's 1009. The party tide extended to county offices, and J. R. Nickelsen, representative nominee for joint senator from Hood River and Wasco counties, defeated the democratic nominee, J. H. Hazlett, in this count by a vote of 1141 to 968. Incomplete returns from Wasco give Nickelsen 2146 to Hazlett's 1202 votes there. John Baker (rep.), for district attorney, defeated A. J. Derby (dem.) by 1211 to 947. H. L. Haebrouck, republican nominee for county judge, defeated J. O. Hannum, running independent, by 1235 to 1005. STANFIELD LEADS IN BENTON

MISSOURI AGAIN REPUBLICAN

Harding's Majority in State Reported More Than 120,000.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—Missouri tonight was safely republican by more than 100,000 on the principal national and state offices, but in many of the local positions the vote was fairly close, with the Republican candidates generally leading.

With all but about 500 out of 3810 precincts missing, Harding had a majority of more than 120,000; Arthur M. Hyde led John M. Atkins for governor by about 110,000, and Senator Selden P. Spencer was running far ahead of his ticket for re-election, polling nearly 150,000 more votes than his opponent, Breckenridge Long.

The Republicans apparently gained substantially in congress. Two Democratic stand-bys of the house were given the hottest battles of their careers by Republicans. Champ Clark is defeated in the ninth district and Representative Bland, of Kansas City, is behind Ellis, Republican, in his district, normally Democratic.

JACKSON TREND TO STANFIELD

Harding Has 3166, Cox 1872 in 52 Out of 56 Precincts.

MEDFORD, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Complete returns from 52 out of 56 precincts in Jackson county tonight gave Harding 3166, Cox 1872, and in the senatorial contests Stanfield 3281, Chamberlain 3049. One of the four missing precincts was from Ashland, another from Medford and two from outlying districts. On the face of these returns, all constitutional amendments were defeated, but with the divided legislative session in doubt. It was estimated that Stanfield would carry the county by 200. He carried Medford. The republicans carried every county office except that of Rawles Moore, democrat, who defeated George M. Roberts, incumbent, for prosecuting attorney. Mayor Gates and Councilmen Keene, Gaddis, Miles, Antle, Dressler and Hill were re-elected.

By a very small margin the proposition of removing the courthouse from Jacksonville to Medford was defeated, according to present returns. E. V. Carter of Ashland and Ben C. Sheldon of Medford were elected as state representatives by substantial majorities, Sheldon's being a re-election.

WASCO ELECTS 1 DEMOCRAT

Republican Majorities Given to Harding and Stanfield.

THE DALLES, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—All measures listed on the ballot in the city election carried without serious opposition. Only one contest for office was on the ballot, Joe Heroux winning over Bert Wyatt for water commissioner in the 2d ward. Measures on the ballot for the increase of the city budget were passed.

Wasco county has turned in republican majorities for every candidate but one. Harding got an unofficial lead of 1266 over Cox with all precincts counted in full. Stanfield led Chamberlain by 511 votes. The one democratic exception was Frances Galloway, district attorney, who was victorious over Paul W. Childers, republican, by more than 500 votes.

More than 4000 votes were cast in Wasco county, this being about four-fifths of the total registration.

Representative Sinnott rolled up a lead of more than 1000 votes over his democratic opponent, J. H. Graham of Baker. John R. Nickelsen, republican, defeated J. H. Hazlett, democrat, for the state senatorship by more than two to one. The office is supported jointly by Hood River and Wasco counties.

On the county section of the ticket all republicans were elected. Out of 39 precincts in Wasco county, only seven were listed in the democratic column.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.) — The republicans captured every legislative office in this district and send Charles Hall to the legislature as senator, Tom T. Bennett as representative and S. P. Pierce of Curry as joint representative.

Old war horses in the democratic ranks were defeated for county offices. Sheriff W. W. Gage being beaten by Edwin Ellingson, and John F. Hall, for judge of the ounty court, being bested by Judge C. R. Wade. Other county officers elected include Inez Bunch, clerk; J. P. Beyers, assessor; Henry G. Kern, commissioner; C. E. Mulkey, school superintendent; C. S. McCulloch, surveyor; F. E. Wilson, coroner, and T. M. Dimmick, treasurer.

The Port of Coos Bay chose Dr. E. E. Straw, Marshfield, and Robert Banks and Peter Loggie, North Bend, commissioners.

Marshfield re-elected Duncan Ferguson mayor; W. N. Ekblad, M. H. Muller, Frank Heath and W. E. Wilson, councilmen, and John Butler, recorder. The city voted 3 to 1 for purchasing a new combination fire truck.

Peter Loggie was elected mayor of North Bend; councilmen, William Dolan, C. S. Kaiser, L. A. Loomis and J. M. Thomas. John G. Mullen defeated C. A. Maybee for recorder. The city voted to amend the charter so that property rights are not necessary for holding office. The fire engine measure passed, as did that for additional revenue.

R. T. Whitty was successful for mayor of Eastside. H. H. Schroeder defeated W. T. Dement at Myrtle Point for mayor. Floyd Huntley is sheriff of Curry county.

DESCHUTES FOR REPUBLICAN

Democrats Defeated for Legislature and Most Other Offices.

BEND, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—With county election returns lacking only the completion of the count in two of the largest Bend precincts to be virtually decisive, indications point strongly to the election of Denton G. Burdick of Redmond and H. J. Overturf of Bend, both republicans, as winners over R. E. Bradbury of Klamath county, democrat, for the two seats in the lower house of the legislature allowed this district.

Jay H. Upton of Prineville is without opposition for the senate. A. J. Moore, republican incumbent, is leading Ross Farnham, democrat, for district attorney of Deschutes county. R. W. Sawyer, republican, has already a decisive majority over J. A. Eastes, democrat, for county judge. S. E. Roberts, republican incumbent, is considered safe for re-election as sheriff against R. H. Fox, democrat. M. W. Knickerbocker, democrat, is conceded the county commissionership over John A. Marsh, republican.

J. P. Haner, Clyde M. McKay, J. Alton Thompson, C. P. Niswonger and R. B. Gould, all republicans, ran without opposition for the respective positions of clerk, treasurer, school superintendent, coroner and surveyor.

In the municipal election, held simultaneously with the general balloting, E. D. Gilson was chosen mayor, Miss M. E. Coleman, treasurer, and G. L. Baker, James Innes and H. Gilbert, C. J. Leverett, H. E. Allen and Lon L. Fox as members of the city council to serve for two years.

A county initiative measure, declaring Bend the permanent county seat of Deschutes county, has carried with but little opposition.

DOUGLAS REPUBLICANS WIN

Returns to Date Show Party Has Made Almost Clean Sweep.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—With only two candidates in the doubtful column, the republican party made a clean sweep in Douglas county at yesterday's election, and when all precincts have reported it will be found probably that the entire ticket has been elected. The race for county clerk between I. B. Riddle, republican, and E. H. Lenox, democrat, is neck-and-neck and the outcome will not be known until a number of outlying precinct reports have been received. A like condition exists for the office of county commissioner, where A. F. Stearns of Oakland, the republican candidate, was opposed by R. W. Long, democrat. Senator B. D. Eddy is leading his opponent, J. E. McClintock, by a substantial majority and his election is concerned. Others elected on the republican ticket are: J. D. Stewart, county judge; Sam W. Starmer, sheriff; James E. Sawyer, treasurer; Frank L. Calkins, assessor; F. C. Frear, surveyor; M. E. Ritter, coroner, and O. C. Brown, county school superintendent.

Practically every measure on the ballot was defeated.

Out of 59 precincts in this county only six remained to be heard from at a late hour today. These show that Harding has carried the county by close to 2000 majority and that Stanfield will have a lead of almost 1000 over Chamberlain. Van Winkle, for attorney-general, received 162 votes so far recorded, while C. P. Coshow of this county, seeking the same office, had 925 votes, with several precincts unrecorded.

HARE WINS IN ELEVENTH

Hillsboro Reports E. B. Tongue Is Re-elected.

HILLSBORO, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Washington county will be represented in the next legislature by William G. Hare, senator for the 11th district, and Representatives Earl E. Fisher, A. B. Flint and A. E. Westcott.

E. B. Tongue was re-elected district attorney and J. J. Wismer and John F. Carstens commissioners.

All are republicans, and the only opposition was the candidacy of W. J. McCready for legislator, John M. Wall for district attorney and J. M. Hiatt for commissioner. The latter three were overwhelmingly defeated. Other county officers were incumbents asking re-election without contests.

They are George Alexander, sheriff; H. A. Kuratli, clerk; W. F. Boley, assessor; Fred A. Evenst, recorder; N. A. Frost, school superintendent; A. A. Morrell, surveyor; George J. Limber, coroner. FRAUD CHARGES THREATEN Feeling High in Klamath Falls. Organizer Jailed.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Interest still centers in the ofices connected with state and national issues. Comparison of figures has so far been confined to returns for the offices of county judge and commissioner and county clerk.

Judge R. H. Bunnell, incumbent, defeated George Chastain, champion of the Main-street courthouse, by about 500. For commissioner Burrell Short, incumbent, defeated Fred Peterson by a small margin, thus seating the Hot Springs proponents more firmly in the saddle.

It is the county clerk's place which now occupies the center of attention, as incoming returns first give C. R. Delap, clerk the last ten years, the remaining bulwark of the Main-street crowd, a few votes lead, only to swing the lead to Frank Sexton, independent candidate, with the next batch of returns.

Feeling runs high and counter-charges of fraud are likely to be made. W. F. Kay, timber workers' organizer and secretary of the local labor council, was jailed on election eve on charges of violating the corrupt practices act. Kay is alleged to have been a Main-street partisan.

Lloyd Low ousted George Humphrey as sheriff. Low was on the Bunnell ticket. Indications point to the defeat of W. M. Duncan, district attorney, by C. C. Brower.

Election boards in some of the bigger election precincts are just finishing the count of ballots tonight. Meager returns give Harding 522, Cox 201, Stanfield 538, Chamberlain 452, Sinnott 620, Graham 134.

For representative Burdick received 346, Overturf 283 and Bradbury 350. The low interest bill is beaten two to one. The vote on the state market bill is about even.
