TO PUT UP HOSPITAL II

Portland Sanitarium Heads Win Long Fight.

FURTHER DELAY REFUSED

Three Members of Council Vote in Euvor of Structure, With One in Opposition.

By the votes of three of its memthe city council yesterday granted the application of the Portland sanatorium for a permit to rebuild at East Sixtleth and Belmont streets, its present site, thus ending long-drawn-out controversy which has been before the council for months. The motion to grant the was made by City Commissioner Barbur, and was supported by Acting Mayor Bigelow and Commis-Money Mann.

granting the permit, after having urged his colleagues to hold their decision in abeyance for another month in order that parties to the controversy might have time in which to reach an amicable agreement on the relocation of the hospital

Pier Opposes Permit. "I am eager to get this matter off our hands," explained Commis-sioner Pier. "It has been before us for a long time. However, the entire matter has taken on a new phase during the last few days. Men of large affairs—bankers and business men—have become interested in the ntion of this hospital, and I bewas delayed for three weeks, or four and a settlement highly satisfactory to the hospital authorities reached. C. C. Hindman, attorney for the opposing faction, made a similar argument, claiming that both sides to the controversy did not come to realize that an amicable agreement could be reached until last week. He pleaded for a three weeks' delay in order that definite propositions of sites might be laid before the board of directors of the sanatorium for consideration.

Delay Is Refused. City Commissioner Bigelow, who presided at the meeting in the capacity of acting mayor, announced that all previous delays had been made at the request of the opposition, and that in each case the hospital authorities accepted the delay with extremely good grace.

"So far as I am concerned, I will not favor any further delay," said Commissioner Bigelow, "unless the hospital authorities request it. I want to see this matter settled definitialy today, if possible, because it has hung fire long enough."

Commissioner Mann brought out the fact that ever though the very

the fact that, even though the per-mit was granted, the opposition could continue to make any proposition desired for a new site, and that if such an offer was acceptable to the suna-torium authorities steps could be taken to procure a new permit for relocation of the hospital. He favored granting the permit to avoid further delay, and also to hurry the forces in opposition to concluding their propositions of new sites.

Long Wait Recounted.

Speaking for the bospital authories, Dr. H. W. Cotterill, president of the board of directors, explained that all delays in the matter had been taken with good grace, and that still further grace could be mustered if "It is three months since the city council viewed the property and ex-plained the procedure for the directors of the sanatorium to pursue," he said. "Three weeks ago offers of free sites and monetary aid were spoken of in this room, but up to the present mement no definite offer in writing has been received. A verbal offer was made by the dean of the University of Oregon medical school to a member of our board, but such an offer could not be considered unless it was in writing. Furthermore, I believe you men will agree that the proposed site on Marquam Hill would not be suitable for our purposes.

"If a delay is required, we will accept it, but we will not request a delay. Such action is for you to take." ors of the sanatorium to pursue,"

One Thousand Dollars Is Offered. Dr. Arthur Chance, one of the principal opponents to the rebuilding of the sanatorium on its present s'te. who three weeks ago offered to pay $1000 toward financing the relocation of the hospital, yesterday offered to post his check for that amount with the city council.

the city council.

Wilson Benefiel, president of the East Side Business Men's club, urged the council to grant permission to the hospital authorities to rebuild the sanatorium on its present site. H.A. Whitney of Sutton & Whitney, architects for the hospital, also urged granting of the permit and opposed further delay.

further delay, Without further discussion, Com-missioner Barbur moved granting of the permit, the motion being seconded by Commissioner Mann and supported by Commissioner Bigelow, with Com-missioner Pler alone casting a nega-tive vote.

Ralph R. Duniway, who died Tues halph R. Duniway, who died Tuesday, was the attorney representing the hospital authorities in the controversy which was concluded yesterday. Mr. Duniway was designated for this task several months ago and made an extended statement to the newspapers covering the case. He was prevented from making any appearance before the council, however, because of his illness. because of his illness.

GIFT SUGGESTION MADE

Tickets for Popular Concerts Held

Appropriate for Season.

A suggestion for a Christmas gift is offered by the Portland symphony drahestra in a present of a season ticket for a series of Sunday after-neon popular concerts to be given at the auditorium.

the auditorium.

The first concert will be given December 26, the day after Christmas. This would make the gift of a season toket or two to a friend particularly appropriate for the holiday season. In addition to this one concert, the recipient of the gift would enjoy concerts on the afternoons of January 23, February 27 and April 3.

The complete orchestra will play at each of these concerts and special attractions have been planned for each Sunday as well. For the opening concert a group of choir singers from leading churches of the city will sing Christmas carols.

Orders for season tickets should be sent to Mrs. Donald Spencer, 251 Cornell Road.
