

GREEK BANKS' CHIEF REFUSES TO RESIGN

Coiffers Not Opened to Constantine Regime.

CHURCH HAS DISORDERS

Several Arrested as Result of Outbreak at Meeting Held in Honor of Venizelos.

ATHENS, Dec. 29.—M. Zaimis, director of the national banks, who was premier when King Constantine was expelled from Greece, has declined to resign his directorship of banks at the behest of the Khaliss ministry.

It was said that M. Zaimis will not open the coffers of the banks for the present government, as he did in the case of Premier Venizelos, to whom he advanced 200,000,000 drachmas.

Disorders among the clergy at the Church of St. Theodore during services in honor of the late day of ex-Premier Venizelos. It was alleged that officers in the Greek army threatened the priest conducting the ceremonies. Two persons were arrested but were soon released.

Venizelos' Return Forecast.
The newspaper Patris in a full front page editorial declared that Greece was enduring her "calvary" and that M. Venizelos would "sorely return."

Some alarm has been shown by the cabinet over the fact that 20,000 of General Wrangell's anti-Bolshevik troops which were landed at Gallipoli have spread into Thrace. It was declared these men were pillaging the country for food.

King Constantine was suffering a slight illness, having taken cold.

Princess Anastasia, wife of Prince Christopher, who had been under orders not to receive newspaper correspondents, later was permitted to do so. There have been reports that she has been virtually a prisoner but they have been disproved.

Prince George Plans Trip.
Prince George, who will soon be married to Princess Elizabeth of Romania, plans a trip to Paris to buy his bride's jewels.

Madame Manes, widow of the late King Alexander, has not the status of royalty, but is personally on friendly terms with members of the Greek ruling house.

Princess Anastasia, wife of Prince Christopher, has been recognized as a Greek princess.

William Leeds, son of Princess Anastasia, may marry Princess Olga, daughter of Prince Nicholas, and niece of King Constantine. It was rumored in court circles.

Princess Nicholas is a brother of Prince Christopher, the husband of Princess Anastasia.

LEEDS HEIR TO $7,000,000
Youth Taken to Europe in 1915 "to Prevent Dissipation."

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—William L. Leeds, 18-year-old son of Princess Anastasia of Greece, who may marry Princess Olga, niece of King Constantine, was left about $7,000,000 in 1905 upon the death of his father.

William Bateman Leeds, American uncle of King George, brother of the older Leeds by his second wife, was taken to Europe by his mother in 1915. At the time she explained that "rich men in America grow dissipated" and she wanted to remove her son "from such influences."

Prior to that the boy had been established in a mansion in Montclair, N. J., where he was under constant surveillance by a governess, a private detective and his personal servants. Daily cable messages of his welfare were sent to his mother, who remained abroad.

MILITARY ROAD AIDED
WILLAMETTE HIGHWAY PART OF FORESTRY PLANS.

Distance From Portland to Klamath Falls to Be Reduced 129 Miles.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU Washington, Dec. 29.—While no funds are available now for the construction of the Willamette military highway, which would reduce the distance by public road from Portland to Klamath Falls to 129 miles, the highway is to be included at once in the national forest service road programme.

Forester W. B. Greely assured Senator McNary Tuesday. Everywhere along the route Senator McNary was met by committees urging that he bring all possible pressure to get this road opened to Portland.

He was, therefore, pleased today at a letter from Forester Greely in which the proposed highway was recognized as important to the administration and protection of the national forests through which it passed for many miles.

Among other things, the forester said, it is believed that this road will eventually be one of the trunk highways of the state. He promised that such sums as can be spared from time to time from the forest road funds will be diverted to this highway to get its improvement under way until additional money is obtained from congress.

Major Arthur P. Von Deasten, corps of engineers, now stationed at Portland, is ordered to duty at Galveston, Tex., by Texas army orders.

Troubled World in 1921 Is Predicted by Seers.
One Parisian Says U. S. Will Suffer Labor and Political Troubles.

(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)
PARIS, Dec. 29.—(Special.)—Today's newspapers abound in new year prophecies uttered by the sundry seers who are dear to the heart of the Paris public. All of the oracles seem inclined to point the future as seen through smoked glasses, but they prudently take care to relieve the outlook with gleams of cheer.

political and labor troubles. She says President Wilson will be in danger. President Ebert of Germany and Nicolai Lenine of Russia, she observes, also will be in personal peril.

Mme. Etlice, a less eminent crystal-gazer, boldly forecasts the death of two eminent men by the hands of women. She indicates also two or three important financial failures. In this prophecy she is supported by Mme. Teleme, who hints at dishonest speculation and at the menace of a big failure next autumn.

Mme. Teleme says Russia will continue to provoke much trouble and that socialist divisions will increase. In this line Mme. Fraya foretells the beginning of an important world epoch.

She sees rapid progress in feminism but nothing worth while in art or science. Mme. Teleme, on the other hand, predicts a happy era for art and for letters and remarkable decrease in the number of divorces.

Italy, Spain and Portugal, according to Mme. Teleme will be endangered by revolution. Turkey will risk total dismemberment and troubles and disorders will be augmented in Russia, where the present regime may be upset. The Brusque change in store for Russia, she says, will bring that country into several alliances. The Paris soothsayers unhesitatingly forecast disastrous storms and railroad accidents for 1921.

YOUTHS HELD AS ROBBERS

TWO YOUNG MEN SUSPECTED OF HOTEL ROOM THEFTS.

Six Sets of Door Keys and Property Believed to Be Loot Found in Prisoners' Possession.

In Harry Duval and Walter Long, each 19 years old, the police believe they have two of the persons who are responsible for a number of hotel room robberies which have taken place in Portland lately.

The youths were arrested in a downtown pool hall Tuesday night, charged with violating the payment of all deferred interest on the long-time obligations, which were given to them in Spokane by a Mexican.

In a room at 387 Mill street, which Long and Duval are said to have occupied since Christmas eve, Detectives Peery and Abbott found six sets of hotel keys properly labeled as to the rooms they would fit. The officers also found a valuable wrist watch, a key ring, a woman's purse and an expensive kodak, which it is thought the pair stole in Spokane, although they claimed that the articles were given to them in Spokane by a Mexican.

That the boys have accomplices in Spokane to whom they furnished articles stolen in Portland for disposition, is the belief of the police, following the alleged confession that a package had been mailed to Spokane prior to their arrest. Portland authorities have taken steps to have this package returned.

The trial has been set for Friday morning. Duval is said to have served 45 days in the city jail last summer for carrying concealed weapons. He was thought to have participated in a holdup, but evidence was lacking. Long received a six months' sentence for burglary, following conviction on a charge of robbing an east side house last summer.

THIRD GANGSTER GUILTY

JAMES CAREY IS CONVICTED BY SAN FRANCISCO JURY.

Verdict Returned in Six Minutes. Prisoner Displays No Emotion When Finding is Reported.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—James Carey, the third to be tried and convicted in a group of five alleged gangsters, accused of criminal assaults on young girls here, was found guilty today a half hour before Edmond (Spud) Murphy, the first gangster to face a jury, was started for the state penitentiary at San Francisco.

Thomas Brady, the fourth accused gangster, will go to trial Monday. He will be followed by Allen McDonnell.

The jury took but six minutes to convict Carey. Sixteen minutes were taken by the Murphy jury and 11 minutes by the jury which convicted Edward (K. O.) Krivosky, the second of the gangsters to be tried.

Krivosky will come up for sentence Friday, when efforts will be made to obtain a new trial for him.

Carey admitted driving Jessie Montgomery of Reno, the complaining witness, and her companion, Jean Stanley, formerly of Portland, Or., in an automobile from a cafe in the Mission district to a house nearby in which the attack took place. He denied all participation in the attack, however, although positively identified by both girls. He took an active part in the trial aside from testifying in his own defense, consulting frequently with his attorney in regard to the questions to be asked jurors and witnesses. He received the verdict without visible sign of emotion.

Special police guards were stationed in and around the courtroom during the trial, as in the trials of the other two gangsters. This precaution was taken as a result of the killing of three peace officers in Santa Rosa by George Royd, one of the alleged gangsters, and the lynching of Boyd and his two supposed accomplices, Terrence Pitts and Charles Valento.

MORE TIME WANTED BY BRITAIN TO PAY

Treasury Envoys Coming to Confer With Houston.

DISCUSSION FIRST STEP

Exchange of Demand Notes for Long-Time Obligations Desired by England.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—A representative of the British treasury will reach this country soon, Secretary Houston said today, to continue in Washington the discussion of the exchange of the first long-time obligations of the demand notes of the British government held by the United States.

The British debt to the United States at this time is $4,196,000,000. Under the liberty loan act, the secretary of the treasury is authorized to effect the exchange at a rate of interest not less than that borne by the demand instrument, Secretary Houston said.

"The victory liberty loan act," said Mr. Houston, "provides that obligations of foreign governments acquired by virtue of the provisions of the first liberty bond act or through the conversion of short time notes acquired under that act shall mature not later than June 15, 1947, and that all others shall mature not later than October 15, 1935."

General Policy Announced.
"I am of the opinion that if by so desire, the respective foreign governments should receive the benefit of the full period thus permitted. The long-time obligations, I believe, contain a provision for a moderate sinking fund, the first payment on which should be made at a reasonably early date."

Outlining the general policy for the exchange of demand obligations to long-time obligations, the secretary said the United States should be given the right to use obligations held by it in settlement of war claims against the United States. Long-time bonds, he said, should provide for accelerating the payment of all deferred interest whenever the currency of the government in question reaches a price approximating the gold import point, and while the exchange remains no lower than that figure and, that if this should happen before the deferred interest period has expired, no further interest should be deferred.

Deals With Allies Separate.
Discussions with the British representative, Secretary Houston said, will be confined to the exchange of the obligations of that government as the obligations of this country to deal separately with each of the allied nations to whom loans have been made.

Discussions carried on in Europe with the other nations indebted to the United States, the secretary said, have not reached a stage so advanced as those with the British government. The British negotiations, he said, had progressed to the point of a general understanding, but the details remain to be worked out and will be taken up with the British treasury officials here. The questions of interest rates and of the forms of the various long-time bonds which may be adopted are yet to be decided, the secretary intimated.

Possible Method Discussed.
"The obligations should contain suitable provision for their conversion into bonds of small denominations or for their payment, at the option of the obligator, in lieu of such conversion," Secretary Houston said. "To prevent or curtail gold exports from the United States, they should contain an agreement by the debtor government to offer demand drafts payable in its currency as a figure to be fixed substantially at the gold export point, and to apply the proceeds to deferred interest and to principal, current interest to be adjusted accordingly."

"Sinking fund payment should be provided to be made in gold coin of the United States or in the currency of the debtor government at the par of exchange, if the holder shall so request."

Actual exchange of the securities will not be made at the coming conference here, the secretary said, adding that the documents of the agreement would probably be drawn up for presentation to each of the contracting governments before the transfer of the securities is made.

TEACHER SAYS SHE WAS DISCOURAGED

Miss Jennie Lyle, Again Well and Happy, Says Tanlac Made Wonderful Change in Her.

"I believe in passing along to others the good things that come my way, and that is why I am telling my experience with Tanlac," said Miss Jennie Lyle of 627 High St., Bellingham, Wash.

Miss Lyle was for many years a teacher in the Bellingham schools, but for the past twelve years has made her home in Los Angeles, Calif. She is spending the winter in Bellingham, where she has a host of friends, numbering among her former pupils many of the leading citizens of the town.

"About ten years ago," said Miss Lyle, "my nerves began to give way, and I kept getting worse until I was almost a nervous wreck. Almost any little noise would upset me, and I couldn't take any pleasure in the company of others. I never slept but a few hours at night, and even that was not restful and disturbed."

"My digestion was very bad and after meals always had a dull, heavy, miserable feeling. My kidneys gave me a good deal of trouble and I was bothered with frequent headaches. I felt languid and listless and was able to take but little interest in what went on around me."

"But I began taking Tanlac in Los Angeles, and it has made a wonderful change in my condition. My stomach and kidneys no longer bother me, my appetite is fine and I am troubled but little with nervousness. I sleep soundly and get up in the morning feeling splendid and full of energy. Indeed, I now feel the joy of living for the first time in years. I can sincerely and heartily recommend Tanlac to anyone suffering as I did."

Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.

Don't Suffer

MANY men and women are suffering because they are treating effects instead of removing causes.

Why bother with liniments and lotions for rheumatic pains, backaches, stiff joints, sore muscles, biliousness, nervousness, floating specks in the vision, or other symptoms of kidney trouble when the kidneys can be made well and strong, thus removing the cause of the symptoms?

Foley Kidney Pills

Have been used for kidney trouble and bladder ailments by men and women with success for many years. They seem to get right at the root of the trouble, invigorate and strengthen, healing and soothing weak, sore, or disordered kidneys and bladder. They help the kidneys throw out of the blood the waste and poisons that cause the symptoms of kidney trouble.

Q. W. Weinsinger, 224 Borne Vista, San Antonio, Texas, writes: "I have suffered more or less with kidney and bladder trouble for the past years. The only thing I have ever been able to get relief from was Foley Kidney Pills. I earnestly recommend them to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble."
