INDUSTRIAL ERA IS SEEN

DAVID S. STEARNS ADDRESSES REALTY BOARD MEN.

Need for Some Sort of Understanding to Provide Fair Rental Is Emphasized.

The future of the city of Portland is secure and the tide of industrial development is now turning in her direction, according to David S. Stearns, retired real estate dealer, who spoke yesterday at the luncheon of the realty board in the grill room of the Portland hotel.

"Industries are beginning to come here in greater numbers than ever before, realizing that it is only here that they can secure such quantities of timber and other products in the shape of raw material, and at a cost of labor and money," he said. Mr. Stearns said that the tourist business alone was one which should build up the city of Portland.

The speaker emphasized the need for some understanding with officials that the owners of a building would be permitted to obtain a just rental from his structure. He said that the principal reason for the building was not more office buildings, apartment houses and other structures being erected for rental purposes was that there was an uncertainty in income which prevented, to a large extent, such investments.

If such an understanding could be reached, he predicted it would result in greatly increased building activity. "There should be some meeting place," he said, "between those who would curb the profiteer and the man who would improve his property where they could get together on such a basis as to assure the erecting a building a reasonable return for his investment."

Frank L. McGuire presided at the meeting and introduced Mr. Stearns.

LEPER MADE CITY CHARGE

County Authorities Refuse to Longer Care for Chinaman.

The city of Portland was yesterday presented with the difficult problem of making disposition of the case of Louis Poy, Chinese, suffering from leprosy, who has been taken care of at the county hospital for the past year. County officials yesterday served notice that he was a city patient.

This case was presented to the council yesterday by Dr. Parrish, who explained that the city had no place to take care of the man unless a small building on the same grounds as the small hospital should be put at his disposal.

In an effort to get the government to take the case off the city's hands Mayor Baker yesterday telegraphed Hugh S. Cumming, head of the federal health service at Washington, D. C., urging that the man be transported to the leper colony in the Hawaiian islands.

MORALS SQUAD IS CUT

TEN MEN HUNT BURGLARS DURING CRIME WAVE.

Chief Details Motorcycle Police to Fire Houses About City for Emergency Calls.

What amounted practically to the abolition of the police morals squad, temporarily at least, was put into effect last night by Chief of Police Jenkins when he instructed Sergeant Ellis, in command of the squad, to have ten of his men report to Captain Inskeep of the first night relief for emergency service during the crime wave.

This left the morals squad with but two men, as Sergeant Ellis had only 12 men under his command. Two of these men, Huntington and Russell, have been under fire on graft charges growing out of the alleged theft of liquor. This charge was investigated yesterday by the police efficiency board.

The general orders issued yesterday by Chief Jenkins, which augment orders announced by him Thursday night, placed Lieutenant Ervin of the traffic bureau in command of the flying squadron of motorcycle patrolmen, who will be stationed at fire stations in various parts of the city for emergency duty.

Motorcycle men will be placed at the following stations: Portland Heights, East Twenty-fourth and Thompson streets, East Fifty-sixth street and Sandy boulevard, Rodney avenue and Russell street, Francis avenue and Greenwood street, Patton and Emerson streets, and East Thirtieth and Tenino streets.

Burglars made an ineffectual effort to break into the home of C. J. Farmer, 353 Twelfth street, at an early hour yesterday, but were surprised in their operation by Mr. Farmer, who switched on the lights and scared them away. Police Inspectors Hill and Cahill rushed to the home, but could find nothing of the prowlers. They had torn away a window screen in their efforts to break into the house.

Hugh C. Gerin, 451 East Twenty-fourth street North, heard burglars attempting to gain entrance to his residence, but frightened them off. At the home of P. H. Newell, 962 Franklin street, prowlers made their appearance during the absence of the family. Two tabbies were stolen.
