MURDERER TO HANG FOR KILLING PALMER 黉

Sentence to Be Imposed on Tuesday Afternoon.

PENALTY IS AUTOMATIC

Imprisonment Leaves Judge No Alternative.

Husted Aivin Walters, 24-year-old soldier from Camp Lewis, must hang for the murder of Jerome Palmer. Portland police patrolman, who was shot and killed during a gun fight on the night of November 17. This was the decision of a circuit court jury which returned a verdict at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning finding the young soldier guilty of Arst-degree murder. Under the new capital senish-ment law, Walters must hang for the murder. Because of the absence of any recommendation for life imprisonment, Judge Tucker, before whom the case was tried, has no alternative other than to sentence the soldier-murderer to pay the extreme Judge Tucker announced that the death sentence would be imposed at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He allowed the defense ten days in which to prepare an appeal for a new trial. Jury Debate Long.

The case was given to the jury at 5:25 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, but it was not until 9:30 o'clock yes-terday morning that the jurors made any report to the court. At that time they filed before Judge Tucker and requested further instructions relative to the length of premeditation required in first-degree murder After Judge Tucker had given further instructions on this point the jurors returned t othe jury room and an hour later returned with their ver-

During the brief court formalities before the verdict was read Walters became extremely nervous and crouched in his seat as though terri-fied. But when the verdict which will send him to the gallows was read in a low tone by the clerk, the young slayer showed no outward sign of emotion. It was the first time since the case first started that he ap-

Degree of Guilt Argued. Unofficially, it was said that the jury from the outset was unanimous as to the guilt of Walters, but was disagreed as to whether it should be first or second-degree murder. Several of the jurors were not certain that the murder of the policeman had been planned and executed with pre-

On the night of November 17 Walters, in company with John "illman 17-year-old so dier compani, i. held up and robbed four pedestrians on the streets of Portland. When accosted by a police posse of which Jerome Palmer, patrolman, was a member, Walters shot the officer through the beart in attempting to make an es-cape. He was captured a few minutes later in the railroad vards near the union station with a bullet wound in his shoulder which had been inflicted by Patrolman Thorpe, Pal-mer's companion on the manhunt.

Prison Record Unearthed. From records received by District Attorney Evans from the federal pen-lientiary at Leavenworth, Kan. it has been learned that Walters has served three terms in an Oklahoma turglary. These facts of his past criminal record were received by the prosecuting attorney too late to be used during the trial of the case. As Walter A. Husted he first served As walter A. Husted he first served five years in the prison at Granite, Okla., for the stealing of domestic animals. This was in 1916. He was paroled, but later was sentenced to 15 months in the same institution for grand larceny. Again he was sentenced to one year for he was sentenced. tenced to one year for burglary, the records showing he was sent up from El Reno, Okla. He is said to have been in prison during the war, and to have entered the army after hostilities overseas had been terminated with the ar-

TRUNK THIEF SENTENCED

Maurice Goldberg to Serve Year for Larceny in Hotel.

Maurice Goldberg, 27 years old, was sentenced to one year in the county jail by Municipal Judge Rossman yesterday when convicted on a larceny charge involving the theft of a trunk from the Seward hotel.

According to the testimony Gold-berg, rooming at the Cornelius hotel, attempted to bribe a bellboy to convey a trunk from the basement stor-age room to his own apartment, claiming ownership. Failing in this he went to the Seward hotel, entered the basement and selected another trunk. ordering that it be conveyed to his room at the Cornelius.

The arrest was made by Inspectors Swennes and Schulpius, after the trunk had been transferred to Goldberg's room. He resisted the officers and in a struggle with Inspector Schulpius was floord by the officer's
