catcalls and the word "liar" were shouted in the house Thursday it the stormlest assion in years. The CROWDER WILL NOT RETIRE uproar started when Representative Summers of Texas, having left a sick bed, appeared and supported by most members of his own state, attacked Wilson Representative Now in his colleague, Representative Blanton

Rumors had been circulated that the Texans were preparing an attack but it was held off until Mr. Sumner could direct it. When he stepped forward, holding a faded newspaper clipping, nearly every member was on the floor. Read by the clerk, the clipping revealed that Mr. Blanton, in a letter to Texas newspapers had charged members with a plan to raid the treasury and obtain salary increases, which he alone had prevented here-tofore. The press was asked to help, and many papers responded with birter assaults on those charged with backing the alleged salary grab.

Persons Impoverished by War Also Sell Rich Goods.

LIBAU, LATVIA .- The appearance of the shop windows here indicate that the Libau tradesmen have re-ceived some of the plunder taken by the various armies that have swept over the Baitic states. They are piled high with antique furniture from country estates. Statuary, silver and bronze ornaments, silver-ware and fewelry also abound in the emmission houses. English dealers in antiques overran the Baltic states after they first freed themselves of the bolshevik regime and picked up much of the valuable furniture and the jewels, oriental rugs and old silver. Consequently the shops now offer fewer rare pieces than they did a year ago. Besides the war loot, the shops carry an amazing lot of second-hand wares which were the property of persons impoverished by war who persons impoverished by war who must now convert them into money. Luxuries went first but now furs, for coats and all sorts of wearing apparel are being sold in the shops. These stores look like American rummage sales.
