

U. S. ASKED TO NOTE REPRISALS THREAT

British Embassy Acts on Message From Irish.

WARNING GIVEN NATION

Plan to Kill Three Englishmen in America for Every Death in Erin Is Related.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The British embassy announced today it had taken steps to call the attention of the state department to a message recently received by the British chief secretary for Ireland, dated New York and threatening reprisals against Englishmen resident in the United States, "if there are any more reprisals in Ireland on and after November 14." The New York message was sent in the name of the Amalgamated Irish societies of America and bore the signature "J. V. O'Connor, president."

At the state department it was said nothing had been received to date from the embassy in relation to the message. No comment as to the course the Washington might pursue was available.

The New York message as made public by the embassy read: "We hereby inform and warn you that if there are any more reprisals in Ireland on and after November 14, 1920, that the men of Irish blood in this country and their sympathizers will immediately begin reprisals on Englishmen here who are not citizens of the United States; for every man, woman or child who is murdered after the above date by the cowardly English soldiers and police, three Englishmen in this country will pay the penalty."

CRIME INCREASE IS NOTED

More Offenses Reported Following Funeral of MacSwiney.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Crime in Ireland increased largely immediately after the funeral of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, according to latest statistics, which record 93 serious crimes in the week ended November 6 as compared with 69 the previous week and 59 for the week ended October 20. Nine police barracks were damaged or destroyed; 24 raids were carried out on the mails and four Sinn Fein raids for arms. Ten policemen were killed, 24 wounded and 11 others shot at. Three soldiers were killed, three wounded and 12 were shot at. Forty-five arrests were made for outrages or political offenses.

Since January 1, 1916 policemen have been killed and 218 wounded; 32 soldiers have been killed and 90 wounded.

CARRICK ON SHANNON, County Leitrim, Ireland, Nov. 10.—A party of men who were said to have been wearing khaki uniforms raided the offices of the Leitrim Observer last night. They entered the premises by force, held up the proprietor and his sister with revolvers, wrecked the machinery and printing plant, smashed furniture and then set fire to the building. The flames were extinguished.

The windows of a jewelry store belonging to a brother of the newspaper proprietor were shattered with revolver bullets.

PRUNE DINNER SERVED

VARIOUS USES FOR CLARKE CROPS DEMONSTRATED.

Prunarians of Vancouver Dine on Special Menu to Promote Use of Fruits.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—In an effort to demonstrate the various uses of Clarke county prunes, Prunarians today held a dinner on the menu of which were a number of such products.

A. E. Link declared that the possibility of using prunes was unlimited. He called attention to the prune tart, prune dinner rolls, prune slice, prune rye bread and prune Pullman bread, which was served. Mr. Link said that a prune flour could be made.

The products were made to stimulate the use of the local prune, Clarke county's biggest crop, and to encourage the housewives of Vancouver and Clarke county to use prunes in baking.

V. G. Letich, manager of the bakery, said that if the people of the United States could be induced to try to use prunes in baking in their homes the demand for them would increase greatly.

FAINING HALTS ACTION

MRS. TILLMAN COLLAPSES AS SHE LEAVES STAND.

Defendant's First Wife Sues Him and His Second for Value of Furnishings She Claims.

Fainting of the plaintiff just as she was stepping from the witness stand yesterday in Circuit Judge Gatens' court brought a halt to the trial of the suit of Annie Weiss Tillman against Benjamin and Pearl Weiss for $142. Mrs. Tillman seeks to recover for the loss of certain house furnishings she says were appropriated by her first husband and his second wife. This suit is the sequel to two previous ones. On December 1, 1919, Weiss, who is properly man at the Baker theater, got a divorce from the plaintiff, at that time in Alaska, on the grounds of cruelty. He alleged she had a nagging disposition, neglected him at home and wished to make long trips away from him. When Mrs. Weiss returned she brought the case back into court about two months ago by attempting to have the decree set aside, claiming that her first husband had been instrumental in having her make the trip to Alaska. Judge Tasswell declined to consider it because both parties had remarried.

Mrs. Tillman now alleges that Weiss had in his possession property of hers which included a music machine, 150 records, 50 aluminum dishes, cut glass, silverware, linens and hand-embroidered cushions. The plaintiff's lack of knowledge of court procedure, her difficulty in expressing herself in English and the humorous observations of her witnesses, nearly all drawn from theatrical circles, furnished much amusement in the courtroom. The case will be continued Friday.

The road there is quite narrow. Frosch's head was crushed when he was hurled against a hub. Mrs. Watson received two broken ribs, a sprained wrist and minor injuries.

WESTON TRIAL DELAYED

Attack on Sufficiency of Murder Indictment Causes Wait.

BEND, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Filing a demurrer questioning the sufficiency of the indictment charging A. J. Weston with second degree murder of Robert H. Krug resulted today in the postponement of the trial which had been set for Friday. It will begin next Tuesday instead. The first two days of the case will be used to select a jury. Special Prosecutor Myers predicted today.

Three indictments were returned this afternoon by the grand jury, one charging J. F. McClellan with assault with intent to kill alleged to have been committed against his son-in-law, Mike Merg; one charging William Robinson with selling liquor to minors, and one naming Ed Halvorsen as the alleged assailant of G. W. Brown. The Deschutes county circuit court will observe Armistice day tomorrow as a holiday.
