Back in the old days. A decade or so ago, the Union Pacific railroad, under the aggressive direction of the astute and powerful Harriman, decided to extend its line to Puget sound.

This was progress. It was a sensible, economical and beneficial plan. But when it came to terminals another policy was followed.

The Bethlehem Steel company's boycott on contractors who run the closed shop is retaliation on labor union boycott of those who run the open shop.

Without regard to whether some millions of children in central Europe shall starve during the coming winter, the fact stands out that a "stick" the purchaser for as much as $1000, which was a great sum in those days.

There is no snow at White Salmon, Wash. just now, because Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snow are in Portland and are restricted to the district of Oregon.

material until goods manufactured from them were sold. Germany in particular makes no effort to see its finances in order because it is still in doubt what amount it will have to pay for reparations.

By-products of the times. Arch-Associated With Common Superstitions in Some Countries. We do not commonly think of the arch, one of the most beautiful of architectural achievements, as being associated in any way with common superstitions.

Those who come and go. John Burroughs' Nature Notes. "Oregon is the only state that has a tax on gasoline and other states are anxious to learn about this law with the view of incorporating it in their own statute books."

More truth than poetry. By James J. Montague. Under the terms of the will of the late H. C. Frick, John D. Rockefeller gets a $500,000 partnership stake.

Can you answer these questions? 1. Do skunks rub themselves? 2. How do you say "high" shining through an opening in the clouds?

Answers to previous questions. 1. Are tracks of a snow made mostly by day or night-walking animals? The snow-walkers are mostly night-walkers.

2. Where are wild strawberries apt to be found? When you go a-berrying, turn your steps toward the most fertile meadows. The wild strawberries cannot cope with the rank and deep-rooted clover, and seldom appears in a field till the clover has had its day.

3. How do sparrows avoid owls? The English house sparrow, which has no rapacious predators, and which must add greatly to the food supply of the owls and other birds of prey, seek to baffle their pursuers by their habits.

The City of Opportunity. New York is the place for industry to expand. For example, just look at the critical industry.

The Circus Parade. O. magic spot on which is pitched the tent! O. magic tent where life-rides and merry-go-rounds are.

Farm Work is Best Remedy. Writer Lonely No Longer Since He Left City for Rural Districts. (To the Editor.)—I have read the letters from the different Eves, Adams and widowers, some with amusement and some with something else.

Family Pinched on $5 a Day. Mother With Seven Children Wondering About Christmas for Them. PORTLAND, Dec. 16.—(To the Editor.)—Will some one be kind enough to tell me how to manage on $5 per day for a family of seven for Christmas before going down the river.

Studies in High School. MARCOLE, Or., Dec. 15.—(To the Editor.)—How many subjects can a high school student take in Portland or any high school in Oregon.

Get this over and done with by Monday, Mr. Wain. Portland wants its Christmas week fair and cold.

Good work, Chief Jenkins; clear the corners. Stagg is coming across literally to free Miss Brainerd like a gentleman.
