DUNWAY MEMORIAL TODAY.—Memorial services in honor of the late Ralph R. Dunway, prominent Portland attorney, will be held in the courtroom of Presiding Judge Kavanaugh at the circuit court at 10 o'clock this morning and will be attended by many members of the bench and bar of Multnomah county. Arrangements are under the direction of a committee composed of M. C.
George, chairman; Henry E. McGinn, Conrad P. Olson, William Gregory and T. J. Geisler. Tributes to the memory of Mr. Dunway will be paid by members of the committee. On behalf of the bench of Multnomah county, Circuit Judge Morrow will speak.

HEALTH BOARD SOON TO MEET.—The first meeting of the state board of health, in which the members just appointed will participate, probably will be held in the latter part of January. The new members will assume their new duties on January 15.
Satisfaction prevailed at the headquarters of the board yesterday as a result of the appointments. The general feeling was that the governor could not have selected men better fitted for the positions. The appointees, Dr. C. J. Smith of Portland, Dr. George E. Houck of Roseburg and Dr. J. H. Rosenberg of Prineville, were named by the governor Thursday.

CLACKAMAS GRANGE TO MEET.—The Clackamas county Farmers Grange will meet at Oswego on Wednesday for an all-day gathering. The morning will be devoted to reports of subordinate granges with a banquet at noon. In the afternoon will be the installation of officers and discussions of interest to farmers. After supper a large class will take the fifth degree after which will be a program put on by the local grange. All grangers cordially invited.

TARDY ATTORNEYS WARNED.—If attorneys are not present when their cases are called after having been duly notified—the court in the future will not continue the cases, but will dismiss them promptly," declared Presiding Circuit Judge Kavanaugh yesterday, piqued at the failure of several attorneys to appear when appeal cases from the district court were called on the docket. The cases were to have been set for trial.

DRUG CASE HEARING SET.—Hearings for the three Portland druggists who are charged with violations of the Harrison narcotics act were set for February 21 yesterday by Kenneth Fraser, United States commissioner.
The accused men are Ralph A. Watson, proprietor of the City Hat man-ufactury; Raymond E. Taylor, proprietor of the Hotel Portland pharmacy; and T. Winfield Scott, of 912 Gilliam street.

TRAIN TO BE SHIPPED.—Effective tomorrow there will be a general shifting of trains on the valley lines of the Oregon Electric railway and several trains will be taken off, according to R. H. Crozier, assistant general passenger agent of the Spokan, Portland & Seattle railway.
The whole schedule will be re-arranged, he said, because of the elimination of some Sunday trains.

DEBATE IS TOMORROW.—"The Legislation Prohibiting Public Amusements on Sunday Desirable" will be the subject of a debate tomorrow at 8 P. M. in the story hour room, central library, between R. A. Balkey and H.
C. Dekker. Following the joint discussion questions will be asked by G. E. Erickson who will act as chairman.

COOL BAY BRANCH OPEN.—With service on the Southern Pacific company's Tillamook line again in approach, it is expected that trains will be moving again some time today on the Coos Bay branch. The recent storm worked considerable havoc on the coast lines and transfer of passengers was necessary.

CHURCH OF OUR FATHER (Unitarian).— The pastor, W. G. Elliot Jr. will preach Sunday at 11 A. M. on the subject of "The Church of Our Father in the Light of the Future." Broadway at Yamhill. Annual meeting, Tuesday, January 11, 6:30 P. M. Adv.
Dr. J. S. Brown, residence, Multnomah hotel.—Adv.

MR. LA ROCHE SPEAKS TODAY.—W.
P. LaRoche, ex-city attorney, will discuss the unique terminal situation at the regular luncheon of the civic league at the Benson hotel today.
There will also be reports of committees on proposed changes in the constitution and proposed school legislation.

E. D. SCHANEN NOW MANAGER.—The business of the Schanen Marble Works, 27 Hawthorne avenue, beginning January 7, will continue under the management of E. D. Schanen, who for 15 years has been associated with his father, the late N. A. Schanen, in conducting the business.—Adv.

DR. C. W. HURTT TO SPEAK.—Sunday vesper service at the Y. W. C. A. will be addressed this Sunday at 4 P. M. by Dr. C. W. Hurtt of the First City Park Methodist church. Mrs. T. E.
Ten Haaf will sing. The social hour will follow. All girls are welcome to attend and bring their friends.

ORONDIAN FILED WANTED.—A bound volume of The Oregonian for the month of October, 1919, is missing from The Oregonian's library. A suitable reward will be paid for information leading to its return. Start the librarian at room 318, Oregonian building.—Adv.

GRAND JURY DRAWN.—A federal grand jury for the current month was drawn by the clerk of the federal court yesterday afternoon. The list contains the names of 25 men from all parts of the state, who must report for duty on January 24 at 2 o'clock.

GRANITE TO INSTALL OFFICERS.—Rus-sett Mills granite will hold installation of officers tonight at its hall on Base Line road. Fairview grange will be entertained with an illustrated lecture and refreshments after the installation ceremonies.

FRED A. METZ HIRSH.—Fred A. Metz of Medford, scaler on the Crater national forest, is in Portland for a few days conferring with forest officials about timber sales in his district. Mr. Metz is an experienced lumberman.

CHILD TO SHARE ESTATE.—The death of Mrs. Zillah Huddleston Bernan before the age of 50 years would not have been the end of her interest in the $250,000 estate of the late James H.
Huddleston, her father, would revert to her mother or brother, as intimated in the first report of the will, unless there were no surviving children.
Though not mentioned in the will, there is a child, Frederick Howard Bernan, aged 2 years, who would succeed to the estate. The boy was a great favorite with his grandfather, said the mother yesterday, and there was never any intention that the lad should not come into an inheritance.
Mrs. Bernan's share was left in trust for her until she reached 50 years of age.

EVALDOR SPLIT CHARGED.—That Charles Bellinger filed a divorce suit against Lillian Bellinger to avoid prosecution on a charge of non-support, was the allegation of Charles T. Schnabel, attorney for Mrs. Bellinger, when the husband failed to appear at the calling of his case before Circuit Judge Stapleton yesterday.
Later word reached the court that Bellinger had no intention of going ahead with his case in equity, and Mr. Schnabel declared he would place the matter before the grand jury Monday. Bellinger had been arrested twice for non-support and has not contributed to the comfort of his wife for many months, it was said in court.

PROPRIETORS FINED AND JAILED.— Ida Fonvill, in charge of a rooming house at 320 Northrup street, which was raided by the police Wednesday night, was fined $100 and sentenced to 10 days in jail in municipal court yesterday. Five and a half pints of moonshine were taken in the raid and two negro men, a Chinaman and another white woman arrested. Mrs.
Fonvill is the white widow of a notorious negro bootlegger who was killed in an automobile accident in Washington some months ago. Theodore Kuzon, recently arrested for violation of the prohibition law, was fined $75 by Judge Rossman. Five pints of moonshine were exhibited as evidence.

SHERIFFS IN TACOMA.—Several hundred members of Al Kader temple, Mystic Shrine, accompanied by officials, patrol, band, chanters and dancing girls left Portland at 11 o'clock last night for Tacoma, where the Portland Shriners will participate in a Pacific coast meeting of the Shrine held in honor of Eli Lewis Garretton, imperial potentate. Frank S. Grant, illustrious potentate of Al Kader temple, said yesterday that the visit in Tacoma would be a continuous round of entertainment and that the Portland Shriners will be a tired lot when they return Sunday morning.

SALES CONGRESS PLANNED.—E. N.
Strong, of the Oregon Life Insurance company, has been appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for a one-day sales congress to be held in Portland January 21, under the auspices of the Life Underwriters of Oregon. Other members of the committee are Horace Mochter, W. S.
Raker and Charles Gramm. Among the speakers at the convention will be Orville Thorpe of Dallas, Tex., president of the National Underwriters association of the United States; Charles W. Scovel of Pittsburgh and Franklin W. Gansse of Boston.

DEMOCRATS MEET TODAY.—Democrats of Oregon have decided to Portland to hold a conference this morning at 10 o'clock in the Morgan building, where the state central committee has headquarters. This afternoon the state committee has been called to meet and tonight a banquet will be held in honor of assistant secretary J. H. Crozier.
Resolutions urging the pursuance of the Wilson policies and warning the public against permitting the federal reserve law and other acts to be passed by the republicans.

PARTY ENDS IN KNIFING.—Seven Austrians were arrested following a moonshine party in a house at Nineteenth and Hill streets, which ended in a knifing early yesterday morning. Sam Skjole received severe scalp wounds from a knife said to have been in the hands of Joe Mon-nich. Monnich is held on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon while the others are booked as drunks. Their case was called over until January 13 in municipal court yesterday.

VICTIM MAY RECOVER.—George Calhoun, 291 East Eighty-second street, although terribly bruised and suffering from three broken ribs and other injuries received in the collision of a trolley with a car, has hopes of recovery according to nurses at the county hospital last night. His condition was still very serious.

DEAD IN BED.—The death of Robert A. Lamerton, whose body was found in bed at his home, 1223 East Thirty-third street, north, early yesterday morning, resulted from acute palpitation of the heart according to announcement of the coroner's office following an autopsy.
Lamerton is survived by his widow and four children.

WAGON AND STREET CAR COLLIDE.— A collision of a street car with a tea wagon on San Rafael street at the intersection of Broadway and Hawthorne avenue, beginning
January 7, will continue under the
his father, the late N. A. Schanen, in conducting the business.—Adv.

TRIAL IS DENIED WALTERS

AFFIDAVITS CHARGING PER-JURY FAIL IN COURT.
Effort is Made to Show Intoxication When Shot Was Fired; Appeal Is Taken.

A new trial for Husted Alvin Walters, convicted of murder in the first degree for the slaying of Jerome Palmer, patrolman, November 17, was denied by Circuit Judge Tucker yesterday. Walters has been sentenced to hang on February 19 but an appeal deal to the supreme court is sought by his attorney and may cause postponement. A writ of delivery of Walters to the penitentiary until next Monday was granted by Judge Tucker.
The decision on the motion for a new trial followed arguments by Earl F. Bernard, deputy district attorney, and B. F. Mulkey, attorney for the boy. Mulkey presented affidavits of three men now in the county jail in which it was declared that John Tillman, associate of Walters in the hold-up which was followed by the murder, had perjured himself on the witness stand.
They maintained that Tillman had admitted to them and he knew Walters had been drinking at the time of the murder, that he had not been influenced by Walters in embarking on a criminal career, that Walters had fired the shot which killed Palmer only after he had been fired on by Patrolman Thorpe.
Mulkey sought throughout the trial to prove that Walters was intoxicated at the time of the murder and that the killing was not premeditated, and other public officials, as to the gallows, though no attempt was made to evade a sentence to life imprisonment.
Notice of appeal to the supreme court was filed yesterday.
