40 From Civic Clubs Inspect City Nursery.

50,000 SLIPS PLANTED

Baker Says Portland's Flower Is Cure for Bolshevism; Public Invited to See Plants.

Tribute to Portland's greatest asset, the rose, was paid by about 40 representatives of Portland civic organizations yesterday noon at the big outdoor nursery on the southern slope of Mount Tabor, where the city is raising nearly 50,000 rose slips for future decoration of Sandy boulevard.

Headed by H. H. Haynes, chairman of the roseway committee of the Portland Ad club, an official inspection of the Mount Tabor nursery was made. The visitors viewed the display with enthusiasm, for the wide beds of slips, including 21,000 Caroline Testouts, 45,000 Dorothy Perkins and more than 12,000 miscellaneous varieties, promise material for highway adornment which will be the finest thing of its kind in the world.

The slips will be transplanted next October, and will be in bloom along Sandy boulevard in June, 1922. The plan is to plant a rose every three feet along each side of the boulevard, starting at Sixteenth street. Park Rose community hopes to continue the work from the point where the Ad club's display ends. If this is done, the highway will be flanked with roses for a distance of about six miles. Reservations have already been made by many members of the American Rose society for a trip here to view the spectacle in June, 1922.

Proceeding the inspection of the nursery, a luncheon, furnished by the Hayden-Parker Baking company and A. H. Johnson of the Coffee Cup restaurants, was served. The luncheon was followed by an informal program of speeches by members of the party.

Roses Cure Bolshevism.

"I believe that roses are a cure for bolshevism," said Mayor Baker, in discussing the benefit of roses to the city. "The planting and raising of roses is an important factor in making permanent citizens and creating strong attachment of a man to his home and city."

H. H. Haynes thanked the mayor and the city park department for their hard work and hearty cooperation in boosting the Roseway, and declared that a trip to the nursery at East Sixty-fifth and Division streets would be worth while for any citizen.

Other speakers on the program were Walter Conklin, new president of the Rose Festival auxiliary; H. J. Blasing, president of the Portland Rose society; Mrs. Helen Jeselsohn, president of the Woman's Ad club; E. N. Strong, Ad club president, and Marshall Dana of the Journal.

DOBBIN DECLINES POST JOSEPH MAN NOT TO TAKE STATE HIGHWAY JOB.

Enterprise Chamber President Tells Governor County Wants F. D. McCulley Appointed.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—Jay H. Dobbin, who yesterday was appointed by Governor Olcott a member of the state highway commission to succeed E. B. Kiddie, today telegraphed from Joseph that he would be unable to accept the office.

Later in the day a telegram was received at the executive offices from W. F. Savage, president of the Enterprise chamber of commerce, that in view of the fact that Mr. Dobbin had refused to accept the appointment of highway commissioner the people of Willough County had rallied to the support of F. D. McCulley and urged that he be named to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Kiddie.

Another telegram signed by T. H. Morelock, secretary of the Joseph Commercial club, located at the home of Mr. Dobbin, was received by Senator Patterson of Polk county, urging that the Willamette valley friends of Mr. McCulley confer with Governor Olcott and urge his appointment to the commission.

Mr. McCulley is a merchant and stockman and for many years has been closely identified with the development and business interests of Willough county. Governor Olcott refused to make any comment following receipt of Mr. Dobbin's telegram, other than issuing a statement to the effect that a successor to Mr. Kiddie probably would not be named for several days. Friends of the executive said that R. A. Booth and John B. Young, other members of the highway commission, undoubtedly would be summoned to Salem for a conference with the governor before the latter announced his appointment. Late last night Governor Olcott received as many as six telegrams from various sections of the state lauding his appointment of Mr. Dobbin as a member of the highway commission. In at least two instances these telegrams came from prominent men who previously had endorsed persons other than Mr. Dobbin for the highway job.

BUSINESS OCCUPIES DOBBIN Putting Agriculture on Higher Plane Big Aim in Life.

ENTERPRISE, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—In declining Governor Olcott's appointment as member of the state highway commission, Jay H. Dobbin was moved by the feeling he could not spare from his private business the time required by the office. Another consideration also influenced Mr. Dobbin. He is a large farmer and stock raiser and has given much thought to the problem of lifting agriculture from its present depression and placing it permanently on a more profitable and stable basis. He has discussed the subject extensively with bankers, men in public life and leaders in thought all over the northwest. He feels that now if he is to spare any time from his private business it should be given to efforts to solve this problem, or at least relieve the acute situation of the day. Mr. Dobbin has become identified with this so extensively that he does not consider it advisable to take up anything else, even as important a task as serving on the highway commission.

HEARING GIVEN CHINESE Arguments Started in Appealed Cases of Convicted Murderers.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—Arguments were heard by the Oregon supreme court today in the appealed cases of Yee Guck and Wong Wen Tung, who are under life sentences for the murder of a member of the Portland Chinese colony. The slaying occurred during a tong war in Portland nearly two years ago. Tomorrow the court will hear arguments in the case involving Suey Fong, who was indicted jointly with Guck and Tung. The three Chinese originally were tried in the Multnomah county circuit court. They were convicted of second degree murder and later sentenced to life terms in the state penitentiary. Subsequently the cases were appealed to the supreme court for final determination.

TELEGRAPH HEADS MEET Convention of District Managers to Be Held at Eugene.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—Managers of Western Union telegraph offices from different parts of western Oregon will hold a district meeting in this city Saturday, according to announcement of J. A. McKeivitt, local manager. For a good many years the district meetings have been held in Portland, but at the last annual meeting Manager McKeivitt persuaded the meeting to select Eugene as the place of the next convention. Mr. McKeivitt has made arrangements to hold the sessions, beginning at 9 A. M. at the chamber of commerce and a dinner will be served to the visitors in the evening.

BRAMWELL NAMES AIDES ASSISTANT BANK EXAMINERS ARE APPOINTED.

Head of State Department Promises to Exercise All Authority to Enforce Laws.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—F. C. Bramwell, newly appointed superintendent of banks, at the conclusion of a meeting of the state banking board held here today, announced that he had selected Marshall Hooper as assistant superintendent and examiner. Other appointments include W. M. Adair, S. L. Stewart and Fred W. Bland, as examiners; Finkam Gilbert, assistant examiner, and Miss Edna Simonton, stenographer. Examiners Adair and Stewart will have charge of field examinations, while Examiners Bland and Gilbert will look after office examinations. The board authorized Mr. Bramwell to employ an additional examiner, but the name of this man has not yet been announced. "The department will exercise all its authority and power for the enforcement of the banking laws and in every way assist in placing the banking business in Oregon on a sound basis," said Mr. Bramwell today. "Every effort will be made to protect depositors, and to this end the banking board has assured that it will co-operate to the fullest extent."

COUNCIL IS IN DEADLOCK Two Old Members of Body Refuse to Yield Places.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—The first session of the new city council ended in deadlock last night when Councilman Brandenburg and Colvin refused to yield their seats to M. S. West and Bert Hawkins, councilmen-elect. Mayor Wiley, who succeeded I. R. Struble, ruled that he would recognize the new members, and adjourned for a week, hoping a settlement might be meantime effected. The situation was an outgrowth of a change in the charter, making January 1 instead of June 1 the date of qualifying for office. Three members of the council resigned, but Brandenburg and Colvin maintained that their terms hold to June 1 and refused to be "legislated out of office."

ALIENATION SUIT VOID DECISION FOR PLAINTIFF REVERSED BY SUPREME COURT.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—The Oregon supreme court, in an opinion written by Justice Harris and handed down here today, reversed Judge Dalton Biggs of Harney county. In the action brought by Clifford D. Pugsley to recover damages from Fred Smyth for alienating his wife's affections. Testimony in the case showed that Mr. Pugsley and his wife were married in 1909; and that the former was employed by Smyth for a period covering about nine years. Plaintiff alleged that he and his wife lived happily together until the summer of 1919, when he observed Mrs. Pugsley in company with Smyth on various occasions. Mr. Pugsley said he protested against the actions of his wife and later persuaded her to accompany him from Diamond to GRANT MAYOR'S CHOICE EX-OFFICIAL IS LIKELY SUCCESSOR TO LAROCHE.

City Attorney Refuses to State Other Than That He Is Very Busy.
Frank S. Grant, ex-city attorney, will be Mayor Baker's choice as a successor to W. F. LaRoche, should the latter decide to resign from the city service. This announcement was made yesterday by the mayor. City Attorney LaRoche has been tendered the defense case of John L. Etheridge, bond house president, but up to a late hour last night had not made any definite decision on the question. Rumors have frequently been heard at the city hall that Mr. LaRoche was laying plans to re-engage in private practice and it is possible that such plans are being formulated at this time. When questioned yesterday as to his possible resignation from the city service, Mr. LaRoche said that he could make no statement, other than he was now in the midst of preparation of the city's presentation in the terminal station case before the Interstate Commerce Commission, and could not see how in fairness to the city he could resign at this time. Mr. Grant served as city attorney prior to the commission form of government, having been elected to the position by the voters of Portland. He was one of the principal framers of the present city charter and is said to be exceedingly well versed in municipal law. The mayor's choice, for city attorney, in the event of a vacancy, must be confirmed by the city council. Phone your want ads to The Oregonian, Main 7070, Automatic 560-35.

GRAPE JUICE CASE HEARD AMERICAN SODA WORKS TO GIVE ITS SIDE TODAY.

Ex-Employee Alleges Product With Kick Was Set Aside for Favored Customers of Firm.

"Zeno" was the name applied to extra sharp "melo-grape" manufactured by the American Soda works, according to the testimony given before the city council yesterday by W. R. Gear, an ex-employee of the company. Officials of this company were before the council defending themselves against charges of violation of the prohibition law. The case occupied the greater portion of the day and was continued until tomorrow morning, because of the inability to obtain several witnesses. Gear alleged that grape juice which had fermented beyond the legal stage was set aside for delivery to "privileged" customers. The defense did not have opportunity to present its complete case, which will be done tomorrow morning. The council revoked the following licenses yesterday: Alikes & Demas, and John and Mike Pralich, soft drink establishment at Sixteenth and Pettygrove. The council also refused to reconsider a revocation of the license held by Louis Mitchell at Fifth and Burnside streets.

WOMEN TO AID INDIANS Restoration of Right to Fish at Dam to Be Asked.

YAKIMA, Wash., Jan. 4.—The executive board of the State Federation of Women's clubs, at its mid-winter meeting here today, voted to work for the passage of an act restoring to the Yakima Indians their ancient right to fish at the Prosser dam, to support the proposed county library bill and to seek the appointment of a special state fair committee instead of having the state fair operated under the agricultural advisory committee. Mrs. W. P. Harper of Seattle, presided at the board meeting.
