FREIGHT UNDER BOYCOTT

The Live Wires of the commercial The Live Wires of the commercial club some time ago appointed a committee to investigate the prospects for a new station and, after the committee's findings in the matter had been reported, a copy was delivered to the state utilities commission. The commission held that if conditions were as had as the report indicated it was high time for the Southern Pacific company to build a better station.

The Southern Pacific company advised the Live Wires just before elec-tion that it would take steps to rem-edy conditions, but after election, the Live Wires charge, the company stopped proceedings.

His lameness was said to be the result of a frequent breaking of his leg in escaping from arresting officers.

Lowe, who owns a fine home in the Montavilla district, is under two indictments and is said by federal officials to have acted as sales agent for the output of several stills. It was charged by revenue agents that he made a practice of contracting for moonshine at wholesale rates and then made a handsome profit by retailing the liquor to the consumer.

The first indictment against Lowe was returned last spring and was for an alleged violation of the internal revenue laws. The second, returned in the summer, relates to the same alleged offense and was brought in after Judge Bean ruled that the new prophition amendment super-

What Will Check America's Carnival of Crime?

In Chicago more than a thousand denizens of the underworld were recently rounded up in a swift series of spectacular raids which marked the advent of a new chief of police. In New York City, since the first of the year, the Tribune tells us, 'the unsolved murders alone total more than 100," and the hold-ups, robberies, and thefts reported by the police represent a property loss of more than $3,100,000. In Philadelphia, according to the Inquirer of that city, there have been 100 murders in eleven months; and a recent record of fifty hold-ups in one day has resulted in plans for a special motorcycle squad of banditchasing riflemen. In Pittsburg, according to a correspondent, "there has been an increase of 20 per cent in crime this year," and "13 murders remain unsolved by the police." In Boston, says the Herald of that city, "hold-ups by gunmen are becoming increasingly numerous." In Cincinnati the Commercial Tribune states that "every agency of robbery is working overtime." In St. Louis conditions have recently compelled Chief of Police O'Brien to organize a "drive" against gunmen, gangsters, and the criminal forces generally. Cleveland's records show 70 murders. Detroit confesses to an increase in homicides and robberies over its average for the last six years. In San Francisco the head of the detective bureau reports that "crimes of violence have increased since the advent of prohibition." In Seattle "robberies, hold-ups, and burglaries have been occurring with disturbing frequency," according to the Seattle Times, which adds, "the entire country is experiencing a veritable epidemic of crime."

THE LITERARY DIGEST this week-December 11th-publishes a survey of the criminal records of the big cities in the United States, and shows from comparative statistics of this country and Europe the unenviable record which America holds. Other striking news-
