

LUMBER CUTS CUT LARGEST IN HISTORY

Figures on Portland Product Compiled for 1920.

TOTAL IS 661,000,000 FEET

Large Amount of Shingles, Boxes, Veneers and Other Forest Products Also Produced.

The production of lumber by Portland sawmills totaled 661,000,000 feet in 1920, the largest for a single year in the history of the Portland district, according to figures compiled yesterday.

Imman-Poulsen Lumber company was the largest single producer in the Portland district. This mill's total cut was 144,029,500 feet of lumber. Production of the Eastern Lumber company was 85,999,000 feet. Peninsula Lumber company produced 62,412,922 feet.

Clark & Watson Lumber company, 58,999,000 feet. Portland Lumber company, 60,000,000 feet. St. Johns Lumber company, 46,992,000 feet.

Multnomah Lumber & Box company, 30,000,000 feet.

East Side Mill & Lumber company, 20,004,000 feet.

West Oregon Lumber company, 30,000,000 feet.

Jones Lumber company, 20,000,000 feet.

L. B. Menefee Lumber company cut 20,000,000 feet at its Portland mill, in addition to 131,000,000 shingles. The company also cut 25,000,000 feet at its mill at Winlock, Wash.

Oregon Box & Manufacturing company, 15,750,000 feet.

North Pacific Lumber company, 15,000,000 feet.

Burlington Mill company, 15,000,000 feet.

Oregon Ship Timber mills, 14,000,000 feet.

Monarch Mills, 12,000,000 feet.

Ferry Mill Lumber company, 10,125,000 feet.

At the Theaters.

Pantages.

A WELL-BALANCED bill is offered at Pantages, in which every act has something to recommend it and entertain. A capital dancing act with saxophone interludes opens the evening. Three timely and alert young men, Waco, Bligh and McCarty, billed quite appropriately as three sons of jazz, dash out and dance gaily. Next they divide into singles, appearing in eccentric stepping specialties, and finally two of the trio appear with saxophones and make happy music. At the proper moment the third dancer swings into the game and dances acrobatically while the others play. The three work hard and fast and are a bright spot on the bill. Second on the program is a sketch set in Chinatown. It is told in two scenes and concerns the efforts of Salvation Molly, a reform worker, to get evidence of white slavery against a wily Oriental named Hollinger, a versatile character actress, portrays cleverly a dual role, first as Salvation Molly and later a Chinese girl who is used to lure confidence men from the Oriental. The playlet is interesting and full of surprises. Herman Hirschberg is the wily Chinaman, Frank Belmont, who wrote the play, portrays a detective who plays he is an Italian gangster in order to help Salvation Molly.

Juggling Nelson is a happy-go-lucky chap who provides plenty of clean fun with his originalities in juggling and comedy. He works quickly and deftly and his juggling is accurate and diverting.

Maud Earl returns with a new song act in which her partner, Henry McCoy, interprets the acts of court jester and a judge and asks the audience to be the jury and bring in a verdict for or against the jester as an entertainer. The audience was unanimous in its verdict in her favor, for she sings sweetly. Her top notes are high and clear. She also sings and plays them easily. She gave a series of four numbers, an operatic aria, a jazzy bit, a heart ballad, "Macushia," and a flute cadenza. The act is staged uniquely and Miss Earl dresses with distinction.

A quartet of real harmony set to good comedy with the quartet act on the bill and a capital turn it is, too. Four men, two of them recruited from the audience, blend their voices beautifully. They sing and play, and are brought out all the harmonies, and the audience kept on applauding after half a dozen recitals.

The closing act is out of the usual run in athletic achievements. The three Bartos, each a finely developed athlete, combine strength and artistry in a splendid arrangement of hand balancing specialties. They wear smart white costumes with touches of black and work easily and smoothly, smiling pleasantly through the most amazing feats. The fifth episode of "Bride 13" is being shown.

Women's Activities

Attendance that taxed the capacity of the crystal room of the Benson hotel yesterday attested to the popularity of the luncheon given each month by the Portland Woman's Research club.

Mrs. D. M. Watson presided and the chief speaker was Hugh H. Herdman, vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Columbia basin division of the national safety council.

Robert L. Barron played a violin selection. Miss Ida May Cook was accompanist for both musicians.

Otto Wedemeyer sang two solos and Robert L. Barron played a violin selection. Miss Ida May Cook was accompanist for both musicians.

Albina W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Christensen, 812 Northwick street, today at 2 o'clock. The subject for discussion will be "Medical Temperance" and the program will be in charge of Mrs. C. M. Purvine.

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Oregon will be held today at Trinity church, corner 19th and Everett streets. At 3:30 A. M. Everett communion, with the bishop as celebrant. Sermon by the Rev. F. C. Taylor of Astoria. Business meeting will be held at 11 A. M., followed by a box luncheon at 1:30.

The afternoon business session will be held at 1:30 P. M. All women of the church as well as members of the auxiliary are urged to attend.

The Woman's Psychic club will give a membership and get-together luncheon tomorrow at 2 o'clock in church parlors, East Seventh and Harrison streets.

Willard W. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Z. U. Gillett. Dr. Tibbs Morley gave an interesting talk on "Medical Temperance." Dainty refreshments were served during the social hour.

Columbia Anchor, No. 3, ladies auxiliary to Masters, Mates and Pilots association, will hold a meeting tomorrow evening in room 523 Chamber of Commerce building to initiate new members. A social hour will follow.

ASHLAND, Or., Jan. 24.—(Special.)—At the last meeting of the Lady Macabees the following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Commander, Mabel Moore; lieutenant-commander, Lillian Yates; past commander, Margaret Herrin; record keeper, Anna Hensley; lady-at-arms, Florence Brookmiller; chaplain, Nora Wairad; sergeant, Ruth Guisinger; messengers, Mary Hale; picket, Milton Coleman. A banquet was served after the installation.

The Industrial club girls will hear B. F. Irvine speak tonight immediately after supper. Last Tuesday night Mrs. Thelma G. Hallett conducted the first of a series of talks on courtesy. Her topic was "Introductions." These talks will be given every Tuesday night.

Mrs. L. R. Centro, city playground supervisor, will talk on "The Value of Recreational Activities" in the Girls' Life at the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The meeting is especially for all girls regardless of grade school clubs, but anyone interested in the teen-age girl has been invited to attend. The social hall will be used for the meeting.

The Business Women's club of Portland has had charge of the sale of tickets for "Civilians Clothes," being played at the Baker, for tonight. Members of the club and their friends have worked hard to make the enterprise a success in order to assist the club in furnishing suitable club-rooms.

All clubwomen and others interested in the humanitarian measures sponsored by the legislative council of women's clubs of the state have been invited to attend a dramatic reading and tea to be given today at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Nathan Harris, 729 Gilman street. Mrs. Harris' play, "The Human City," will be read by Lucy Edwards Bruce.

Community Service girls will entertain with a dancing party Saturday evening, January 29, at the Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets. All young men and women of Portland are cordially invited.

Mrs. Miles Cooper will entertain the members of the Alameda Tuesday club at her home, 906 East Thirtieth street north, today.

Fernwood Parent-Teacher association will meet today at 2:30 o'clock for its regular meeting. Mrs. Ida Althaus will be the speaker and has selected for her subject "Poems for Children." Musical numbers will also be included in the programme. Refreshments will be served during social hour.

CRIME SWEEPS NEW YORK

Three Persons Are Dead and Two Dying as Result of Wave.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—A recurrence of crime, including three deaths, two men dying in hospitals from injuries inflicted by highwaymen, and five holdups, featured the week-end operations of criminals in Greater New York and its environs.

One man was shot and killed in a crowded street in broad daylight; another was killed in an attempt to prevent the robbery of a store in East Forty-second street, while the third, an 18-year-old choir boy, was found dead on the railroad track near Richmondville, with several long bones broken and his head lacerated.

Armed automobile bandits operating near Tarrytown obtained loot valued at more than $10,000 early today, when they held up automobile parties and milk wagons.

CONSULAR CUT IS URGED

House Committee Would Reduce Appropriation 25 Per Cent.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—A reduction of 25 per cent in estimates for the conduct of the nation's foreign service was recommended today by an appropriations subcommittee in presenting to the house the diplomatic and consular bill for the next fiscal year.

The state department's estimate of $12,000,000 for this service was about treble the appropriations for 1915 and the committee said that as the war had ended more than two years, it was inevitable that the fund should be cut materially below the amounts available during the years of "special stress."

The bill's total now is $8,543,670.

MILITIA TRIAL DEFENDED

Judge Denies Charge of "Railroad-ing" Guardsmen to Prison.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 24.—In a written statement, Judge Wilkinson, special assistant attorney-general, today denied the charge of a Tuscaloosa mass meeting that nine members of company M, state militia, were being "railroaded" to trial on murder counts in connection with the lynching of William Baird.

The statement referred to the mass meeting as "a smoke screen designed as an agency for the creation of propaganda, calculated to produce a public sentiment favorable to the accused."

OLYMPIA PRINTERS OUT

Emergency Crews Used on Two Daily Newspapers.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 24.—Emergency typographical crews today were working on the two Olympia daily newspapers, the Morning Olympian and the Evening Recorder, in place of the regular staff, according to the managers, quit work last Saturday to enforce their demands for more pay.

The printers, the managers assert, demand an increase over the wage scale of last year, which was $45 a week for day work of 7 1/2 hours and $48 a week for night work of seven hours.

Can You Write a Headline for This?
Foley's Honey and Tar is the best known and most successful family cough medicine on the market and the following letter is positively true and genuine:
"Says 'It Acts Like Magic'"
Gilbert Fleming, 3011 Bunting Av., Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I have much pleasure in testifying to the very great benefit my family and I have derived from the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It positively acts like magic, and to my mind there is nothing on the market that can compare with it. Whenever there are any of our household suffering from heavy colds or bad coughs or hoarseness, we at once get a bottle from our local drug store, and after one or two doses obtain instant relief. Your company deserves great credit for such a valuable production and from our own experience we cannot do otherwise but recommend it to our friends, and this we willingly do and will continue to do."

Foley's Honey and Tar COMPOUND
CLEARS THE THROAT of phlegm and mucus, stops that tickling, opens the air passages for easier breathing and coats the raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing, soothing medicine.
"Coughs that 'hang on' after the grip or 'flu' are relieved by Foley's Honey and Tar."
REBELLION IN STOMACH
"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends Indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach
Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quick, sure, most harmless stomach antacid in Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores—only
