

LYNCHING BLOCKED BY SHERIFF'S WIDOW

Jail Stormers Are Asked to Comply With Law.

WOMAN'S STAND IS FIRM

Boyd, Suspected Member of Gang Attacking Girl, Confesses Shooting 3 Officers.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Dec. 6.—The widow of Sheriff James Petray last night alone prevented a crowd of his friends from attempting to lynch George Boyd, confessed slayer of Sheriff Petray of Sonoma county and Miles M. Jackson and Lester M. Dorman, detectives of San Francisco, and to lynch also Boyd's companions, Clarence Pitts and Charles Valente, it became known tonight.

The three officers were shot and killed yesterday when they attempted to arrest Boyd, alias George Barron, Pitts and Valente in connection with entrance of a set of gangsters in accused of perpetrating on young women in a small shack in Howard street, San Francisco.

Following the arrest of the three men a crowd surrounded the county jail here and threatened violence. Two attempts to break into the jail were frustrated.

Vengeance Is Promised.

During the excitement a gathering of neighbors of Sheriff Petray from Healdsburg went to the home of the family. The friends said they would break into the jail and lynch the three accused men if the Petray family desired quick vengeance, according to officials who learned of the occurrence tonight.

Mrs. Petray stood firm against the proposal, it was declared. Her husband was an officer of the law and law-abiding; it would have been his wish that the law take its course, she was credited with saying.

"Two wrongs would not make a right," she declared.

According to county officials, the withdrawal of these friends of the sheriff was all that prevented an organized and successful assault on the jail.

The agencies of the law moved quickly today. District Attorney Hoyle, acting with Grand Jury Foreman Rosenbush, sent out calls for the grand jury to convene tomorrow and act on the accusations of murder against Boyd, Pitts and Valente.

"I want justice to be sure, swift and certain," said Hoyle.

Developments in the shooting today included a confession by Boyd he had shot all three officers; identification of Boyd and Valente by three young women who were in the San Francisco gang that had assaulted the girls in the gangsters' shack, and the vanishing of the crowd from the jail because of rain.

Girl Pleas, Screaming.

One of the girls in identifying Boyd as he lay on an ambulance cot in a city hospital, ran screaming from the place.

"He choked me; he choked me," she cried.

Boyd, the girls said, was known as the "lumberjack" to the gangsters. To the police he was known as a "two-termer" convicted sentence both times from Sacramento. Boyd's home was said to be in Twenty-third avenue, Seattle.

Boyd confessed, Hoyle said, that he was one of the men concerned in the Howard-street outrage, in which Jessie Montgomery and Jean Stanley were attacked. After that affair had been reported to the police, Pearl Hanley informed the police she had been the victim of a similar assault.

All of the Howard-street gang, with one possible exception, has been rounded up. Captain of Detectives Matheson of San Francisco announced.

The exception was the person who, Boyd said last night, was "the little black fellow" and to whom he first laid the blame for the shooting of the officers. This man's name was believed by Matheson to be Lazarus.

TRIBUTE PAID TO VICTIMS

Work of San Francisco Detectives Eulogized by Mayor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—The city's final tribute to the late Jackson, detective sergeant, and Lester H. Dorman, detective of the San Francisco police department, who, with James E. Petray, sheriff of Sonoma county, were shot and killed while attempting to arrest alleged members of a San Francisco criminal gang in Santa Rosa yesterday, was arranged at the weekly meeting of the board of supervisors here today. Mayor Rolph eulogized the work of the officers and the meeting adjourned in respect to their memory.

Some time tomorrow the bodies of the two detectives will be brought to the city hall, according to the supervisors' plans and will lie in state there until the funeral services.

A number of the criminal and civil courts adjourned today out of respect to the dead detectives.

Coincident with the formation of the funeral plans, a criminal court heard the plea of five alleged members of the gang who were arrested here following an attack on two young women. The men, Edward Kravosky, Edmund Murphy, Allen McDonnell, Thomas Brady and James Carey, were led to the court through corridors that were lined by police, with their clubs drawn, and that had been cleared of virtually all of the hundreds of spectators who attempted to reach the courtroom. The five suspects pleaded not guilty. The trial was set for December 18.

BUILDER ACCUSES LABOR

MILLIONAIRE ON TRIAL FOR PERJURY RESTS CASE.

George Backer Testifies He Proposed Misuse of Workers' Leader's Power.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The defense in the trial of George Backer, millionaire builder, charged with perjury in testimony before the joint congressional committee investigating the "building trust," rested its case at the close of today's session.

In his testimony today Mr. Backer declared that the Building Trades Employers' association and Robert F. Brindell, labor leader, worked "hand in glove" to bring about a trust which could have stopped alleged improper practices "if it so chose."

Mr. Backer denied portions of testimony given at the trial last week by Ephraim B. Levy, regarding alleged deals with Brindell and said that in talks with Brindell he had proposed "against misuse of the labor leader's power. The witness said that he had suspected right along that money given him by Levy to prevent a strike and in turn paid to "other strangers," reached Brindell's hands.

He replied in the negative to the court's question whether he knew he had violated a state law by paying bribe money.

LETTERS ALLEGED FAKE

DIVORCE PLEA SAYS WIFE SIGNED INITIALS OF DEAD.

Mrs. Alice Spencer Accuses Spouse of Throwing Things at Her and Calling Names.

Letters signed with the initials of his first wife, long since dead, failed to alarm James T. Durand, who alleges in a divorce complaint that they were faked by his present spouse, Hattie Durand. He maintains that Mrs. Durand is in the habit of writing these notes which state that the first wife is still alive and wishes to meet her husband at a designated place. He also said the defendant continually threatens to commit suicide unless he visits his father, whom she dislikes. The couple were married in October, 1919.

Alice W. Spencer is plaintiff in a suit against Ralph R. Spencer, whom she charges has thrown bags, buckets and other things at her and frequently has referred to her as a "fat cow." Mrs. Spencer says she has been left destitute, her husband having refused support since July.

Other divorce suits begun yesterday were by Joseph Dabruzzi against Alina Dabruzzi and Annie R. Smith against Jeremiah Asquith, both charging desertion.

TRADE DIPLOMATIC TASK

Colby Says Political Questions No Longer Are Main Issue.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Diplomacy no longer can be mainly concerned with political questions, "but must devote greater attention to far-reaching economic issues," Secretary Colby declares in a memorandum accompanying his report of appropriations for the state department for 1922, addressed to the secretary of the treasury today.

Secretary Colby estimates that $11,983,848.94 will be necessary for the maintenance of foreign relations, an increase over the previous year of nearly $3,000,000.

The United States, Mr. Colby said, finds itself in the commercial competition with other nations which are reviving and intensifying their efforts to gain foreign markets to occupy the markets formerly controlled by enemy powers and to attain a high degree of economic production.

JOLT IN CIDER CHARGED

Brothers Arrested and Released on $250 Bonds.

Morris and William Freeman, brothers, the former proprietor of a furniture store at 208 First street, and the latter the manager of a bottling works at 480 Albina avenue, were arrested by federal prohibition agents yesterday on a charge of selling cider with too great an alcoholic content. It is understood that Morris Freeman, in addition to his furniture business, is the backer of his brother in the bottling works.

The Freeman brothers were brought before Kenneth Frazer, United States commissioner, and released under $250 bonds each. They will have their preliminary hearing December 21.

Mrs. Swanton Goes to Funeral.

Mrs. F. W. Swanton of the Oregon Humane society, left Portland last night for the funeral of her brother-in-law, R. S. Day of Victoria, B. C., who died Sunday. Mr. Day was president of the boards of the British Columbia hospital and the Rehabilitation hospital. He was well known in Portland. One of his daughters, Miss Leola Day, has many friends in Oregon. Mrs. Swanton will be gone about a week.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Representative Summers, Washington, introduced a bill today proposing duties of 25 cents a bushel on wheat, $1.15 a barrel of 196 pounds, on wheat flour, and on other wheat products a straight 25 per cent ad valorem rate.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 6.—The second cut in the price of bread in two weeks was announced today. Pound loaves retailed at 12 cents, while 15 cents was asked for round and a half loaves, a reduction of one cent.

TRIBUTE PAID PILGRIMS

MINISTERS OBSERVE TERCENTENARY ANNIVERSARY.

Portland Association Presents Special Programme of Exercises at Y. M. C. A. Auditorium.

A special programme of exercises in observance of the tercentenary anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims was the feature of the regular monthly meeting of the Portland Ministerial association in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium yesterday morning.

Rev. William T. McElveen spoke on "The Pilgrim" and Rev. Edward Constant delivered an address on "The Log of the Mayflower." "The Pilgrim in Pictures" was the subject of a lecture with stereopticon views by Rev. O. P. Avery. A replica of the Mayflower, loaned by the local navy recruiting office and appropriate exhibits belonging to Dr. Constant were displayed at the meeting.

Following the programme a business meeting was held. The association voted that a message of sympathy be sent to the family of Rev. Herbert T. Cash, associate pastor of East Side Baptist church, who died last Sunday.

By a majority vote of the association, it was decided to make December 26 the date for Christmas services in as many churches as possible in the city, instead of December 19.

About 100 ministers were present. Rev. Byron J. Clark, president of the association, presided.

AUTOMOBILES STOP TRAIN

Motorists Recklessly Cross Track Ahead of Moving Freight.

YANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 6.—(Special.)—A long freight train, coming down the North Bank road from Port Coquitlam, recently was compelled to stop twice on account of automobiles.

About 60 miles east of here the driver of an automobile saw the train and tried to beat it across. The engine near saw what the man was going to do and put on the emergency air brakes a short distance from the crossing. He managed to stop the train just in time to let the machine go by.

On a crossing this side of Camas the incident was repeated, except that the locomotive hit the auto and turned it around, but no one was injured. The names of the drivers were taken in both instances.

Both machines were loaded, one carrying five and the other seven passengers.
