Arrests for the year 1920 reached the highest mark since 1915, according to the annual report of Police Chief Jenkins for the 12 months from December 1, 1919. to December 1, 1920. Arrests during 1920 were 18,445 as compared with 17,925 in 1919, 17,986 in 1918, and 20,559 in 1915, the record in 1915, and 20,559 in 1915, the record mark of the past six years. Automobile drivers contributed the largest share to the total this year, with more than 5000 arrests for traf-fic violations, including speeding and reckless driving. Comparison with 1519, however, showed a slightly low-er total in that class of violations for 1920

Census Increases Budget.

MEDFORD, Or., Dec. 10 .-- (Special.) MEDFORD, Or., Dec. 10.---(Special.) --The Jackson county court has been forced to publish a corrected school budget because the amounts for school purposes were raised by the school census after the first budget was an-nounced and published. The first county budget called for $57,750, but the school census oblanged this to $55,200. The first amount for main-taining high schools was placed at $35,000, which was increased to $48,-180.
