

MOURNERS FILE BY BIER FOR LAST TIME

Mighty and Lowly United in Sorrow for Prelate.

GIBBONS FUNERAL TODAY

Silent Tread of Thousands to Be Replaced by Pomp as the Church Buries Its Dead.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30.—The mighty and lowly, united in sorrow, tonight trod softly past the bier of Cardinal James Gibbons to gaze for the last time on the face of the prelate.

For tomorrow, with all pomp and ceremony and the singing of a Gregorian chant, the church will bury its dead. The apostolic delegate at Washington, two fellow members in the college of cardinals, archbishops and bishops, archdeacons and abbots, secular clergy and clergy belonging to the orders, all will be massed in the cathedral of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary for the final mass. Diplomatic representatives of the Catholic countries of the world and officials of nation, state and city also will attend the service.

Cathedral Crypt to Be Opened.
The public ceremony ended, the body later will be carried to the cathedral crypt, unopened since the burial of Archbishop Spalding in 1872. There the body will be laid to rest in the white marble tomb, with the simplest of ceremonies and in the presence of only closest relatives and friends.

For three days the body of Cardinal Gibbons has rested in state under the great gold dome of the cathedral in which for so many years he ministered to mankind. Daily an army of mourners, 30,000 strong, has filed in and out of the edifice, but today, from morning until nearly midnight, a great double column, blocks long, sought entrance.

In other parts of the city there was the usual noise and bustle of an American community, but around the cathedral all was quiet. The shuffle of feet was almost the only sound, as the mourners pressed slowly forward.

All Activities to Stop.
Tomorrow this silence will spread all over the city when in response to proclamations by governor and mayor, all traffic and every activity will be stopped for one minute when the mass begins at 7 o'clock.

Inside the cathedral the mourners found even deeper silence. Entering by pairs, they moved down the center aisle, splitting at the purple-covered bier and passing out by side doors at right and left.

Dressed in his purple robes, his archbishop's mitre upon his head and a crucifix clasped in his gloved hands lay the American, born of simple Irish immigrants, who by his own efforts rose to be a prince of the church.

Tonight the silence of the cathedral was broken by chanting of seminarians and diocesan clergy in the office of the dead was sung. Presiding was Bishop O. B. Corrigan, vicar-general of the diocese.

The ceremony was attended by church dignitaries and lay delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada.

NEW CARDINAL ANTICIPATED

Pope Benedict Expected to Follow Precedent of Pius X.

ROME, March 30.—In Vatican circles the belief prevails that another American cardinal will be appointed in a short time, the death of Cardinal Gibbons again having reduced the American cardinals to two. Pope Benedict is declared to have the intention of following the precedent set by Pius X in 1911 of having three cardinals in the United States. Naturally the speculation has brought numerous names of prelates to the fore. Among these names are those of Archbishop Mundelein of Chicago and Archbishop Hayes of New York. Some persons also are suggesting the Most Rev. E. J. Hanna, archbishop of San Francisco.

TACOMA AND HART CLASH

Closing of Women's Industrial Home and Clinic Issue.

TACOMA, Wash., March 30.—The Tacoma city government threw down the gauntlet to Governor Hart yesterday in the matter of closing the women's industrial home and clinic at Medical Lake when the city refused to accept back seven women sent from the city to the eastern Washington institution. The clinic was closed by reason of the governor's veto of appropriations, resulting in lack of funds.

As the matter stood last night, the clinic has telegraphed Mrs. Pearl Phillips, head of the women's division of the Tacoma police department that the women were being returned "to court" under guard, and Mrs. Phillips, under the authority of the city attorney and police commissioner, has telegraphed back that Tacoma would have nothing to do with the women, had no place to put them and that the matter should be put up to Governor Hart.

GAMBLERS INFEST LINERS

Americans Going to England Advised Regarding Sharks.

LIVERPOOL, March 30.—(Special cable).—Americans coming to England are being warned by the shipping companies and liner officers of greatly increasing activity of card sharks on the steamers. It was learned today. There has been increasingly heavy gambling on trans-Atlantic liners, recently which has tempted crooked gamblers to turn out in force to gather their illicit harvest from the thousands of dollars that change hands each day.

A glaring case occurred on one ship last week. One man, who had won a small fortune, was suspected of crooked play, and the captain, when informed of the suspicions, stalked into the smoking room in the middle of the game. "There is a card sharp here," he said, "and if he doesn't leave the room in one minute I'll put him in irons." The trickster immediately hustled off and did not play again for the remainder of the voyage.

HARDING RECEIVES VIVIANI

EX-PREMIER OF FRANCE ON MISSION OF COURTESY.

Gratitude to America and Desire to Continue Friendship of Two Republics Expressed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Rene Viviani, ex-premier of France, who is here on a mission of courtesy, was received by President Harding at the White House late today after he had presented his credentials as an envoy extraordinary to Secretary Hughes at the state department. At both visits M. Viviani was accompanied by Ambassador Jusserand, and according to statements by officials, the former premier's visit remains nothing more than "one of courtesy." It was intimated by those attached to his mission, however, that he would give an attentive ear to any suggestions involving relations of France with the United States.

A formal announcement issued at the White House said that M. Viviani "called to pay the compliments and utter the good wishes of the president of France to the president," and that he "emphasized the desire of France to continue the friendship between the two republics and expressed gratitude to American for the great things done since his previous visit."

Announcement was also made that President Harding would give a dinner in the White House in honor of M. Viviani's visit April 5.

The conference at the state department lasted one hour, and later Secretary Hughes called at M. Viviani's hotel to return the visit. The only comment Mr. Hughes would make was an expression of his pleasure in receiving the former French premier, who is an old acquaintance. M. Viviani intends to go to Baltimore tomorrow with Ambassador Jusserand to attend the funeral of Cardinal Gibbons.

Klickitat Red Cross Dissolves

WHITE SALMON, Wash., March 30.—(Special).—The Klickitat county Red Cross, at a meeting of the executive committee with a representative from the division office, was dissolved. In the disbursement of funds on hand, $490 was retained for emergency cases of home service and disaster relief; $200 was voted to control European relief, and the balance of $1240 was turned in to the treasury of the division office. The executive secretary, Rev. O. S. Barnum, was retained to attend to all local matters and to keep in touch with the division office.
