Romance Begun While Convalescing From Wounds.

WASHINGTON GIRL BRIDE

Lieutenant Herman L. McLeod and Miss Lillian M. Palmer to Be Married at Capital.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU. Washington, Nov. 7,-A romance which began early in 1919 at Quantico, Va., where the bridegroom was then convalescing from wounds received in the American advance on ceived in the American advance on Solssons, will result in the wedding here Wednesday night of Lieutenant Herman L. McLeod of Portland, Or., and Miss Lillian M. Palmer, a Washington girl. They will be married in the Mount Vernon church. McLeod enlisted in the marine corps at the outbreak of the war and was among the first American troops to get the first American troops to get

The famous sixth regiment, of which he was a member, took part in the battle of Chateau-Thierry, where the German rush on Paris was stopped in June, 1918. McLeod entered this battle a private and came out with a lieutenant's commission and a distinguished service cross. He and a distinguished service cross. He was later made a captain, but he fell before his commission reached him in the capture of Solssons, McLeod was hit twice, both bullets penetrating his stomach. HALT OF STRIKES INCREASES PRODUCTION 97,000 TONS.

Labor Losses for Week Ending on October 30 Declared Only 7 Per Cent of Full Time.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Production of soft coal during the week ending October 30 not only continued above the 12,000,020 tons mark considered necessary to meet requirements, but established a maximum. Herman L. McLeod saw 18 months' overseas service with the Sixth marines. He was sent home on November 10, 1918, one day before the signing of the armistice.

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—A million and a half gallons of water a day has been added to Honolulu's supply by digging a tunnel in one of the mountains in the Koolau range, back of Honolulu. The wafer supply has been steadily decreasing, and during the dry months there has actually been a slight shortage. Hence the discovery of this new watery pay streak places the city where the possibility of a water famine is remote. The tunnel, duginto the side of the mountain, was 50 feet long. "I am going to have it done," the judge added, his remark apparently meaning that the grand jury soon to convene will reopen investigation of the conspiracy cases.

Resignation Is Explained. Dan W. Simms of Lafayette, Ind. said he resigned as special prosecutor in the cases, because, he said, the at-torney-general's orders would prevent use of evidence that was the basis of the government's injunction case last year against the coal strike and the later contempt proceedings for alleged violation of the court's order directing cancellation of the strike order. Similar testimony was given by L. Ert Slack, another special prosecutor, and by District attorney Van utor, and by District attorney Van Nuys.

Mr. Ames, however, said Mr. Palmer interpreted his orders to mean only the elimination of evidence that was the basis of the contempt proceedings and pointed out that these proceedings were begun at a date later than that covered by the alleged conspiracy.

that covered by the alleged conspiracy.

Mr. Ames also said that the attorney-general has the right to elect whether the government would prosecute its cases as civil or criminal matters and that having chosen a civil course in the strike Mr. Ames did not believe it fair to proceed with criminal action in this case. He also said that Mr. Palmer "had not interfered in any way with the action of the government's special counsel in the present cases."

Contention That Lever Act Is Un-

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—Attorney-General Palmer's orders limiting the government's evidence to be used in the soft coal conspiracy cases against 126 operators and miners in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and western Pennsylvania, were criticised by Federal Judge Anderson in the United States district court today as being "strangely close to the compounding of a felony" and also "dangerously hear contempt of court."

Trial of the cases was scheduled to begin today, but government counsel said it was not ready. Before granting the continuance asked by government counsel, Judge Anderson understant of the case of the government counsel, Judge Anderson understant of the case of the government counsel, Judge Anderson understant of the case of the government counsel, Judge Anderson understant of the case of the government from removing and prosections of the case of the government from removing and prosections of the case of the government from removing and prosections of the governmen in the federal court in which they sought to enjoin officers of the government from removing and prosecuting them at Indianapolis on the ground that section 9 of the Lever act was unconstitutional.

Judge Louis Fitzhenry this morning filed his opinion, holding that section 9 of the act is constitutional and that the attorney-general and district attorneys are acting and district attorneys are acting within their powers. He also holds that this statute is aimed at all con-spiracies to enhance the price of coal within or without the coal industry.

Is the wood cylinder for home use. For over 10 years this cylinder has been built of selected white maple for use in the Thor washer. Experiments with every kind of material, metal that is practical for cylinders has shown that nothing is equal to wood for use in family washers. In metal cylinders the sides are very thin, and as a result the edges of the holes are sharp. As the clothes come in contact with these holes there is continual wear on them. There is absolutely no wear on the clothes in a Thor wood cylinder. And another very important feature of the wood cylinder is that it does not have to be lifted out of the machine to be cleaned. Now being demonstrated at Food Show
