

IRELAND NEEDS NO HELP, SAYS BRIAN

Island as Whole Declared Never More Prosperous.

SOME DISTRESS ADMITTED

Destitution Held Directly Due to Effects of Sinn Fein Warfare. Food Shortage Denied.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Charitable organizations constituted on "a strictly non-political basis" in this country, which desire to deal "in an impartial spirit with any case of Irish distress" will find no unnecessary difficulties in their way, the British embassy said in a communication made public tonight.

The communication said: "Widespread misapprehension appears to exist in regard to the necessity for raising funds from American sources for relief work in Ireland and it may consequently be helpful to persons genuinely anxious to engage in philanthropic work if they are made acquainted with the following facts:

"Banking and trade statistics and tax returns show Ireland as a whole has never been more prosperous than at present. Cases of unemployment exist as a result of the world-wide depression in trade, but this depression has been less severely felt in Ireland than in England owing to the fact that Ireland is largely an agricultural country.

"Apart from these cases of genuine unemployment, common to all countries, and apart from the unhappy but normal poverty of the slums of towns, every case of distress and destitution is directly due to the effects of the Sinn Fein rebellion. Steps have been taken to meet even these cases. Millions of pounds have been made available from money raised by taxation in the United Kingdom to build houses, to encourage agriculture and to promote employment schemes and the general work of reconstruction, but the countries and cities of Ireland which are Sinn Fein in sympathy refuse to accept this money and prefer to appeal to America for charity.

"Were it not for this attitude there is no case of distress affecting any individual or his property which could not be adequately met from British sources. Particularly in the case of the famine-stricken areas, it is emphasized that there is no shortage of food in Ireland."

SOCIALIST IS UNSEATED

NEW YORK ASSEMBLY EXPELS KINGS COUNTY MAN.

Attempt to Oust Two Other Socialist Members of Lower House Is Defeated.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 30.—The state assembly, by a vote of 77 to 62, tonight declared vacant the seat of assemblyman Henry Jager, socialist, of Kings county.

In voting to oust Jager, the lower house adopted a majority report by the Judiciary committee, which held that Jager, when elected last fall, was a non-resident and therefore not qualified to sit in the legislature.

It was charged that Jager at the time of his election was a resident of New Jersey, a charge that Jager denied on the floor of the assembly.

The 77 votes today recorded for expulsion, one more than the constitutional majority, were cast by republicans.

An attempt to bring about expulsion of the remaining socialist assemblymen, Charles Solomon of Kings and Samuel Orr of the Bronx, failed. When the vote was announced on the Jager resolution, assemblyman J. T. Carroll, republican, moved to discontinue the Judiciary committee from further consideration of resolutions seeking to oust Orr and Solomon and the grounds for their expulsion.

The 77 votes today recorded for expulsion, one more than the constitutional majority, were cast by republicans.

SELF-DEFENSE JUSTIFIED

Lucitti, Accused of Shooting Home-Breaker, Exonerated.

Cannessio Lucitti was justified in resisting the attempt of Nazareno Scafati and J. D'Agostino to break into his home at 724 Twenty-first street on the night of March 20, in the minds of Multnomah county grand jurors, who yesterday returned a true bill after an exhaustive investigation into the case of Lucitti, held in the county jail on a murder charge in connection with the shooting of Scafati. Lucitti was released yesterday afternoon.

More than 18 witnesses were examined by the grand jury under the direction of George Mowry, deputy district attorney, and the preponderance of evidence produced was to the effect that Lucitti was alone in his home, that Scafati had been drinking and that Lucitti was in fear of his life when Scafati forced an entrance to the building.

Lucitti himself contended that he had not recognized Scafati as a friend and fired at him in self-defense. Lucitti could not have fled from the premises except from the front door, as there was no rear entrance, it was asserted. Testimony of D'Agostino favored Lucitti, it is said.
