Hippodrome.

THIS week's Lyric show, which opened with the matinee yesterday afternoon, can safely be called the best production ever staged in the four seasons that Ben Dillon and Al Franks have led the cast of the popular musical comedy house. The play is "The Tango Craze," and is a miniature two-dollar show, containing all the features provided by a first-class musical offering.

The opening number presents the Rosebud chorus in a set of pleasing new costumes. Instead of the usua new costumes.
