

SECOND RAPINE BAND MEMBER IS GUILTY

E. Kruvosky, San Francisco Puglist, Convicted.

1 TO 50 YEARS SENTENCE

Three Other Alleged Gangsters Await Trial as Accomplices in Girl Attacks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23.—Edward Kruvosky, San Francisco puglist, and the second of five men to be indicted for criminal attacks on young women, was found guilty in the superior court here tonight.

Kruvosky's trial began Tuesday, December 21, and the character of the testimony unparalleled that developed in the Murphy case.

Three others await trial. They are Miss Jessie Montgomery, Reno, Nev., and her companion, Miss Jean Stanley, formerly of Portland, Or., who were named in the Kruvosky indictment as the mistreated girls, and the physicians who attended the young women, were the principal witnesses against Kruvosky, as against Murphy.

Three other alleged gangsters are awaiting trial as accomplices in the same attack, which was committed early in the morning of Thanksgiving day.

Kruvosky, while admitting his presence in the house in which the attack took place, offered evidence to show that he had no definite knowledge of the occurrence.

Kruvosky said that he was a willing party to all that transpired in the Howard-street shack. He denied having made advances toward her that were not requested by the girl herself. Kruvosky said he left the shack late in the night and when he returned to get his overcoat he was arrested.

Effort to Impenach Girl. Counsel for Murphy announced he was preparing affidavits in an attempt to impeach Miss Montgomery's testimony. These are to be submitted with a request for a new trial.

The arousing of public sentiment against the men resulted in elaborate police protection from possible mob violence for the men on trial here.

BRITAIN GUILTY OF SNUB

(Continued From First Page.) that there was some reasonable explanation of the embassy's action in dealing directly with Secretary Kellogg instead of through the state department.

Neither the embassy's letter nor that written by Secretary Kellogg to Mr. Davis was made public. The former was understood to have been signed by H. Leslie Craigie, first secretary of the embassy, and it was dispatched after a public statement had been made at the embassy that such a communication would be sent. Enclosed with the embassy's letter was a newspaper dispatch printed in this country quoting a high official of Scotland Yard as denying that there was a censorship on cablegrams originating in the British Isles for the United States.

Kellogg Ignores Denial. Despite this denial, Senator Kellogg in his letter to Secretary Davis asked the state department to inquire of the embassy whether a censorship exists as testified by Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, and John Goldhamer of the commercial cable company.
