

PLAINTIFFS REST LARABEE WILL CASE

Alleged Pre-Nuptial Relations Bared in Court. DEFENSE STARTS TODAY

Mother of Anita Laurence Grilled as to Knowledge of Alleged Plot to Gain Fortune.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The plaintiffs' side of the Larabee will contest was concluded today.

Today's session was taken up with lengthy and at times tiresome cross-examination. Both the first and second witnesses were again on the stand and Benjamin R. Larabee, one of the plaintiffs, testified at length.

Defective Gives Testimony. J. P. Morley, detective, testified that he arrested Benjamin Larabee shortly after his father's death two years ago on the complaint of Mrs. Anita Larabee.

Mrs. Hill Gets Grilling. Under a grilling followed by long cross-examination by the defense, Mrs. Hill maintained that she had never even when Larabee, however, from New York and told her that "the girls had found a baby on their doorstep."

Two months after the conversation with Larabee Miss Laurence arrived a letter with the baby. She told her mother that the child was an Englishman named Laurence, to whom she had been married in New York and with whom she had lived there he died. She showed a marriage certificate supporting the statement.

Testimony Is Attacked. Counsel pounced upon this part of her testimony and elaborated their questioning.

On the stand this morning, Anita Laurence again fully the history of her relations with Larabee from the time when a girl of 20 years she met him at her aunt's home in Alaska.

HOSPITAL GETS $15,500

County Appropriates Sum to Finish Isolation Building. Payment by the county of $15,500 for the completion of the isolation hospital, built by the city at Kelly Butte, was authorized yesterday by County Commissioner Muck and Holman.

H. A. Lewis, president of the Multnomah county board, asked that the commissioners make provision in the 1921 budget for taking over the fair and operating it as a county institution. He explained that one-eighth of a mill on the assessed valuation would provide sufficient funds.

KERR NURSERY STARTED

$25,000 Needed for New Home Is Subscribed. Contractors started work yesterday on the new Kerr nursery. Portland's quota of $25,000 has been fully subscribed in the recent campaign of the institution for a building fund.

RILEY SEEKS CONTRACT

Lecturer Will Exploit Northwest for $45,000 Annually. Frank Branch Riley yesterday made a definite proposition to the Pacific Northwest Tourist association to continue his work of advertising the northwestern country throughout the east on a three-year contract at $45,000 a year.

The offer was taken under consideration at a meeting composed of Portland members of the local association. Representatives of local civic clubs and about a dozen interested hotel men and bankers, and Mayor Baker were authorized to appoint a committee of five to confer with Mr. Riley and undertake raising the amount.

STAMP CONSPIRACY CASE GOES TO JURY

Fate of Accused Men May Be Known Today. SPIRITED DEFENSE MADE

Attorneys Make Vigorous Pleas in Behalf of Clients; Keen Interest Is Manifested in Trial. The fate of Robert La Salle, former inspector of the Portland police department, Angelo Rossi, Dave Stein and William Brenner, local merchants; W. E. Smith, watchmaker, and Fred Peterson, ex-convict, who is now going a term of one year in the Multnomah county jail, all of whom are charged with conspiracy in trafficking in altered United States war savings stamps, rested with a jury in the federal district court last night.

There was no indication that the 12 men had reached any decision and they probably will make their first report to Judge Wolverton at 10 A. M. today. In any event the jury would be ready to render a verdict, as this was agreed upon by counsel before the jurors retired at 6:15 last night.
