

OUT-STATE RETURNS THREATEN TWO ACTS

Port and Legislative Bills Probably Are Defeated.

LOCAL VOTE IS ECLIPSED

Multnomah County Carries Both Measures by More Than 5000, but Majorities Are Erased.

Only two of the measures on the state ballot are at all close—the Port of Portland consolidation measure and the amendment lengthening the session of the legislature and increasing pay of members.

Although the port bill carried in Multnomah county by more than 5000 majority, the state outside, which is not directly involved in the issue, voted sufficiently strong against the bill to overcome this lead.

In Multnomah county only one precinct is missing, the complete vote in all others being recorded. The vote on the measure is complete for Clackamas, Columbia, Deschutes, Gilliam, Hood, Jefferson, Marion, Sherman, Tillamook, Wasco, Wheeler and Yamhill.

It is almost complete for Jackson, Lane, Coos and Umatilla. No returns have been received from Klamath or Benton counties.

Of 13 counties not mentioned herein, 11 indicate that the complete vote will add to the unfavorable majority, while in two the measure seems to have carried.

Vote Against May Increase. The totals obtainable give the measure, Yes 71,390, no 13,068. The majority of 1678 against the bill, it is probable, will be increased in the complete count.

Following is the vote by counties: Port Consolidation Bill.

Table with 3 columns: County, Yes, No. Lists counties like Baker, Clackamas, Columbia, etc., with their respective vote counts.

Majority against, 2573. Complete. Legislative Bill Probably Lost.

Virtually the same situation exists as to the amendment lengthening the legislative term. It carried in Multnomah county by about 3000 majority, but the out-state returns have changed the lead to a majority against the amendment of 1873, with additional gains from several adverse counties to come.

The following is the vote by counties on the amendment:

FARMERS' VIEWS DESIRED

HOW BEST TO ELIMINATE MIDDLEMAN IS PROBLEM.

Marketing Bureau Plans to Get Ideas of 5,000,000 Producers on Disposition of Crops.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Five million American farmers will be asked for their opinions on how to eliminate the middleman, it was announced today by the committee of 17 of the farmers' marketing bureau, which is in session here to devise a plan to obtain more money for the farmer for his grain crops.

"We are going to use the views in considering a new marketing plan," C. F. Gustafson of Lincoln, Neb., chairman of the committee, said. "We shall offer our ideas to the many farmers' co-operative organizations and then ask them to designate delegates to the final convention about January 1, when we will make our plans operative."

Mr. Gustafson said the committee members were opposed to the farmers striking for the purpose of influencing the grain market. They believe the farmer can best accomplish fair prices by direct marketing, he said.

L. F. Gates, president of the Chicago board of trade, in an address, promised co-operation in the working out of any marketing system more economical than the prevailing one.

WASHINGTON SETS REPUBLICAN MARK

Largest Legislative Majority Reported Polled.

MRS. HASKELL IS ELECTED

King County Candidates Break All Records by Making Clean Sweep. Bonus Bill Passes.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Washington's new state legislature will have the largest majority of republicans in the history of the party, who is adding to her laurels in "Mile-a-Minute Kendall," which will run through the week, closing with tomorrow night's performance. This is Miss Rogers' fifth season with the Baker Stock company and she has played the role in this particular part three times already with a greater degree of success each time. She is not, in real life, at all down-hearted, as she appears on the stage this week, and after she has invested all her savings in Kendall's most chic and finds she is rich she is anything but down-hearted.

Woman Is Elected. For a while Mrs. Frances Haskell's place was threatened. Late this evening it was announced she was elected. She is the only woman in the legislature.

Returns from Ferry and Franklin counties are not complete enough to make the first prediction that all the republican legislative candidates will be elected, as the farmer-labor candidates are showing considerable strength there. However, Ferry and Franklin counties are both only sparsely settled and each entitled to only one representative. So even if the farmer-labor candidates won in both these counties, which is not yet admitted, leading Clarence Saeber, republican, 2351 votes to 2203.

King county republican legislative candidates broke all records when they swept the boards clean. Not an opponent was elected. Spokane county did the same and similar reports are coming in from every one of the 39 counties in the state. In Spokane county Olaf L. Olson, republican, was elected to the legislature by the stickle method over E. C. Crosby, republican, nominated at the primaries, but of whom a party fight was waged over charges that he was affiliated with the non-partisan league, which was pointed out today as a strongly enthusiastic desire of the voters to keep the farmer-labor element out of the legislature.

King Has Holdovers. King county did not vote on state senators this year, the delegation of eight holding over, having been elected two years ago to serve during legislative sessions.

In the first district, Grant, Douglas, Ferry and Okanogan counties, H. D. McMullen, the republican, in the 1919 session, is in the lead and is believed elected. He would succeed W. A. Bollinger, who was not a candidate for re-election.

W. Lon Johnson, second district, Stevens and Pend d'Oreille counties, a republican, is a holdover.

Three Spokane county senatorial districts have elected republicans, E. L. Westfall in the first district to succeed H. H. Phipps; R. A. Hutchinson, fourth district, re-elected; W. J. Sutton, fifth district, to succeed E. Ben Johnson; Senator Groff and Ed T. Coman, unsuccessful candidate for the republican nomination for governor, have another term to serve.

Whitman county has elected C. A. Couplin as senator in the ninth district to succeed W. C. McCoy. Oliver Hall, eighth district senator, is a holdover.

Senator Harding's plurality in the state has passed the 115,000 mark and is still going strong.

Governor Hart (rep.) is also increasing his lead.

All republicans in the five congressional districts of the state have been elected with big majorities. Representative Miller will go back from the first district with a plurality of close to 25,000.

Indley H. Hadley, in the second district, is piling up a big majority over William Bouck the farmer-labor candidate. Representative Johnson in the third district will be winner by a large plurality.

John W. Summers is winning by a good majority in the fourth district over Fred Miller, democrat, and Knute Gill, farmer-labor, and in the fifth district J. Stanley Webster is piling up even a larger majority than anticipated over Mayor Fleming of Spokane.

The republican majorities increase with the later returns, the bonus bill received approximately two-thirds of the total vote; the Seattle jitney bill was badly beaten, as was the Carlyon road bill and the salary increase measure, while the eminent domain amendment carried.

President-elect Harding's lead over Cox in this state will reach approximately 125,000 and his lead over Cox and Christensen combined will be about 75,000. While King county gave Christensen second place, the rest of the state pulled Cox up, and he is now the farmer-labor candidate for second honor.

Governor Hart's lead over Robert Bridges, farmer-labor candidate, will approximate 25,000, and his lead over Bridges and Black, democrat, combined will be easily 25,000.

The only contest in King county that remained in doubt is the race between John S. Jurey and Everett Smith for superior court judge. With but nine county and 48 city precincts missing out of the total of 352, Smith has a slight lead over Jurey, the vote standing Smith 25,973, and Jurey 24,628. Among the missing returns are those from Judge Jurey's home precinct. It probably will take the official count to determine the result of the judgeship contest. The canvassing board expects to begin the official count in King county today.

2 CLARKE PRECINCTS OUT

George B. Simpson Wins Over J. O. Blair for Judge.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—With official returns missing from two precincts, the contest for the office of judge of the superior court of Clarke county appears to have been won by George B. Simpson over J. O. Blair, by a majority of about 50.

It is expected that the other two precincts will be in by tomorrow and that the county commissioners will make an official canvass of the votes. A full republican ticket, with the exception of sheriff, was elected. William A. Thompson, democrat, won over George M. Johnson, incumbent, by about 1200 majority. Democrat farmer-labor candidate, ran third with 1833.

The biggest vote polled for any farmer-labor candidate was for William E. Davy, candidate for commissioner from the 3d district. This office was won by William Paul with 4975 votes.

COUNTY BLANKS DEMOCRATS

Republicans Win All Offices in Grays Harbor.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—With returns in from 68-out of 77 precincts in Grays Harbor county, all republican candidates won by pluralities ranging from 2500 to 3500, with indications that returns from the remaining precincts will swell these pluralities. The vote given republican national and state candidates exceeded in every combined vote for their democratic and farmer-labor opponents.

The count in the 88 precincts follows: Harding 5740, Cox 3017, Christensen 1819. United States senator—Wesley L. Johnson, republican, 12,000; Democrat Cottrell (dem.) 3191, France (farmer-labor) 2792. Representative—Albert Johnson 6233 votes, Fishbourne 796 and Bone 2812. Governor—Louis F. Hart 6215, W. W. Black 1822, Robert Bridges 3194.

TOOTH AND HAND ILLICIT

DENTISTS LOSE APPEAL FROM ORDER TO REMOVE SIGNS.

Fine of $40 Sustained by Judge Tucker in Deciding Appeal From Municipal Court.

The illuminated tooth marking the entrance to Albe Bros' dental establishment, managed by Mrs. Martha Smith, and the heavy hand that has covered over the signwalk in front of the headquarters of Dr. Paul C. Yates, on Sixth street, were outlawed Wednesday when Circuit Judge Tucker delivered an opinion sustaining the city of Portland in its suits against these two defendants. The cases were brought in an effort to maintain an ordinance passed here several years ago to prevent electric signs from being blatted.

The judgment in each case sustained a fine of $40, which had been appealed from the municipal court. About four years ago a committee was appointed by the council to investigate unsightly and unsafe street signs. The investigation languished for more than a year, then suddenly took life again, resulting in passage of an ordinance that has become a model for other cities.

Nearly everybody whose sign failed to comply with the law either put up a new one or removed the old one, but Dr. Yates, 125 1/2 Sixth street, and Mrs. Smith, at Second and Morrison streets, declined. The hand and tooth have continued to blaze forth nightly while their owners fought the cases. Deputy City Attorney Lansing, who helped formulate the original ordinance, prosecuted both cases, which first went into the municipal and then into the circuit court. It is understood that Dr. Yates is planning an appeal to the supreme court.
