Banner Snor Is Rathen.-When arching police found two bottles of Banner Shor is habeled two bottles of moonshine whisky yesterday in the barber shop of Herbert Fleicher, 1842. Front street, they arrested him and his wife. Mra Delia Fletcher, on charges of having liquor in their possession. Each furnished $506 ball and is now at liberty pending the disposal of the case. The arrest was made by Sergeant Carison, upon information that liquor traffic was being conducted in the shop. Nothing was found to substantiate the report in full, but the flasks of moonshine were sufficient in themselves to bring about arrest.

LIGHTED CIGARETTE BLAMED .- Care-LIGHTED CIGARETTE BLAND.—Care-lessness of smokers in the Terminus hotel is assigned by Captain Day of the fire marshal's squad, as the cause of the fire which caused $8000 dam-age to the hotel and adjacent build-aings Thursday night. It is believed by the officer that some carsiess gmoker threw a lighted cigarette into the areaway behind the hotel, which alighted on inflammable material and started the fire. The building is located at Third and Everett streets.
