ANOTHER UPHEAVAL THREATENS POLICE

Mayor Says Shake-Up May Be Only Beginning.

MENACES 17 MORE

Many Members of Bureau Declared About to Lose Jobs Unless

Harry A. Circle, captain of inspectors. who has been transferred to the first who has been trained and all other changes, as announced in orders issued Saturday night by Mayor Baker and Chief of Police Jenkins.

day yesterday with rumors and sur-mises as a result of the demotion and a bolshevist chef, Harry Weston as mises as a result of the demonstration of the demonstration of policemen. It is under correct and Ben Reubens as waiters stond that at least three of the four in a kosher kitchen. The reparter

Contrary to general belief, Police rank and salary of police inspector. "imitation it is understood that this change was

A reassignment of detectives is expected to be made this morning by Chief of Inspectors Clark. With the demotion of Inspectors Hyde. Tackaberry and Schulpius, other inspectors will be assigned to work with the descrives with whom these three have been paired in detective work, with the exception of Hyde, who has been the exception of Hyde, who has been paired with Inspector La Salle, now the contral figure in a cycle of nover the Chicago Opera company, delights in which four young men, all with a number of classical and semi-

As senior captain of the bureau. Captain Moore will be second in command of the department, and will devote more of his time in assisting Chief Jenkins in administrative work. An additional licutenant has been assigned to Captain Moore to assist in handling the day relief.

Plans are now under way for remodeling the first floor of the police well done.

modeling the first floor of the police wild done.

Station, Chief Jenkins will occupy the office which has been used by Chief of Inspectors Clark, and the offices who has a sweet, flexible soprano room, and for the record clerk.

Chief of Inspectors Clark last night
Chief of Inspectors Clark last night
Ennounced reassignments in the detective bureau as follows:

Russell and Van Deusen, pawnshop detail; Wright and Gordon to first night relief; Howell and Phillips to day relief; Swennes and Phillips to Russell and van Deusen, pawnshop it. Miss Bell makes some amazing detail; Wright and Gordon to first leaps and their cycling is worth night relief; Howell and Phillips to day relief; Swennes and Mallett to first night relief; J. E. Abbott to day matinee Wednesday.

"Petty jealousy in this department will not be tolerated, and every officer must stand ready to give assistance to others," is the order of the new head of the detective bureau.

VANDERVEER GIVES TALK Injunction Used to Prevent Molesnew head of the detective bureau.

"No persons have any right to say that they are representing the council either for or against the measure. This action was decided upon on account of a difference of opinion among our members, and we felt that no ac-tion we might take would be expres-sing the sentiment of the entire council. What individual members of the or do in this connection must not be ed as expressing the scatiment

OLD DAYS ARE RECALLED

Present and Former Residents of Josephine County Meet.

Neighbors clasped hands with reighbors and greetings between old friends flew thick and fast when nearly 200 present and former resi-dents of Josephine county gathered Saturday night in the assembly half at the Hotel Portland for their semi-annual meeting.

Only a short programme was given, as the president of the society, Robert Stites, wished all once more to talk over "old times" in Josephine The principal speaker was Henry L. Benson, associate justice of the su-

L. Benson, associate justice of the su-preme court, who recalled the days of his residence in the county. Another speaker was Dr. A. Albert Witham, who said that although he had trav-eled through Europe he had failed to find a region which for sheer scenic wonder surpassed Josephine county. Mrs. Robert Stites, contralto, sang several songs. It was announced that next summer the organization will next summer the organization will hold a picnic near Portland. Re-freshments were served.

BOY, 7, IS HIT BY AUTO

Elm Fisher Sustains Severe Scalp Wounds and Other Injuries.

Elm Fisher, aged 7, of 1063 East Eighteenth street, North, sustained severe scalp wounds and cuts and bruises about the head and body yesbruises about the head and body yesterday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile driven by Percy J. Balley, 1753 Wyland street, near the intersection of Eighteenth and Alberta streets. The boy ran from behind another automobile and directly in the path of Balley's machine.

Motorcycle Policeman Babcock, who conducted the investigation for the traffic bureau, said that Balley was not to blame for the accident.

NEW BILLS AT THE THEATERS

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

PANNIE USHFR has returned. She ways there was Spareribs, a wirehaired terrier with shiny eyes and a perky bark. In the years since the bubbling Fannie visited us I: t. thrust up her, a plumpness, and d ?- I supp ferent arrangement of the fly-away | They Show Improvement.

Valhalla reserved for good little dogs. Claude Usher hasn't changed an eyelash and the sketch "The Bide-a-Wee Home" is entirely new. That same little throaty appeal in Fannie's voice, the hint of laughter and take charge of the police detective there to churm us. She is in this there to churm us. She is in this bureau this morning, succeeding there to charm us. She is in this play as always, a waif who lands unexpectedly right in the middle of the lap of good fortune. Her sur-prises, her "ohs" and "ahs" of aston-ishment and her appreciative comment give us heart tugs.

Force, humor, but above all else, sympathy characterize Fannie Usher's portrayal. Her hands punctuate her become effective this morning.

That the "shake-up" announced Saturday is but the beginning unless police conditions show a decided improvement, was the promise of both the mayor and the chief, who said that 17 other members of whose home the street waif comes occupied. the police bureau are under obser-vation, and will be discharged short-ly unless they reach a higher stand-ard of efficiency.

number of policemen. It is under the four stood that at least three of the four in a kosher kitchen. The reparter in a properties who were reduced to particularly had the flavor of food and troimen in the uniform division will resign rather than again don the resign rather than a kosher kitchen. The reparter a variety of costumes and has a fund the trail for it in Fairbanks, and St. their meals the four organized a band of harmony and sang for the restaurant patrons, and incidentally, the audience. Their combined voices Lord Roberts won favor in various sessed of a genius for selecting, train-Contrary to general belief. To come the Contrary to general belief. To come the Contrary to general belief. The come to the before their very restaurant patrons, and incidentally. The audience of the audience of the combined voices make delightful music and Reubens, a baritone, and corbett, a tenor, to single the first night relief of the east side station, he will continue to retain his station, he will continue to retain his station, he will continue to retain his ministions," which were novel and "Heilo," in which they offer a skit of voices. As a finish the four gave "imitations," which were novel and many kinds of fun-making. They are best at repartee and Harry gets many with his card fooleries. He said a laugh with his original way of prolichenor.

A reassignment of detectives is extricks, but when he had finished the trying.

paired with Inspector La Salle, now coff on a leave of absence, pending the excellent dancers and nimble and classical selections. She is assisted excellent dancers and saltractively by F. Wolpi, her accompaniat.

Injunction Used to Prevent Moles-

The hall was crowded.

It was announced that steps were being taken to prevent any interference with lectures by Lincoln Steffens and Irwin St. John Tucker, advertised to be given in the public auditorium February 7. Mayor Baker refused to permit the speakers to use the auditorium.

Clarence Wurdig makes a hit with "All the Quakers Are Shoulder Shak-Braiding, embroldery, nemstitching. Booth's Morgan building.—Adv.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT PORTLAND RESIDENCE.

Henry H. Pierce. Henry H. Pierce, a Civil war veteran and for many years a resident of Portland, died Friday at his home, $92 East Couch street, after a long illness. Pierce, who was 80 years old, served with H company of the 8th regiment of Kansas infantry during the Civil war. He was an old member of Sumner post No. 12, Grand Army of the Republic. day at his home, 892 East Couch

The funeral services will be conducted from Dunning's chapel, East Sixth and Alder streets, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services will be held by the Sumner post of the Grand Army of the Republic, and will be conducted by Rev. W. T. Kerr, chaplain of the nost.

"C IVILIAN CLOTHES," the brilhas been away many seasons and we have missed her. She is one of the very few fully grown another week, has been carried over for another women of the stage who can play at being little girls and not incite us to murder. Fannle used to be the little girls in various sketches with Claude Usher, and always there was Spareribs, a wire-last night's house were sold out. The last night's houses were sold out. Th players are particularly happy in this piece. It offers excellent roles for the leading man, Selmer Jackson, and the leading woman, Leona Powers she has acquired, or possibly had and all the Baker folk appear in the

Mr. Jackson played the role of a curls that used to frame her piquant soldler who returns to civilization and face. Spareribs has gone on to the civilian clothes and the girl he married overseas only to find that the girl he married is a snob who saw only the uniform and the glamour and romance of marriage with the velopment of the story and many amusing characters are introduced. Saturday.

Hippodrome.

ORD ROBERTS, one of the best L known midgets in vaudeville, scored a hit as headliner on the new Hippodrome bill, which opened yesterday. He has brought with him an torday. He has brought with him an entirely new act, termed "Santa's Toy Shop," with an elaborate setting showing Santa just about ready to some showing Santa just about ready to some showing Santa just about ready to some setting showing Santa just about ready to some some setting showing Santa just about ready to some some setting showing Santa just about ready to some some setting showing Santa just about ready to some some setting showing santa just about ready to some some setting showing santa just about ready to some some setting showing santa just about ready to some setting showing santa just about ready to some setting santa sa The audience liked "A Hungarian showing Santa just about ready to start out from his home on Christmas presented a real comedy hit in "When the Pelican, a missionary boat introduced by the archdeacon, many kinds of fun-making. They are best at repartee and Herry are

The photoplay is "Someone in the Cuskers," which opened a week's run at the Lyric yesterday. Ben Dilton, a salesman of the checked-sult and flashy-diamond kind, sells playing cards or Bibles, according to the nature of the town he is in. Through an incident he is forced to change from the checkerd suit to the sombre from the checkerd suit to the sombre are not considered as a give an incident he is forced to avoid arrest, and such as the same of those at character of God. Some of the character of the true. Within them living? How would it do to warn the courts to visit the same punishment upon the rich promotic to the same punishment up

Parent-Teacher Association Will

Not Enter Tenure Fight.

"I greatly regret the impression has become current that the parent-teacher associations of Portland, as a body, are supporting Senator Staples' bill for the abolishment of an appeal commission for teachers," said Mrs. J. F. Hill, president of the parent-teacher council, yesterday.

"At a meeting of the council it was voted that our body would take no part in the controversy whatever," well as the may continued Mrs. Hill, "and again at our board meeting last week, when it was brought to my notice that a continued Mrs. Hill," and again at our board meeting last week, when it was brought to my notice that a continued Mrs. I my resion had been given, I called the attention of the members to our action.

I eading counsel in the northwest for the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the fun show.

All the characters show up, well in the new role form the plot of the principal of the sale of

"Gypsy Love Song," sung by Dor-

"All the Quakers are Shoulder Shak-ers," and Frank O'Rourke put over "Ohio" with applause-bringing re-sults. Other pleasing musical num-bers are "Shadows" by Will Rader and "Dearle" by Gay Du Valle. The maids of the Rosebud chorus contribute lively dance numbers, one of the best being the ribbon dance. Paul Schneider and Tommy Castle of the Lyric technical staff furnish an attractive setting for the piece, a feature being a real miniature foun-

INDIAN LADS ARE HELD

Runaways Found Wandering, Pass Night in Emergency Hospital.

John Belgarde, Umatilla Indian, 13 rears old, and Patrick Bushman, a Thippewa, also 13, ran away from the Chemawa Indian school near Salem on Saturday. The boys walked 16 miles of the way to Oregon City, where they spent Saturday night, and walked to Portland yesterday. They went withcut food until they were given into the hands of Police Matron Patterson of the first night relief. of the first night relief.

While the hungry lads were being questioned by the police a beautiful stray collie, white with brown vest, was brought in from the street. His coat was bedraggled and muddy and he was so tired that he braced his feet to stand. There was instant sympathy between the runaways. The collic confidingly licked the hand of one of the boys while he patted the dog's head. Then he lay down beside them The boys were fed and put to bed in a hospital cot, where the Chippewa hid his head under the covers and went to sleep. The collie also had supper and spent the night in the en-gine room. The boys will be sent back to school today.

Exclusion Bill Indorsed.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 30.-Unanimous apport of the Japanese exclusion bill introduced in the legislature last week by Senator Dudley of El Paso, was voted at a meeting of the anti-Japanese and legislative committees of the state organization of the American Legion today.

Phone your want ads to The Ore-gonian, Main 7070, Automatic 560-95,

OF ALASKA SPEAKS

CURB IS PLACED ON VICE

Tribute Paid Archdeacon Hudson Stuck, Who Died Last October After Long Service.

vesterday at St. David's Episcopal wayfaring man today can see that the only permanent solution is along church. He took as his subject the only permanent solution is along Christian lines. Some help, however, can be given by Christian churches was a great scholar and an elequent preacher, and was a born leader of sessed of a genius for selecting, training and educating boys, he soon de-we have a church, school and hospital there, and the Indians are intelligent and live peacefully and happily. "Archdeacon Stuck was also a great lover of art, had a phenomenal memory, was a faithful friend, and to hear him read a Bible lesson was a sormon. Filled with a vision, he left ambition and wealth behind, and was not disobedient to his vision and pur-pose. He saw the possibilities in the soul of the Alaska Indian, and when invited to England to greatness, he refused, and gave his life to the peo-ple of Alaska. He lies at rest today in the little cemetery in Fort Yukon and was carried there by the Indians. He is gone, so that we who are left behind may become better trained to carry on the great work alone."

IDEA OF GOD MAN'S RISE Progress of Society Depends on Its

"Ours must not be the mistake of regarding God as a magnified human. No one of mankind is great enough to be defiled and made supreme. To no glorifled superman do we tender worship, but an infinite spirit, in-separable from life and history. Man,

AMERICA LEADS ALL WORLD

Christianity Makes United States Great, Says Dr. E. L. Mills.

The morning service at Centenary-Wilbur church yesterday was the occasion of the annual thank offering of the Woman's Home Missionary society. The address was delivered by Dr. Edward Laird Mills, editor of soldier. He takes it upon himself to disillusion her and makes her respect the man in civilian clothes and of course we make enemies. We mission activities. Taking his text, Romans I:14, "I am debtor both to quite as much as her hero in the khaki uniform. Comedy lines and diverting situations abound in the demakes no difference. We continue to the wise and the unwise," Dr. Mills the play will continue this week with matiness on Wednesday and taturday.

It makes no difference. We continue to the wise and the unwise," Dr. Mills said in part:

"How shall Christianity help the dishherited nations, groups that have been robbed and left to die by the copal bishop of Alaska, who preached for international politics and even a way fairner." Episcopal missionary fame in Alaska.
The archdeacon died last October.
Teducated in England, and a missional evangelistic medium. "The educational evangelistic med-in the social structure of those cour we.

The clever little entertainer wears to variety of costumes and has a fund of funny songs and sprightly dance Matthews' hospital was built. Architens. hunger in Europe, the near east and China, have been distinctly Christian in impulse and have prepared the way for those more important ministries which concern the souls of men rather than their bodies.

"But the work of Christianity is world wide. What the churches do in America to produce a typical exammade its appearance up north, carrying books, medicines, etc. guns were fired and the Indians shouted welcome. Divine service was held when we landed at Fort Hudson, an old Hudson's Bay post and mission center. Traders, with their materialistic spirit, were evil, and got the natives drunk, in a carnival of wickedness.
Evil goes with such a crowd. This is what we had to fight, and we built up a council among the Indians. Now we have a church, school and hospital ple of Christian civilization is impor

SOME RELIGIONS HELD WILD Dr. McElveen Flays Pursuit of

Fads and New Sensations. "Nothing is easier than to create a ew religion. All one needs is bold self-confidence, a piece of paper and a lead pencil. Many people will ac-cept any absurd set of notions as reof what we call new thought is only ear thought or no thought at all, and some of what we call religious scince is as much akin to real science as a buttercup is to a butterfly. Many of these so-called religions are fads, freaks and fakes." So said Dr. W. T. McElveen in his lecture on "Wild Religions I Have Known" at the First Congregations) church last night, "Some people are daffy for things that are new," he said, "To them only the new is the true. Within them

MEIER & FRANK COMPANY Cordially Invite You to An Informal Exhibition of Advance Modes in New Fashions for Spring DRESSES SUITS WRAPS COATS BLOUSES HATS ACCESSORIES Charge Purchases Today and Succeeding Days SEE OUR WINDOWS! Dated March 1

Announcement:

want new fashions and many folks Bible is good in the home and at inwant new religions.

"While we can't make progress unnot a little of it in our schools? It to Helens.

will hart no one but the devil. Jesus to Helens.

will hart no one but the devil. Jesus to Helens.

that we make steady and permanent not his followers?

Rev. E. E. Flint Says Satan Must Have Slipped His Chains.

what is good in the new.'

Rev. Elbert E. Flint, pastor of tkinson Memorial Congregational hurch, spoke yesterday on "Beating he Devil."

"The modern world is most truly tving over many of the experiences recorded of Jesus in his great battle with Satan," he said. "It looked very real with Jesus: it looks very real to-day. The 'get-rich-quick' temptation is bounding at the heels of all. The

"The weapon that "lays the ax at the root of the tree" is the only sure cure of the ills of today. The remedy must be severe, as the disease Is cancerous. The mayor of the greatest city in the land has recently issued a proclamation advising the citizens to principles upon which the American principles upon which the American soverment and its noblest institugo armed for protection from thieves government and its noblest institu-"How would it do to add a warning tions rest, and upon which their fu-to the thousands of families in this ture welfare depends; that America progress by preserving what is best in the old as well as by introducing FAREWELL SERMON GIVEN

"BEATING THE DEVIL" TOPIC Rev. R. H. Sawyer Delivers Last of

Lectures to Congregation. "I wouldn't give much for a religion hat one has to die to get any benefit from. I want a religion not only to die by but to live by," declared Rev R. H. Sawyer in his farewell sermon yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Sawyer has resigned his pastorate to take up work in the Anglo-Israel movement and will leave Wednesday for a lecture tour in British Columbia. "Thousands of men are turning is hounding at the beels of all. The miracle of turning little or nothing into fortunes is battling at the gate of the souls of men. The hazardous is the rule of the vicious as well as the rule of the vicious as well as the vala. The conquest of the world and no God has fallen as a mantle from the Kaiser on the race. It looks as though the devil had kicked out of his chains.

"The weapon that Tays the ax at the role of the tree" is the only sure the scriptural query; "Lord, will thou to the thousands of families in this country who spend more time in learning the newest dances, and going to places of amusements, and eating expensive appeads than they do in studying the word of God, and teaching their children the way of good living? How would it do to warn the government and courts to visit the government and courts to visit the government und courts to visit the

Bradford Suits and Overcoats Normally Priced:

$15 $20 $25 $30 $35

Perfection in Fabric, Style, and Workmanship.

Bet. Fourth and Fifth Musical

Sacrificed

Instruments

Our Last Month in Business

We Turn Over Our Building to the Lessees on March First During the next three weeks we must dispose of all of our footwear. Sizes are somewhat broken; nevertheless, we have hundreds of pairs of fine shoes In Order to Simplify and Expedite Sales, Beginning Today We Offer

Your Choice of All Women's Shoes, Pumps and Oxfords

THE PAIR-This offer includes Hanan's, Laird-Schober's, Utz

& Dunn's and other nationally-known makes of footwear for women! Don't Delay a Day! It's the Greatest Opportunity That Will Come to You for Buying Good Footwear at Less Than Cost! BUY EVERY PAIR YOU CAN!

129 TENTH STREET, Bet. Washington and Alder