15 and wanted Duffy to make some sort of weight, Kendall switched his dickering for a Murphy-Duffy tangle.

According to Kendall, Duffy didn't seem to care to make anything like 125 pounds ringside for France, or even 125 pounds at 3 o'clock. Figuring from this that the Oakland boxer must be nearer a weiterweight than a lightweight, Kendall broached Murphy to Duffy's manager. Duffy came

Murphy will hox Frankle Haynes or Harry Schuman in Tacoma March 24 and then jump to Los Angeles for a four-round go with Travic Davis.

Earl France would also like the crack at Duffy and was willing to take the March 17 date at the Milwaukip arena, despite the fact that he is down for a fough 15-round go in Missoula March 15. He could leave Missoula the night of the fight and arrive here the evening of March 15. The only stipulation France made at all was that, as Duffy claims the lightweight championship of the Pacific coast and thereby must be a lightweight championship of the Pacific coast and thereby must be a lightweight, he should be willing to make 135 pounds, the recognized limit, some time the day of the fight. If Duffy does not care to weigh in, France will claim the undisputed title and there does not seem to be anyone boxing on this side of the country at the present time who can usurp his claim.
