

CRIME COMMITTED TO REEPLY IN PAST

Prominent Insurance Man of Seattle Is Arrested.

FORGERY IS ADMITTED

S. A. Adams Needed Money to Silence Former Fellow Convict in Washington State Prison.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—As the price of silencing a former fellow-convict in the state penitentiary...

Adams is widely known socially and among local business men, and enjoyed the confidence of scores of friends.

Adams served one year in the state penitentiary for alleged violation of his parole and imprisoned three years for forgery.

Adams was arrested on January 27, 1914, he was arrested in San Francisco for a violation of the national contract laws.

Adams was arrested in Tacoma, February 23, 1914, charged with passing a forged money order for $100 in the state penitentiary.

Adams was arrested in Seattle, Washington, on the day of the arrest he was released on $100 bail.

along the line, with hogs and provisions following suit. Corn led the way notwithstanding that it was already lower than at any time since 1915.

Expected greatly enlarged pressure of offerings from the new crop of corn appeared to be leading factor in emphasizing bearish sentiment.

Downward swings followed rapidly in the wheat market until December delivery touched $1.71, a sheer descent of nearly 10 cents a bushel from yesterday's finish.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Prices collapsed today for the wheat crop for hogs and oats, and dragged down the wheat market temporarily almost 10 cents a bushel.

Disturbed market and financial conditions, together with prospective receipts of new corn, were the chief depressing factors apparent.

Wheat closed at 83c, corn at 53c, and oats at 43c. Corn lost 3/4c to 3/8c and oats lost 1/2c to 1/4c.

Wheat market received sympathy from the Chicago market today, but the decline was not as sharp as in the wheat market.
