

BOUNTY TO FEATURE 1920 THANKSGIVING

Church Services and Turkey Dinners Planned for Day.

PRISONERS WILL FEAST

Newsboys, Charity Charges and Even Animals in Municipal Pound Will Not Be Forgotten.

Thanksgiving day will be featured in Portland tomorrow by numerous church services, individual and union; the customary council family dinners in homes, with the festive turkey spread, or something else substituted for it because of its high cost; a big football game between the Oregon Agricultural college and Multnomah Amateur Athletic club; special attention to the inmates of the city and county jails and charitable institutions; a unique banquet to the dogs, cats and goats of the municipal pound and "de big feed" for newsboys at the Multnomah hotel, given by Eric V. Hauser.

The event at the municipal pound is a public function, it is announced by Mrs. J. W. Swanton, manager. All the inmates there will be fed at 10 o'clock from the bounty of a kind-hearted wealthy woman of Portland, who recently lost her pet collie by death and who wishes to show her love for dumb brutes in this manner. She declines to permit the use of her name in connection with the affair, but she has written a note inviting the people of the city to visit the pound, located at the western end of the Interstate bridge, to witness the "spread" for the dogs, cats and goats and to see what the institution is like.

Ample Repasts for Prisoners.
City and county jailers, when asked yesterday what they proposed to do for their guests—the prisoners—said they had not decided that turkey was roasting pretty high this year and that they might substitute another delicacy. The turkey will be anywhere from 50 to 150 "at home" in the municipality's big house at Second and Oak streets, depending upon how active the police are, and approximately 140 in the county "hotel." While "those great big turkeys" the "usual bird" tomorrow, it is certain they will have an ample repast, varied and plenty of it.

"Out-of-luck girls," those who have passed through the Salvation Army's rescue home and happen to be absent during the turkey will meet in annual reunion with those now in the home. They will have a chicken dinner at 6 o'clock, followed by a programme of literary and musical numbers will be the feature. The volunteers of America will serve a special dinner at their working girls' home.

At the Piggish home, where are quartered a number of old folk, Mrs. Hattie Lawrence, affectionately called "Mother," will serve "just the best possible dinner to them. Just the best possible depends upon how generous the more fortunate persons of this big city are, for "Mother" has no other means of providing for her flock.

"Eric," as the newsies of Portland have come to know Eric V. Hauser, proprietor of the Multnomah hotel, again will be host to his friends and friends this year. It has been a custom with him for a good many years—as one way of showing not only his friendship for them, but—well, he was one himself years ago and he knows what they are up against and how they like turkey everything. Probably 400 of the liveliest wires of the town will sit down to Mr. Hauser's Thanksgiving dinner, scheduled for 12 o'clock, noon. There they will eat "till they can't wiggle," if boys ever get that way.

And, while all of this Thanksgiving cheer is holding sway, they are not going to forget the less fortunate of the near east, for arrangements have been made by the Sunday schools of the city, wherever possible, to take collections for the starving of Armenia, Syria and other afflicted regions beyond the seas. Never, it is declared by authorities, has the situation been more desperate than now in those far-away lands.

SALEM BIRDS COME HIGH

Dealers Place Turkeys on Market at 55 Cents Pound.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 23.—(Special.)—

Salem residents who have made plans to partake of the menu most appropriate to the Thanksgiving holiday will be compelled to pay 55 cents a pound for their turkeys, according to announcement made by local dealers today. In 1915 similar birds retailed at 45 cents a pound, while in 1919 55 cents was demanded. The price may reach 60 cents by noon tomorrow. Fewer turkeys were raised in Marion county this year than ever before, and only a few scattering shipments were made by dealers.

SPOUSE SHOTS UP HOME

Mrs. Addie Kalec Charges Husband With Gunplay.

Bill Hart tactics in the home make it no place in which to lead a peaceful life, according to Addie Kalec, who yesterday filed suit for divorce from M. Kalec on grounds of cruelty. She alleged that her husband was in the habit of dashing through the house firing a revolver through partitions and flooring, meanwhile whooping continuously.

Other complaints filed yesterday were: William Bradford against Angele Bradford, desertion; Alice L. Seely against Edward G. Seely, desertion; Emma Lanpheir against James Lanpheir, cruelty; Mary A. Shirey against Arthur G. Shirey, cruelty; Ina Lewis against Lester Lewis, cruelty; Hattie A. Howard against Leon Howard, desertion; Annette Mills against Fred H. Mills, desertion.

AGENCY WOMAN SOUGHT

Employment Office Charged With Defrauding Working Girls.

Obtaining money under false pretenses is the charge against Mrs. Florence Ridings, proprietor of an employment agency, now being sought by the constable's office, which holds a warrant for her arrest. Mrs. Ridings, it is alleged, has been in the habit of taking deposits from young women desiring employment and sending them for work to places which desired no addition. Her office is in room 301 Northwestern Bank building.

Latest complaints have been coming in to the district attorney from the women's protective division of the police department, the Y. W. C. A. and several other agencies.

BABY HOME DEATHS TWO

Second Infant Reported Victim of Alleged Epidemic.

Another baby died at the Waverly baby home yesterday, according to a report made at the city health bureau. The cause of the death was not known and as a result, Dr. W. S. Patrick, child specialist and house physician, requested Dr. Robert L. Benson, city bacteriologist, to perform an autopsy.

The death yesterday was the second to occur in the home during what is believed to be an epidemic. It is said eight babies in the home are still ill, although none of these is said to be dangerously so.

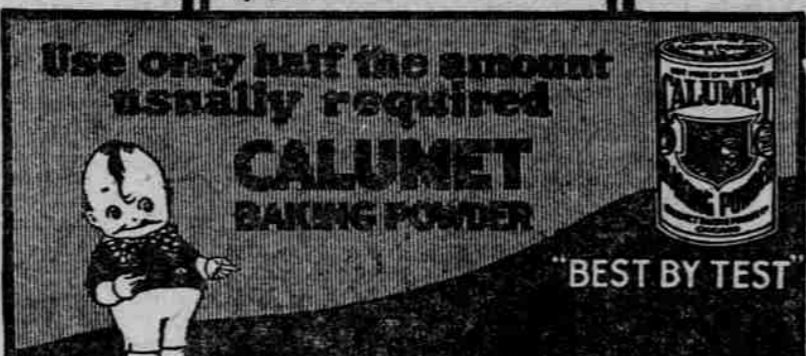

League Sues Dairyman.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 23.—(Special.)—C. D. Jarman, a dairyman residing in the vicinity of Bandon, is the second resident of the county to be sued by the Oregon Dairyman's league, for breaking his contract with that institution. The first man to be sued was Mr. Cochran, of the same locality. The league claims all of Jarman's milk was to be delivered to plants operating under the direction of the league, and that the defendant has been selling milk to other parties.

YOU don't use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders. It has more than ordinary leavening strength. You save about half.

You don't pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price—that represents another saving.

You don't feel uncertain as to results. Baking never fails—because Calumet never falls below the proven standard of "Best by Test."

Use only half the amount usually required.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

BEST BY TEST

It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

For weeks, for months, it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plant.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 16oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

AUTO SHOW BEGINS JAN. 9

DISPLAY AT AUDITORIUM TO OPEN TO PUBLIC JAN. 10.

Owing to Lack of Space, Passenger Vehicles Only May Be on Floor.

Portland's 12th annual automobile show will be held at the municipal auditorium during the week of January 9. The show will start Monday, January 10, and will continue the rest of the week, according to the decision of officials of the Automobile Dealers' association of Portland, which has charge of the show. At a meeting of officers and directors of the association plans for the show were discussed and the machinery put in motion which, it is declared, will make the 1921 event rank high.

The exhibition will be known as the truck and automobile show, but it is probable that owing to a lack of space passenger vehicles only will be shown and motor trucks will be displayed at the dealers' show rooms.

The show will be under the direct charge of the officers and directors of the Automobile Dealers' association, who are already working out their plans. The officers and directors of the association are: A. S. Robinson, president; A. H. Brown, vice-president; M. O. Wilkins, secretary-manager; directors, Del Wright, A. C. Stevens, George W. Dean, H. M. Covey, W. R. Deley, H. W. Roberts and Fred W. Vogler.

SANTA CLAUS

Will Arrive in Portland Today
From His Northland Home

We just got this letter from Santa, wherein he states that he expects to arrive in Portland some time this morning, while little folks are still abed, and that he will make his headquarters as usual at the Meier & Frank store. But hear what he has to say:

Dear Children:

I'm going to make every effort to be in Portland to greet my little friends a day sooner than I have been in the habit of coming because it looks up here at the North Pole as though we were going to have an unusually cold winter and I am going to get a day's start on the North Wind so that weather permitting I should be in your city the morning of Wednesday, November 24, and open for business in my old stand on the Sixth Floor of the Meier & Frank store on and after 10 A. M. Wednesday morning.

I have a nice present for every good little boy and girl—and I am sure that means every little girl and boy in Portland—so be sure to come and see me Wednesday and bring your parents or some grownup, as I want to meet them, too. I have brought many wonderful new toys this year and I am going to have lots of people to show these pretty things so that papa and mamma can make selections early and not have any of my little friends disappointed because they put off choosing until too late.

Lovingly yours,
SANTA CLAUS.

There's No Picture Like the Picture of Health

The greatest masterpiece in the Art Gallery of Life is Nature's "Picture of Health". It is a marvelous portrayal of the human body at its best. One beholds in its composite detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, sparkling eyes, strong limbs, steady nerves and firm muscles; fairly vibrating in animation—keen, alert, fresh, and sprightly, with an air of unbounded confidence and a face radiant in color and illuminated with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.
