Boy McCormick is a favorite over Willie Meehan in their scheduled 19 round bout at the Milwaukee arena next Wednesday night, and thereby hangs a tale.

Someone told round Willie that Boy was being picked as the winner of the fight.

"Where do you get that stuff about McCormick going to beat me? He won't be able to do any more than meet me for four rounds, and what I will do to him the next six will be a shame."

"McCormick might be champion of England and a mighty good boy, but that concerns me little."

Meehan getting into shape. "I am just getting back into shape and will be at my best against McCormick."

"I will not weigh more than 150 pounds the night of the battle, and having held my own with the country's leading heavyweights who should be McCormick's toughest. I beat Jack Dempsey twice and he won't even consider me an opponent again."

"Dempsey might beat all the Bill Brennan, Billy Mikes and Harry Wells in the world, and they in turn might beat me."

"I am just getting back into shape and will be at my best against McCormick."
