FALSE ARREST ALLEGED IN SUIT.—Damages for alleged false imprisonment are asked in the suit of Harry Maizel against the Pacific American Metal company and Max Albert, now on trial before Circuit Judge Belt. The plaintiff asks $5750, part of which is for attorney's fees, part for loss of business and the remainder for damage to his reputation. Maizel was taken in custody last May on a warrant charging larceny by bailee. This is the first case to be heard during this session by Judge Belt, who is here from Dallas to fill in on the circuit bench for the remainder of the week.

PORTLAND MAN LOSES BY ONE VOTE.—According to word received here yesterday final count by the Harvard student council of votes cast at the senior elections gives the office of class orator by a single vote to William S. Holbrook of Davenport, Ia., instead of to Thomas H. Mills, son of A. L. Mills, well-known Portland banker. It was previously reported that Mr. Mills had been elected. The recount was made because of the unusual closeness of the contest.

Smith is said to have been in Portland several months ago.

D Patterson, 1251 East Harrison street, reported to the police yesterday that her purse containing $15 and a gold wrist watch was taken by a purse-snatcher at East Twenty-eighth and Belmont streets, Saturday night. She was unable to give an accurate description of the sneak thief.

MORPHINE SALE CHARGED.—Three days of unceasing watch on the part of Alvin Willis, deputy United States marshal, was rewarded late yesterday afternoon when he caught Charles Hampton Pitts, negro, just as he was entering the Golden West hotel at Broadway and Flanders streets. Pitts was wanted by the United States authorities for alleged violation of the Harrison drug act, the government charging that he sold a quantity of morphine about December 16. Pitts was not held long, as friends placed $1000 bonds to insure his appearance when wanted.

SOLDIER TRIO HELD.—Where will a soldier get $1500? If they cannot raise this sum James Vest, 21, Foster C. Cheney, 19, and Harmon Jones, 18, members of the army medical corps detachment stationed at Vancouver barracks, Washington, must remain in the Multnomah county jail. The trio were arrested early yesterday morning while driving along Terwilliger boulevard, for the reason that they were in a car that belonged to H. H. Claassen of Vancouver. They were taken before Kenneth Fraser, United States commissioner, and held to the federal grand jury under $1500 bonds.

FRAUD CHARGED TO JEWELER.—Upon complaint of the better business bureau a warrant has been issued by Deputy District Attorney Maguire for the arrest of Joseph Sevan, manager of the Keystone Jewelry company, charged with false advertising. Three items are cited in the complaint, although Charles W. English of the better business bureau says that other discrepancies have been found in the advertising. He says much misrepresentation has taken place in jewelry sales conducted in the last few weeks.

"POOR" MAN MONEY LENDER.—Rejection of the claim of the county for $690.68 said to have been paid the late Joseph Stremel when it was not known he was in a position to lend money was communicated to the commissioners yesterday by Hazel Bernice Gilbert, administratrix of the estate. Man Twice Indicted Charged With Forging $50 Check.

This time he is said to have cashed a check purporting to be for the benefit of the inter-church world movement by signing the name of Bishop Sumner.

Golden was before Circuit Judge Stapleton earlier in the year after he had been in trouble over alleged collection of funds for the Salvation Army drive, when he is said falsely to have represented himself as a solicitor.
