ARMISTICE HOLIDAY IS PROCLAIMED HERE

Practically Every Store to Be Closed Thursday.

BIG PARADE SCHEDULED

"Gold Star" Division Is to Be Composed of Mothers and Sisters of Men Who Lost Lives.

Practically everystore in Portland will be closed Thursday in celebration of Armistice Day, the day having been set apart as a legal holiday through proclamations issued by Governor Olcott and Mayor Baker. Thus all Portland will join with the thousands of ex-service men of all American wars and celebrate the anniversary of the official end of Prussian militar-

At a meeting held late yesterday, the officials of the Greater Portland association voted to request all downtown stores, specialty shops and the stores in the suburbs to close throughout the day so as to allow all employes to participate in the fes-tivities planned on this day.

All Asked to Parade. Call has been issued to every man who wore a uniform during the war with Germany to don his uniform and join the ranks of the marchers in the parade which is scheduled to start at the zero hour—11 o'clock—Thurs-day morning. Members of the Great Northern during his residence armistice day committee, appointed in Seattle. armistice day committee, appointed aome weeks ago by Mayor Baker and representing the army, navy and marine corps, the Grand Army of the Republic and every organization of ex-service men of the various wars, are anxious to show all Portland the large representation of ex-fighting men who are residents of this city.

A special call has been issued for disabled men, who if unable to march, have been requested to report to the American Legion headquarters at Sixth and Pine streets, where automo-biles will be at their service.

Division to Be "Gold Star." Here, too, gold star mothers and wives have been requested to report, where machines will be ready to carry them in the parade. The "gold star" division composed of the mothers or wives of men who were killed or died during the war, will be a special diviion, and automobiles carrying these women will leave legion headquarters at 10 o'clock or shortly thereafter

Thursday morning.

Colonel George A. White, veteran of three wars, will be grand marshal of the parade. Individual organizations may parade, if so desired, and such organizations as the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars are expected to have large delegations in the line. The army, navy and marine orps will be represented in the line, as will the army nurses' corps, representatives of the Spanish-American War Veterans' association and the War Veterans' association and the famous warriors who fought during the civil strife a half century ago.

Flying Meet Is Sinted.

Following the parade, attention will be directed to the Lewis and Clark aviation field, where a flying meet is scheduled as one of the features of the day.

In the evening a grand ball will be held at the Multnomah hotel by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. No meeting of any sort will be held in Portland, it was announced, although patriotic gatherings in commemoration of the day will be held in practically every small city in the state.

The mayor's proclamation issued yesterday urging all stores and in-lows:

In order that Portland may pay full honor to the anniversary of Armistice day and to the millions of men who, through levalty to home and country, brought loyalty to home and country, brought shout this greatest event of American history. Thursday, November 11, 1920, is hereby officially designated a holiday in the city of Portland. All industrial plants and places of business as well as all public institutions are urged to close for the day and the public throughout the city is maked to observe the day as one of the nation's greatest holidays, by the general display of the American flag from houses and buildings.

Eastern Oregon and Inland Empire Pleased With Interest Shown by Chamber.

The events of the recent eastern regon trade excursion passed in review at the members' forum of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday noon, when various members who had made the trip, led by Nathan Strauss, chairman of the excursion committee, re-lated their impressions and observa-tions of the country traversed for the ago.

Inland Empire towns and Portland were evidenced at all times. That the towns visited are enthusi-astic as to future co-operation be-tween Portland and the eastern part Rabbi Wise Arraigns Wealthy Who Dole Out Pittance and Pose as Philanthropists.

This morning the Jews of Portland will start their campaign to raise relief funds for the people of their race who face starvation and extermina-tion in Poland, Russia and Galicia. Last night at Temple Beth Israel they held their last big mass meeting be-fore starting the task of getting to-gether $125,000 which has been set as the goal of the committee operating here under the direction of Ben Selling. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise delivered the address of the evening and he went right to the heart of his subject in a totally unexpected manner.
"The people of our race have always had a reputation of doing as much as any other creed in the mat-ter of charity and have prided them-selves on their accomplishments in this respect," said the eminent orator to a representative audience that taxed the capacity of the temple, "but none of you in this city has deprived yourself of anything during the past six years and none of you in this house of worship tonight has done your duty while any of our peoperare starving.
