Peace Delegate Assures President-Elect No Agreement on Cancellation Made at Versailles.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 15 .-President-elect Harding today finally reviewed his cabinet decisions with ive postmaster-general, Will H. Hays, Ident Wilson's peace delegation assurances that no agreement for canmade at Versailles.

The conference with Mr. Hays, generally interpreted as conclusive evidence that the republican national chairman is to become a member of the cabinet, is understood to have covered every feature of the cabinet situation, as well as questions of policy. The president-elect said their talk omitted none of the problems facing the next administration. Details of what happened at Vermailies as to cancellation of the $10,000,000,000 war debt were given Mr. Harding by Thomas W. Lamont, member of the Morgan banking firm and a fiscal attache of the peace commission. In a statement later he denied recent stories of a mysterious Bills would be submitted, he s Agreement to wipe the war debt off the books, and said he had assured the president-elect his administration would be "as free and untrammeled

I found that President-elect Harding wished to ask me about certain phases of the international financial situation which had come under my observation during my attendance at the peace conference at Paris in 1915. I found, too, that Senator Harding has been giving serious thought to the situation, and I may say that his wiew is both same and reassuring. He began by disclaiming any ability as a financier, but I must say that many of his suggestions were practical and lowed the result of careful, cool and the communication showed, have been rotained by J.
