WRECK DAMAGES PREVENTED.—The owners of the wrecked steamer State of Washington, which sank following an explosion in her boiler room several months ago, were practically absolved from paying any damages by a decree handed down yesterday by Judge Wolverton in the United States district court. The Shaver Transportation company, the owner, was adjudged entitled to the protection of an act of congress that limits the liability of the company to the value of the ship after it is wrecked. One life was lost in the explosion, J. W. Shaver stated yesterday that the vessel was so badly wrecked that it would not pay to salvage it and that therefore it was considered valueless.

MR. POLSON DENIES HE IS KING.—Alex Polson, president of the Polson Logging company of Hoquiam, Wash., recently made a visit to Portland and in a news note of his presence in the city it was stated that he was connected with the Inman-Poulson lumber company and he was referred to as the king of the logging industry at Grays Harbor. Mr. Polson strongly objects to being classed as a king of any sort and in a letter recently received by a friend in Portland states that he is just an "everyday logger" and has no connection with the local lumber firm.

JEFFERSON PLAY POSTPONED.—Out of respect to Miss Maud Ferguson, Jefferson high school teacher, who was killed by an automobile Tuesday, members of the January (21) class yesterday voted to postpone presentation of their class play, "I'll Pave to Advertise," was to have been given tomorrow and Saturday nights and several hundred tickets are in the hands of patrons. The play will be given and the tickets honored on Friday and Saturday nights, December 17 and 18.

AT THE EVENING SERVICE on Sunday last at the Church at Portland, 283 State street, of the John G. Lake is overseer, Mr. J. A. Hicks gave public testimony that he had suffered from a severe form of blood poisoning in his arm. That the physician insisted upon an operation to remove the arm. He refused, came to Dr. Lake's health room and prayer of faith was offered and in less than a week his arm was perfectly restored.—Adv.

P. C. KNAPP REAPPOINTED.—Fred C. Knapp, president of the Peninsula Lumber company, has been reappointed as a member of the city commission of public docks. Mayor Baker made the reappointment prior to his departure for California and the city council yesterday confirmed the appointment. Mr. Knapp's term expired on December 7. He probably will take office at the next meeting of the dock commission.

CHILDREN OF SCHOOL AGE 62,410.—County School Superintendent Alderson yesterday reported to the county commissioners results of the school census of 1920, and the share of funds to be levied on the county necessitating a levy for $624,100 for grade schools and for $20,525.92 for high schools.

DOCTORS TO HAVE MEETING.—All physicians have been invited to attend the regular meeting of the Portland academy of medicine, which will be held tonight at the Multnomah hotel. A resume of the past year's work will be given by the president, Dr. N. J. Jones. Papers will be presented by Professor George A. Olson, Pullman, Wash., and Dr. C. U. Moore, Portland.

LOTTERY FLEAS NOT GETTY.—Tom Lotzko, alleged murderer of his English war bride, Tessie Lotzko, entered a plea of not guilty yesterday before Judge Taxwell. Upon request of Albert B. Ferreira, attorney for the defendant, the trial was continued from December 16 to January 17.

THREE HOUSES ROBBED.—Much bed clothing, table linen and wearing apparel were stolen some time Tuesday from the home of Mrs. M. Gregg, 310 North Ivanhoe street, she reported yesterday to the police detective bureau. The prowlers "jimmied" open a downstairs window. At the restaurant of G. L. Rosella, 27 1/2 Madison street, thieves gained entrance through a rear window and stole $100 in cash, the proprietor reported yesterday. They also took a revolver. A fur coat was the loot taken by thieves who gained entrance to the home of M. C. Ham during the absence of the family, it was reported yesterday.

KNOWITONS APPEALS FAIL.—The appeal of George E. Knowlton and his brother, Jerry, from the decision of the United States district court here has been fruitless, according to the verdict of the higher court as received in Portland yesterday. The Knowltons were convicted of transporting two loads of whiskey, brandy and gin in violation of the Reed amendment, and sentenced to serve six months in the county jail. Mrs. Florence Knowlton, wife of George Knowlton, was arrested at the same time. They will have to serve their sentences.

POUNDMASTER MAY BE SCAM.—Mrs. Robert W. Hedderly, widow of the alleged bootlegger who was shot and killed several months ago in a raid, has petitioned the United States district court for permission to sue William D. Morris and Earl M. Jackson, Portland police officers, for $2000 damages each. This is a civil suit similar to those filed by the widow against the federal operatives who were concerned in the death of her husband and which were transferred from the state district to the federal court.

CASE COMPLICATED ONE.—Judge Wolverton of the United States district court has granted the attorneys in the case of David Morgan, a trustee for Joseph Morgan, against the Clear Lake Land & Irrigation company, the Wapinitia Irrigation company and some 50 water-users of central Oregon, 20 days in which to file their briefs. The hearing, now concluded, proved to be one of the most complicated affairs in the history of the local court. It will take considerable time to transcribe the evidence.

LITIGANTS SETTLE CASE.—The federal suit instituted by Harry Koebl, E. C. Larson, G. W. Ballou and C. A. Brown, Milton R. Klepper, Ernest M. Welch and John J. Lane. There were 133 votes cast.

SECURITIES ARE OFFERED.—The Portland branch of the federal reserve bank yesterday announced two new issues of United States treasury certificates, now available to the public at 6 per cent interest for one-year notes and 5 1/2 per cent for six-month notes. Both are dated December 15, and are in denominations of $500 each.

BOND DEALERS HEAR TALK.—Bond dealers of Portland met at luncheon in the Benson hotel yesterday and heard an address on Canadian emigration conditions by J. A. Wood, Victoria. Local dealers are proposing to organize for closer relationship in common work and the luncheon was along that line.

ROYAL ENGINEER TO SPEAK.—Captain Edmund L. MacNaughten, recently with the Royal Engineers in the British army, is to be the speaker at today's luncheon of the Portland Engineers club. He will discuss "The Irish Republic," discussed from the angle of an Ulster man and Protestant.

Teacher Killed by Autoist! Miss Maud Ferguson of Jefferson High was almost instantly killed by an automobile driven by Alfred Axelsen, of 2064 Wasco street, at the intersection of East Forty-first and Glisan streets, at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday evening. This is the second time this week a woman has lost her life in an auto accident. In the cities of Paris and Munich no one is allowed to drive a car unless he or she has good eyesight. Why not have a similar law in the city of Portland? Whether you drive an auto or not, better have your eyes examined by us at once and be sure you have perfect eyesight. Wheeler Optical Co.
