The Supreme Moments of Life Are Those Inspired by Music

Let Your Christmas Gift Be A Bush and Lane Piano

BRING to your home that measure of contentment and happiness that is the goal of every human being, whether old or young, rich or poor.

Few had people go out from the home where music is enshrined. Music hallows and sanctifies the home and brings human beings closer to the infinite.

It is with the idea and ideal of service to humankind that Bush & Lane pianos are manufactured. The Bush & Lane organization has in mind always the spiritual and emotional needs of people who possess an inherent appreciation of beauty and quality.

At the same time they realize that people of artistic taste are sometimes confined by financial limitations. So the matter of price enters into the placing of a Bush & Lane piano into a home. By selling direct from manufacturer to purchaser a considerable reduction in the cost to the ultimate owner is effected.

We say without fear of contradiction from any source that the Bush & Lane pianos are the best—very much the best—values in pianos the country has to offer today.
