CHAMBER HEARS SISSON. NEW YORKER ADDRESSES LOCAL COMMERCIAL MEN. Work of National Industrial Conference Detailed at Meeting Here.

To a large crowd of business and professional men and a sprinkling of women, George W. Sisson Jr., president of the American Pulp & Paper company and a resident of New York city, detailed the progress of work undertaken by the national industrial conference board in its efforts to assist in arriving at just conclusions regarding present-day difficulties pertaining to the commercial world. He spoke at the members' forum of the Chamber of Commerce presided over by Charles F. Berg.

"The board aspires to be the research arm in the field of American industry," said Mr. Sisson. "It seeks to obtain from reliable sources absolute facts, tending to establish the why and wherefore of difficulties arising from time to time. It does not purpose to accept theoretical ideas from theorists, but to get the real facts, to learn what is the matter and then apply a remedy. The board is largely informative and we want you business men here today to know what it is doing and why."

Prior to Mr. Sisson's speech, Mrs. E. L. Thompson, president of the Portland Opera association, briefly outlined the purpose and work of that organization. Several selections were rendered by members of the opera.

TEN YEARS GIVEN NEGRO. SENTENCE IMPOSED FOR ASSAULT WITH DEADLY WEAPON. Henry Williams Sent to Penitentiary After Pleading Guilty to Shooting at Man.

For ten long years Henry Williams, negro, will be confined to the penitentiary for the crime of shooting at a man. Williams had purchased a soft drink from Mikhailoff's fruit stand, 514 and 516 Commercial street, and to make a favorable impression on its proprietor, being invited to drop the place off his calling list thereafter. In the evening, it is alleged that Williams returned, walked up the sidewalk of the stand and fired a shot from a .32-caliber Colt, striking Simo on the collar and barely missing a man named Yost, who was also in the shop. It shattered a mirror in back of the two men. Williams then departed post haste with Officer Perkins in pursuit. When ordered to stop, Perkins claimed Williams fired another shot and threw his gun at the policeman. He was finally caught when Officer Tulley shot at him as he was going over a fence.

The defendant offered numerous excuses yesterday after entering a plea of guilty of assault with deadly weapon. A jury had already been impaneled in his case. He said he was a sharpshooter when with the United States army on the Mexican border and maintained that he had only drawn the revolver to scare the proprietor of the fruit stand.

A Hundred Great Pianists Live With You —The Angelus Artrio

Endless variety in the readings of the greatest compositions of the master composers of the world is the portion of those who have the Angelus Reproducing Piano. Interpretations of your favorite numbers of Chopin, Beethoven, Bach, Schubert or any other may be heard and enjoyed at will. Never has there been offered such a boon to lovers of the classics and never, under the fingers of the greatest artists, have their readings been more truthfully, more beautifully given than they are reproduced by the Angelus.

Among the great artists who have trusted their musical future and their reputations to the wonderful faithfulness of the Angelus Reproducing Piano are the following:

- Leopold Godowsky, Tina Lerner, Yolanda Mero, Ethel Laginska, Gottfried Galston, Doris Madden, Richard Buhlig, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Harold Bauer, Clarence Adler, Ferdinand Himmerlich, Cornelia Rider-Possart, Herma Menth, Beryl Rubenstein

The reproductions of the Angelus, were they anything less than a perfect musical photograph of the master pianist at his best, certainly could not be trusted to bear the musical message of a Bauer, a Godowsky or a Gabrilowitsch to an eagerly waiting world.

We want you to hear the Angelus; to know that in the marvelous mechanism within its case is all of the beauty, the poetry, the flawless technique, the temperament and the talent of the greatest composers and the greatest artists that the world has yet known.
