IN FILM CLEANUP

Sex Plays and Salacious in Pictures Doomed.

REFORM IS FAR-REACHING

Munagers Join in Movement to Purify Entertainment.

Sex plays and the salacious in pictures will be eliminated in the future productions of leading companies, according to Benjamin B. Hampton, himself a producer, who recently attracted wide attention by an attack on objectionable plays. Not only are the pictures to be cleaned up, but muste publishers are getting together a refere distribution to suggestive to refuse distribution to suggestive songs and vaudeville managers are censoring coarseness from their acts.

The changes amount to the "great est reform ever known in the history of entertainment," says Mr. Hampton, who has issued the following statement:

"During the last few years, in al-"During the last few years, in almost every state of the union there has sprung into existence an aggressive demand for censorship of motion pictures. Many states and cities have created consorship boards. The movement already has reached such a point as to threaten the existence of the pictures art and industry.

"A few weeks ago I submitted the entire situation to the general public through a magazine of enormous circulation, the Pictorial Review, in an article entitled "Too Much Sex Stuff in the Movies? Whose Fauit Is It?" In

All services will be withdrawn to such exhibitors.

Clean Pictures In Keynote. "Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players-Lasky company, was selected to lead the industry. Mr. Zukor said: 'So far we have been islative bodies, but all this will do no good unless we make pictures eliminating entirely salacious elements. "Clean pictures was the keynote of various addresses by Hugo Reisenfeld, Jesse Lasky, Edward F. Albec, John Emerson and others.

"In Los Angeles the most largely attended meeting of the Motion Picture Directors' association of America was addressed by W. W. Hodkinson, the well-known distributor. Mr. Hod-kinson told the directors that the total volume of theater business now is about $800,000,000 a year and that it would increase to a billion and a half dollars the first year of clean pictures.
