

RESERVISTS TO CRUISE DESTROYER RENSHAW TO SAIL WITH OREGON MEN.

Three Weeks' Voyage to California Attracts Favorable Attention. Few Berths Vacant. Advice were received last night from Lieutenant Adolph Bloom of the commandant's office, 13th naval district, to the effect that the United States destroyer Renshaw would arrive in Portland early on the morning of Saturday, November 20.

The Renshaw will leave for a three weeks' cruise to San Francisco and southern California ports, with a local reserve officer and crew training in seamanship, navigation, gunnery and naval routine. Many of the reservists throughout Oregon have requested berths for the cruise, there are still a few vacancies, and Portland reservists would already taken advantage of former cruises this year will be allowed to volunteer for the trip up to Monday evening, November 15.

BILL HART IS RELEASED Real Buckaroo, Just Like Hero of Movies, Ends 90-Day Term.

"Wild Bill" Hart, of illustrious name, left the Multnomah county jail yesterday but did not state whether he would engage in the acting of any film dramas in the near future. Bill has figured in some stirring stunts and is a real buckaroo, just like the other Bill of the movies, and he has just completed 90 days in the county jail for a violation of the national prohibition laws.

AUTO FIGURES IN SUIT Jennie Draheim Says Husband Let Her Ride Only Once a Month.

Jennie Draheim, in a divorce complaint filed yesterday against Gust Draheim, alleged that she was permitted to ride in her family automobile only once a month, although she had helped pay for it. She alleged that her husband had the want-ad columns in order to find work for his wife, and that she bought her own clothes and necessities. She alleged that he devoted the automobile largely to entertaining other women.

M. C. A. OFFICIAL BACK H. W. STONE RETURNS FROM ST. LOUIS MEETING. Association Schools Reported to Show Growth in Enrollment Over 1920.

H. W. Stone, general secretary of the Portland Young Men's Christian association, returned yesterday from St. Louis, where he attended a meeting of the board of governors of the United Young Men's Christian association schools of the United States. Mr. Stone said the outstanding feature of the conference was the rapid growth in the educational movement and the expansion in equipment and number of students of association schools. "It was shown that the association schools grew in enrollment from 81,898 students in 1915 to 107,915 in 1920," stated Mr. Stone. "The largest growth was in equipment, which has increased in value more than five times in two years. Schools of the association now have equipment valued at $1,330,140. There is a marked tendency for specializing in line in all parts of our country. The study and practice of accounting is an example. Advertising is another example. The study and practice of accounting is an example. Advertising is another example. The study and practice of accounting is an example. Advertising is another example."

PRINEVILLE, Ore., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Rev. M. E. Gallagher, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has resigned his pulpit at this place to accept a call to the Methodist church at Prineville, Ore. Mr. Gallagher has lived in the past for many years. His departure will leave Rev. M. E.
