

HARDING'S OREGON LEAD NOW 58,000

Plurality in State May Reach 60,000.

STANFIELD IS AHEAD 15,593

Majority Over Chamberlain of 16,000 Probable.

BROWN ELECTED JUSTICE

I. H. Van Winkle to Be Attorney-General—All Three Republican Representatives Re-elected.

With the complete vote from 13 counties, the total vote of Multnomah county, with the exception of one precinct, and a large proportion of the vote in the other counties tabulated, Senator Harding has a majority of more than 58,000 over Governor Cox.

Stanfield is ahead 15,593. Chamberlain 93,880. Stanfield's lead 15,593.

In the complete count it is not likely that Stanfield's majority will run over 15,000.

Brown Supreme Justice. Additional returns received yesterday did not alter the situation as it was indicated by the early returns.

George M. Brown has been elected justice of the supreme court to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Judge Bennett, and I. H. Van Winkle has been elected attorney-general.

All three republican representatives in congress have been returned and the republicans have elected C. L. Hawley dairy and food commissioner, H. H. Corey and Fred G. Buchtel public service commissioners and Sam H. Kozak secretary of state.

Additional figures also failed to change the apparent result on measures. The only measure carried is the one which lengthens the term of five county officers from two to four years.

The port consolidation bill has been beaten by an adverse up-state vote, although no part of Oregon outside of the Port of Portland, which favored the measure, was directly interested in it.

WILSON RESIGNATION SUGGESTED BY BRYAN

CARRY OUT PEOPLE'S VERDICT AT ONCE IS PLEA.

Succession to Office by Harding in Time for December Session of Congress Is Proposed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—William Jennings Bryan, here today, gave out a statement suggesting that "President Wilson should resign at once."

"Now that the American people have decisively declared against the league of nations as written by the president," said Mr. Bryan, "it would seem desirable to carry out the verdict immediately. This can be easily done."

"The president should resign at once and turn over his office to Mr. Marshall on the condition that on the convening of congress in December, Mr. Marshall appoint Senator Harding secretary of state and himself resign."

"The law then would make Mr. Harding president and with the republican support in congress, he could at once put into operation the plan for the United States to enter into an association of nations for peace."

"As world peace is a thing nearest the president's heart, he can hardly refuse to hasten the coming of peace by so small a sacrifice—if it could be called a sacrifice—to escape from a three months' combat with a hostile congress, supported as it is by the recent vote."

DRY OFFICERS MAKE RAID Fifty Alleged Law Violators Arrested in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Prohibition enforcement officers swarmed over Manhattan today after reports that an immense "bootlegger" ring has been working here for several months amassing millions of dollars.

Announcement came from federal courts that jail sentences for violations of the Volstead act instead of fines would be imposed.

By 2 o'clock reports were issued of 50 arrests and seizures running from barrels to tea kettles.

EX-GOVERNOR PARDONED Vermont Man, Sentenced for Embezzlement While Auditor, Free.

MONTEPELIER, Vt., Nov. 4.—Governor Clement late today granted a full and unconditional pardon to ex-Governor Horace F. Graham.

The ex-governor was sentenced in the supreme court earlier in the day to imprisonment for five to eight years for embezzlement of state funds while he was state auditor.

I. W. W. REHEARING ASKED Petition Says Errors Were Made in First Hearing.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—A rehearing in the case of William Hayward and other I. W. W. was asked in a petition filed in the circuit court of appeals yesterday. In an opinion given by the same court, some time ago, the original sentence imposed by Federal Judge Landis was upheld.

The petition alleges errors were made in the first hearing.

JUBILANT CROWDS SERENADE HARDING

Red-Fire Celebration Is Marion History-Maker.

THOUSANDS JOIN IN PARADE

Versailles League "Now Deceased" Message.

SENATOR MAKES SPEECH

Nominee Declares He Has Come Through Fight Without "Apology or Regret."

MARION, O., Nov. 4.—Warren G. Harding, making his first speech as president-elect, declared at an election celebration of home folks tonight that the Versailles league of nations was "now deceased," although the new administration intended to see that the nation played its part in a new international association founded on peace and justice.

Mr. Harding also told his friends and neighbors, who gathered around the front porch in a cheering concourse rivaling the greatest crowd of the campaign, that he had come through the fight "without an apology or a regret" and that he would rather not have the presidency than to win it "by speaking ill or uttering a lie."

Celebration Makes History. In a red-fire celebration that will long be memorable in the history of Marion, Mr. Harding's neighbors and friends voiced their jubilation at his election and at the same time bade him Godspeed in the responsibilities he has undertaken.

Thousands took part in the parading and serenading. Noise-making devices of many kinds shrieked about the Harding home and the crowd sang and shouted by turns while half a dozen bands played in with patriotic airs, old-time favorites and jazz.

The Harding front porch, chief forum of the senator's campaign, was the center of the celebration, although the town's business and residential streets also were under the sway of the carnival spirit until late.

Standing where he had delivered most of his important utterances to the nation and with Mrs. Harding at his side, the president-elect received the congratulations of his fellow townsmen, shook hands with hundreds and thanked them for their devotion.

So great was the gathering that the streets were jammed for a block away and only a small part of those present could hear the senator's speech.

In a parade past the Harding residence, there were many special features.

ASHLAND TRICKED HER, SAYS MEDFORD

SUPPORT FOR REMOVAL OF COURTHOUSE LACKING.

Jacksonville Thinks It's Good Joke. Angry Citizens Threaten to Kill Normal School.

MEDFORD, Or., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—There is no longer a sisterly feeling between Medford and Ashland and Jacksonville, all because the courthouse removal proposition to Medford was defeated by only 137 votes on election day.

Medford is looking daggers at Ashland and Jacksonville for hugging her precious courthouse and ever and anon letting out a loud guffaw at Medford.

Thereby hangs a story of alleged Ashland perfidy and double-crossing of Medford on an election day deal by which Jacksonville was to support E. V. Carter, Ashland's candidate for one of the legislative offices from Jackson county, in exchange for Ashland's support of the courthouse removal proposition.

Medford came across heavily for Carter and Ashland went against courthouse removal by more than two-to-one.

Carter, republican, had been alleged in Medford to be the weakest of the four candidates for the legislature, two to be elected, the others being Ben Sheldon, republican, and George A. Mansfield and E. W. Phipps of Medford, democrats.

"Ashland did it," is the burden of Medford's song and resentment against the Ashland city runs high.

The total vote in Ashland was for removal 262, against 737, a majority of 475 votes against Ashland could have defeated the measure by nearly 200 majority and it would still have carried. Carter received 1239 votes in Medford, only 12 votes less than the 1251 given Sheldon. Mansfield received 377 votes in Medford and Phipps, another Medford man, only 723.

Medford's voice, threats concerning Ashland's normal school the next time it comes to a vote.

JURY BLAMES MISS CATE Death of Former Nurse Charged to Careless Auto Driving.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—A coroner's jury, at an inquest last night, charged Bertha Cate, 18-year-old daughter of E. U. Cate, local automobile dealer, with careless driving, old-time favorites and jazz.

The Harding front porch, chief forum of the senator's campaign, was the center of the celebration, although the town's business and residential streets also were under the sway of the carnival spirit until late.

Standing where he had delivered most of his important utterances to the nation and with Mrs. Harding at his side, the president-elect received the congratulations of his fellow townsmen, shook hands with hundreds and thanked them for their devotion.

So great was the gathering that the streets were jammed for a block away and only a small part of those present could hear the senator's speech.

OFFICIAL WASHINGTON TO MISS CHAMBERLAIN

SENATOR'S ONLY ENEMIES IN WHITE HOUSE, WAR BOARD.

Newspaper Corps at Capital Express Regret, Pay Tribute to Oregon Democrat.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—There was no disposition among republicans in Washington today to gloat over the defeat of Senator Chamberlain in Oregon. On the contrary, many expressions of regret were heard and numerous pretty tributes were paid to him, both as man and senator, by republicans as well as democrats.

It is not exaggerating to say that few men in public life have ever enjoyed the universal popularity of Senator Chamberlain in Washington. Outside the White House and the executive offices of the war department, it can be said truthfully that he has not an enemy in the national capital.

The senior Oregon senator has always been popular, especially with the newspaper corps here, and the first realization of the extent of the landslide became perceptible among the correspondents when it was learned that Mr. Chamberlain was running behind.

This general friendly manifestation was in no sense impelled by any unkindly feeling for Mr. Stanfield, who won the Oregon contests, because the latter is not known here, but wholly by the esteem and respect in which Senator Chamberlain is held.

MINERS RETURN SLOWLY Strike in England Sets Coal Output Back Two Months.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Work is not expected to be fully resumed in the coal mines closed down by the recent miners' strike before Monday, when the railways also are expected to institute normal service.

Reports from the coal fields concerning the men's rapid return to work were optimistic.

It is believed it will take two months for all the industries affected by the tie-up to get back to normal.

REPUBLICANS GET 59 SENATE SEATS

Majority of More Than Score Is Assured.

LEAD IN HOUSE IS 150

Harding Electoral Vote of 400 Nearly Smashes Record.

KENTUCKY IS ON FENCE Democratic Senatorial Candidate Is Passed by Rival With Result in Doubt.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The last contest of Tuesday's election for senators—that of Kentucky—declared late today, resulted in the election of Richard P. Ernst, republican, over Senator Beckham, democrat. This made the tenth turnover in favor of the republicans and will give them 53 seats in the senate to 27 for the democrats.

Of the 34 contests for seats in the senate republicans won 25 and democrats nine. The republicans elected 15 senators to succeed republicans and 10 in place of democrats. Republican gains were made in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Maryland, Nevada, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota and Kentucky.

House Majority Is 150. A republican majority of more than 150 in the house is assured.

The Harding-Coolidge ticket has 400 electoral votes.

On the face of incomplete returns tonight republicans have elected representatives from the 16th and 21st districts. In the former Thomas J. Ryan, republican, was leading Peter J. Doelling, democrat, while in the 21st, M. C. Ansoorge was ahead of Jerome F. Donovan, democrat.

Among the democratic senators who today went down to defeat were Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the military committee, Senator Smith of Arizona, who lost to ex-representative Cameron, and Senator Henderson of Nevada, who was defeated by Governor Oddie.

Some Sections Isolated. Final returns from a few congressional districts still were related tonight, some due to close races which upset a few previous announcements and others from isolated sections.

With these missing districts, the republican roll in the house had climbed past 284 to 140 for the democrats.

Among house members whose reelection was reported definitely tonight was Representative Volstead of Minnesota, author of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act, and chairman of the house judiciary committee.

STRICKEN PRESIDENT GLIMPSED BY CROWD

LEAGUE OF NATIONS ADHERENTS HONOR EXECUTIVE.

Chief Lifted in Wheel Chair to East Portico of White House While Throng Cheers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Wilson made his first public appearance tonight in more than a year when he was lifted in his wheel chair to the east portico of the White House while hundreds of Washington league of nations adherents gathered on the White House lawn to do him honor.

The crowd of men, women and children bearing state banners and the national flag under the leadership of John F. Costello, democratic national committeeman for the District of Columbia, marched to the White House, where the gates were opened to the public for the first time since the beginning of the war.

As the president was lifted in his wheel chair up the steps from the interior of the White House leading to the east portico, the crowd on the terrace below broke into applause and joined in the singing of "America."

Mrs. Wilson and members of the family stood about the president while the crowd sang. With an overcoat buttoned closely about him and a soft hat shading his face, the president sat silent, watching the throng below. There was more cheering as the song ended.

A soloist sang "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginia" and the crowd picked up the chorus. The president's face relaxed and he turned his head to speak to Mrs. Wilson beside his chair. As the song ended amid renewed cheers, a large bouquet of flowers was laid upon the balustrade before him.

Mr. Wilson raised his hat and held it aloft as attendants rolled his chair back toward the door. The crowd set up cheers for the league and for the president and Mrs. Wilson, and a final greeting from the doorway, sang "The Stars and Stripes."

LINN RE-ELECTS 2 WOMEN Miss Lenore Powell and Mrs. Ida Maxwell Cummings Win.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Both of Linn county's two women officers, who ran for re-election were successful. Miss Lenore Powell, county treasurer, won the nominations of both parties in the primaries and was chosen for a second term without opposition. Mrs. Ida Maxwell Cummings, county school superintendent, was opposed in the election, but won out by a majority of 165.

Linn county has had three women officials the last two years, the third being Mrs. Virginia Davis Peterson, county recorder, who refused to be a candidate for re-election.

NON-PARTISANS IN 7 STATES BEATEN

Townley Gets Crushing Defeat in Northwest.

NORTH DAKOTA POWER EBBS

Control of State Legislature Probably Lost.

BANK IS FACING PROBE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Crushing defeat for A. O. Townley in seven northwest states were shown in practically complete returns received today from Tuesday's general election. Minnesota, South Dakota, Montana, Nebraska, Washington, Idaho, Colorado halt plans.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Crushing defeat for A. O. Townley in seven northwest states were shown in practically complete returns received today from Tuesday's general election. Minnesota, South Dakota, Montana, Nebraska, Idaho, Washington and Colorado buried the Townley candidates under an avalanche of republican votes. In not one of the states did the non-partisans succeed in winning an important post.

Reports from North Dakota and Wisconsin, non-partisan victories were only partial. In Wisconsin, J. J. Blaine, (rep.) endorsed by the non-partisans, carried the state but will lack the backing of the non-partisan factions in the legislature.

Fraser North Dakota's Hope. Reports show Townley's hope in North Dakota rests on the fight being made by F. F. Frazier for governor. J. P. T. O'Connor maintained a lead over Frazier today but incoming returns slowly reduced his margin and tonight the Fargo forum conceded Frazier's election by 600.

The big blow to Townley in North Dakota was the probable loss of control of the state senate and house. It appeared most certain that he will lose control of the house and lose heavily in the senate.

Indications were that the initiated laws in North Dakota, aimed to curb Townley's control, had all been passed. They were passed ahead of the O'Connor vote in precincts reporting. One of these laws will make possible an open examination of the Bank of North Dakota by the state auditing board. This has never been possible before and A. O. Townley and his followers have steadfastly refused to let the public know anything about the inside workings of the bank. One of the other laws will change Townley's newspaper control scheme. It will make impossible his strangle-hold on the state's newspapers.

Farmers Deserting Townley. Minnesota farmers are breaking away from the Townley leadership. Out of the avalanche of votes that buried the Townley machine Tuesday, that fact best to stand up today with fair distinctness. Later and more complete returns probably will emphasize it.

The rural vote was a bitter disappointment to the socialist leaders who thought they were swinging the farmer population in line for their state ownership programme. After two years of intensive organization work, backed by millions in money, it was evident today that Townley had actually lost ground in nearly every part of the state. No less than 25 former Townley counties landed safely in the republican column.

Fraser Lites for J. P. T. O. Conroy and other republican candidates continued to soar today, reaching figures higher than their most optimistic friends had dared to hope. Frasier passed the 100,000 mark last night, and jumped again today on additional returns.

Combined Opposition Beaten. Republican pluralities over their nearest opponents, the Townley candidates, were far larger than the democratic vote. In other words, the republican ticket scored a clean majority Tuesday over the combined opposition.

A leading republican of the city tonight summed up the Minnesota situation as follows:

"In most of the states the issue was Wilsonism, but in Minnesota there was double issue—Wilsonism and Townleyism. Both were swept away in Minnesota. The course of Townleyism was not placed on the state.

"It is interesting to note the forces that were at work to achieve this result. First, there came the republican, who, as the normal majority party in the state, took the lead in organizing for the battle. The state chairmanship was placed in the hands of Charles H. Adams, a new man in political position, chosen for his executive ability rather than for any partisan consideration. He was backed by a good state committee.

State Well Organized. "The state was organized down to townships as it had not been organized in years and there was a unified republican party outside of the farmer-labor ranks. A farmer element made up of republicans and democrats in large numbers, was behind Shipstad as the Townley candidate, but after this desertion by republican party stood solid.

"To their aid came thousands of democrats who were large enough to school board decides to take up salaries question. Page 4.
