With Contest Over Organization Eliminated, Upper House Can Begin Business Promptly.

Roy W. Ritner, state senator from Umatilia county, will be the president of the state senate in the 1921 easion. About four months ago Sen-Ritner had the necessary votes and following the general election, November 2, three senators, who did not wish to give a pledge until they were actually elected, came to him, giving Ritner 19 votes. Supporters of B. L. Eddy, senator from Douglas county, Ritner's only opponent, withdrawal.

Senator Ritner's support consists of Senators W. W. Banks of Multnomah, Clatsop and Columbia; John B. Bell of Lane and Linn, Bruce Dennis of Union and Wallowa, C. R. Eberhard of Morrow, Umatilla and Union; C. J. Edwards of Tillamook, Lincoln, Yamhili and Washington; Charles Ellis of Grant, Harney and Malheur; R. E. Farrell of Multnomah, Charles Hall of Coos and Curry, Walter B. Jones of Lane, Gus C. Moser of Multnomah, A. W. Norbiad of Clatsop, I. L. Patterson of Benton and Polk, F. H. Porter of Linn, O. B. Robertson of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler; T. J. Ryan of Clackamas, J. C. Smith of Josephine, I. S. D. W. Lapp, assistant manager of the Broadway hotel in Seattle, told of Landon's stay in his place and Rither had more than enough votes to elect him, so they advised Eddy to withdraw. Yesterday Senator Eddy gol Senator Rither on the long distance and said he was satisfied that Rither had enough votes to be elected. Ritner had enough votes to be elected president, declared he was willing to make it unanimous and was writing nake it unanimous and was writing o his supporters to that end. Legislation Is Discussed.

Twelve of Ritner's supporters have been in Portland in conference with him this week and legislation has him this week and legislation has been discussed in a general way. Senator Ritner will return to Portland again about the holidays and will then begin the making of committee appointments. He may have some ideas now as to where he will place some of the senators, but if so he is keeping his own counsel.

With the elimination of a contest over the senate organization, the up-ing Them as Daughters.

One of the most sordid cases tried in the United States district court, judging from the preliminary statements made to the jury, will be that of George and Georgia Landon, hus-band and wife, whose trial on a discovered this week that Eddy's case was hopeless and advised him to witadraw. Yesterday Senator Eddy telephoned Senator Ritner of his transporting Clara Burgy, a girl of 16, from state to state for immoral

Wheeler, T. J. Ryan of Clackamas, J. C. Smith of Josephine, I. S. Staples of Multnomah and Jay Upton of Crook, Deschutes, Jefferson, Klamath and Lake. Those, with Senator Ritner's own vote, give him 19.

Eddy's Supporters Named.

The support which Senator Eddy had consisted of Senators W. T. Vinton of Yamhili, Louis Lachmund of Marion, C. H. Thomas of Jackson, A. M. Laffollett of Marion, John Gill of Multnomah, George Joseph of Multnomah, and W. H. Strayer of Baker.

Senator W. T. Hume of Multnomah, and Senator John Nichelsen of Hood River and Wasco, were leaning toward Eddy. Senator Hare of Washington was in the doubtful column.

Senator Ritner's victory has been assured for several months, for the 18th and 19th votes were understood to be for him, but these senators considered it advisable not to promise a vote they did not have until after the election. The lineup of Ritner's announced votes is practically identical.

D. W. Lapp, assistant manager of the Broadway hotel in Seattle, told of Landon's stay in his place and how the defendant and the three wirks occupied one room.
