

DEPORTATION POLICY OF POST DEFENDED

Secretary Wilson Holds Suspicion Not Enough.

CONVICTION FIRST NEEDED

Every Person Entitled to Counsel as Soon as Arrested, According to Statement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The policy of the department of justice as to the arrest and deportation of radical aliens, concerning which it has had clashes with the department of justice, was announced for the first time by Secretary Wilson in a statement made today. It was summarized as follows: "No person shall be arrested except upon sworn affidavit based upon information and belief. "No person, when arrested, shall be held incommunicado. "Every person arrested shall be entitled to counsel immediately upon being taken into custody. "They shall be confronted with the evidence and shall be permitted to furnish testimony and be heard in their own behalf. "Excessive bail shall not be required. "Suspicion Not Enough. "These safeguards of American liberty having been provided, if it is then shown by the evidence that any alien is deportable under the so-called anarchistic laws, we will deport him with as little compunction as we would attack an invading enemy. We will not deport anyone simply because he has been accused or because he is suspected of being a 'red.' We have no authority to do so under the law. "The statement, which also contained a defense of his assistant, Louis A. Post, was embodied in a letter sent by Secretary Tamm to Colonel H. D. Lindsay, chairman of the executive committee of the American Legion, who presented at the White House last October resolutions asking for the dismissal of Mr. Post because of his attitude on deportation of radicals. "It was understood that the legion's request was referred by the White House to Secretary Wilson and that the statement by him was sent to the White House in reply. It also was accepted as the president's reply to the legion's request for Post's dismissal. "Assistant Is Defended. "In defending his assistant, Secretary Wilson said he not only had faithfully carried out instructions as to aliens, but he was "among the ablest and best administrative officers in the government service," and "one of the trust Americans I have ever come in contact with. "Deportation of Gregory Weinstein, chancellor of the Russian soviet bureau in the United States, was ordered today by Secretary Wilson. Weinstein is to sail Saturday from New York with Ludwig C. A. K. Martens and other employees in this country of the Russian soviet government. The reasons given for the deportation of the "chancellor" include affiliation with an organization, the Russian soviet government, aiming to overthrow the government of the United States by force and violence.
