Leaders of Both Parties to Be in Conference

TREATY FRIENDS INVITED

Biitter-Enders Will Be on List With Democrats.

VACATION TO BE FIRST

President-Elect Declines Wilson Offer of Battleship for Trip to Panama Canal Zone.

MARION, O., Nov. 5.—President-elect Harding already has begun fulfillment of his campaign promise to consult the nation's leading minds with regard to a new association of nations and he hopes that by the time of his inauguration next March he will have laid the groundwork of a plan behind which the sentiment of the nation has united.

A list of those to be consulted first has been drawn up and invitations are going forward to several to come to Marion at the conclusion of the month's vacation trip which is to be started by the president-elect tomorrow. Both republicans and democrats are to present their views in individual and personal talks with Mr. Harding during the winter months but he does not contemplate, for the present at least, any general assemblage of his advisers for round-table discussion.

Women to Be Invited

The names of those invited have not been made public but it was announced from the president-elect's office tonight that women had been invited who have been eminent in the discussion of our foreign relations" made up the list. Additions will be made during Mr. Harding's vacation trip, it was added, and a formal confirmation will be given during that period to the choice of a cabinet.

The announcement followed a long conference between Senator Harding and Will Wilson. Neither revealed what subjects they had discussed, but it was understood that the national chairman's visit was made at Mr. Harding's request, and had to do with the campaign just closed and with the policies to be shaped for the coming administration.

Out-Door Vacation Planned

The objective of the senator's vacation trip is Point Isabel, Tex., and although he plans to occupy most of his time there hunting and fishing, another of his close campaign advisers, Harry M. Daugherty, will accompany him. It is taken for granted there will be some discussion of policies and administrative programmes between them.

Mr. Harding today declined an offer of President Wilson to provide him with a battleship for the voyage to the Panama Canal zone, which is to follow a 12 days' stay at Point Isabel. In response to a telegram from Secretary Daniels conveying the president's proposal, the president-elect telegraphed that he was thankful but already had arranged an agreement to make the trip on a passenger steamer.

Steamer Not Diverted

It was said at Harding headquarters tonight that a hitch over the sailing schedule had been adjusted and that a proposal to have the liner go out of its regular course to pick up the party at Galveston had been abandoned. Under the present plan the departure will be made from New Orleans, to which point the senator and Mrs. Harding and their guests will go from Point Isabel by rail.

That the plan for conferences on an association of nations already was taking form was revealed in this announcement from Mr. Harding's office: "Senator Harding let it be known today that he is sending out a number of requests for personal and informal conferences with men and women who have been eminent in the discussion of our foreign relations. These conferences will take place upon his return to Marion in December and will be individual and personal, with the main purpose of learning what policy may enlist united support.

Cabinet Decision to Wait

"Senator Harding means to avoid any unequally anticipation, but he feels it would be wiser to get an expression entirely free from campaign bias, and to get it at the earliest possible day. It is the first step toward the meeting of minds of which Senator Harding so frequently spoke during the campaign. He did not make public any list, because it will not be complete before his vacation ends.

"Senator Harding further announced that no consideration would be given to a cabinet during his recreation period."

Officials close to Mr. Harding recalled that in his campaign speeches he promised repeatedly that the "meeting of minds" would begin as soon as possible after his election, and that he also frequently declared that the purpose of his consultation would be, not to suggest any plan of his own, but to ascertain how divergent views might be brought into harmony as to put a united nation behind

SCHOONER IS ON BEACH

Steering Gear of Oregon Fouls in Nehalem River.

WHEELER, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The motor schooner Oregon, en route from San Francisco here to load lumber, went ashore tonight just after she had crossed into the Nehalem river. The accident was due to the Oregon's steering gear becoming fouled. Captain Woelke was in command of the vessel.

The life-saving crew commanded by Captain Farley was summoned from Barview, but as darkness fell soon after the Oregon grounded, no attempt at hauling the vessel off was made. It was believed she would be floated without trouble tomorrow.

The motorship Oregon, believed to be the boat reported aground at Nehalem, Or., has been flying between that place and San Francisco. On the last reported trip northward it left San Francisco October 7. It has a gross tonnage of 362 and net of 268. It was built in 1905 at Prosper, Or., and has a nominal crew of six men.

DUTCH ROYALTY MENACED

Republic of Holland Is Possibility by Constitutional Revision.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—The possibility of becoming a republic is in prospect for Holland under recommendations submitted today by the commission appointed to revise the constitution.

If these recommendations are adopted Holland will have the chance to decide upon doing away with royalty, under the title Princess Juliana, only child of Queen Wilhelmina and Prince Consort Henry, some day gives birth to a son by a husband whom the Dutch parliament approves as her consort. The princess now is 11 years old.

The commission proposes that hereafter, unless there is a direct male descendant of a male ruler, the throne shall go to some male of the second generation of the last king. In the event of there being no direct male successor the people shall have the opportunity to change the country's form of government under the commission's scheme.

DEMOCRATS VIEW WRECK IN DISMAY

Chiefs Blame Each Other for Disaster.

PARTY SEEMS DEMORALIZED

Fight Over Reorganization Will Be Bitter One.

THREE GROUPS IN BATTLE

One Faction Represents Cox, Another Administration and Third Is William Jennings Bryan.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 5.—The overwhelming defeat of the democrats last Tuesday has resulted in a seismic disturbance within the party over reorganization. As the returns continue to come in showing the utter demoralization of the party, its leaders are charging responsibility for the result upon one another and engaging in a desperate struggle over future leadership.

In this fight for reorganization there will be three main elements, just as there were at the San Francisco convention. One will represent the anti-administration group which nominated Cox, another will represent the administration group and William Jennings Bryan will be the third group, representing himself and opposed to the other two. The presidential nomination four years hence will be the prize.

Hearst Wants New Party. Various conferences already are being arranged in Washington and elsewhere and, in keeping with his desire to lead the party once more, Mr. Bryan is arranging to spend much of his time here this winter. In this conflict for leadership William Randolph Hearst, whose papers supported Harding on the league of nations issue, is expected to enter. Mr. Hearst is credited with the desire to build up an entirely new party to represent the irreconcilable group in the league of nations fight, with himself as leader. Mr. Hearst already is seen endeavoring to sow seeds of discord in the republican senate majority by intimating that the new senate proposes to throw Elmer Johnson and William E. Borah overboard.

In the struggle for reorganization the Wilson group will hope to have the benefit of the president's leadership in the event that his health improves. If it does not, they will base

WOMEN OF YONCALLA CAPTURE ALL OFFICES

Campaign Secretly Organized; Men Surprised.

YONCALLA, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Feminism captured the city of Yoncalla in Tuesday's election. An entire municipal ticket of women was chosen. Men opponents were defeated for all the offices. Those elected were:

Mayor, Mrs. Mary Burt. Members of council, Mrs. Bernice Wilson, Mrs. Jennie D. Laswell, Mrs. Nellie Hannan, Mrs. Edith E. Thompson.

The women organized their campaign secretly and the men did not realize what was taking place until the votes were counted.

Inefficiency was the chief count in the indictment of the women campaigners against the men officeholders. In their pre-election meetings, attended solely by women, charges were made that the city officials were allowing breaks in the sidewalks to go unrepaired, that speeding automobiles were not controlled, that streets were insufficiently lighted and that general slackness in municipal affairs prevailed. To cure these ills the women were rallied to go in and elect a complete set of city officers of their own. They did so.

BURNS, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Although she was not a candidate, Mrs. Grace B. Lampshire was elected mayor of Burns last Tuesday, her friends writing her name in on the ballot without her knowledge. Mrs. Lampshire has been prominent in civic work here. Councilmen elected were M. H. Brenton, Ben Brown, Joseph Thompson and Joseph Krumbois.

Britain, France, Italy to Aid One Another.

PACT FOR MONTHS SECRET

"Spheres of Influence" Recognized and Defined.

DEVELOPMENT HELD AIM

Provision Made for Operation of Bagdad Railroad and Exploitation of Other Resources.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—France, Great Britain and Italy have signed a tripartite agreement in which they agree to support each other in maintaining their "spheres of influence" in Turkey. The limits of the areas in which the respective special interests of France and Italy are recognized are defined by the same document.

This agreement, it developed today, was signed at Sevres, August 10, the day the public ceremonial of the signing of the peace treaty with Turkey took place.

Although the agreement, it is explained, is not considered a secret one, it nevertheless has never been made public until now, after a lapse of nearly six months since the signing of the agreement. The document was to come into force and be published at the time the Turkish peace treaty should go into effect. This date is still an uncertainty.

PRISONER UNSEATS JUDGE

Outcome of Election Race in Kentucky Is Unusual.

WHITESBURG, Ky., Nov. 5.—Probably the most unusual outcome of Tuesday's election in Kentucky was the victory of Judge Whitaker, jailer of Whitesburg, over Stephen Combs Jr. in the race for county judge. Whitaker having been sentenced to the county jail for six months by Judge Combs in the charge of attacking county officers, including the sheriff.

After being placed in the jail of which he was the legal keeper Whitaker escaped, was recaptured and again sentenced for jail-breaking. He is now in the county jail, where he had served ever since John L. Eberly, president of the firm and state director of liberty loans, fired the last broadside for an Oregon victory.

LOOT BOLDLY CARRIED AWAY

On Halloween day at closing time Roy Hall and his confederates, Claude Horton, also an office boy with the firm of Morris Bros., entered the basement with one of the private mail sacks, filled ten of the big black fireproof boxes and carried them boldly through the building—camouflaged as late mail.

That night in an auto of the type affected by young gallants and briefly termed "the bug," Roy and Claude, accompanied by Kenneth Wilson and Greg Carlton, in another car, drove forth on the Columbia boulevard and elsewhere and fired several of the "bombs" with gratifying success. It was one of these convivial attempts that the reporter followed. When returning, they secreted the remaining explosives in the Holton garage, a reserve munitions dump for election night or other appropriate occasion.

While thousands of citizens thronged the streets as the returns came in, the sputtering little car with its sack of restrained celebration cruised down Washington street and parked while the chums joined the crowd, with John Hazlett as a new recruit. Kenneth Wilson was inspired to strategy. He left his companions, returned to the car, plundered the sack for "bombs" and craftily hid them in the auto's trunk.

When Kenneth returned the night watchman, retreated in secret worry, approached the guardian again and requested his cache. When the night watchman informed him that he had found the trio of cylinders and had sent them to police headquarters with a full report. ## CONTROL THREATENED IF COAL STAYS HIGH

PROFITTEERS ARE WARNED BY SENATE COMMITTEE.

Out in Prices to Reasonable Figure by December 6 Is Demanded in Ultimatum.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—United States Senators William M. Calder and W. E. Edge, members of the senate committee on reconstruction, in a joint statement today, announced that "unless the coal industry reforms itself and cuts prices to a reasonable figure by December 6," they will introduce a bill for the "most stringent regulation of every branch of the business."

"We are deadly in earnest about this. We are both conservatives on the matter of government ownership, but we are disgusted with this situation. The coal industry stands self-convicted."

"We are both opposed to government regulation as a policy," the statement said, "but the government must assume responsibility for its people and we will recommend a bill for entire control of the industry just as far as possible under the constitution unless prices are materially reduced to the public by December 6."
