What the New York Newspaper Critics Said About "Black Beauty"

"It is a far better product than the book itself, and it is probable that Anna Sewell would say as much. Must be considered as one of the fine pieces of motion picture work of the season. A picture play deserving of large patronage and long life."-New York-

"Charm and good taste-the production and direction teem with them. 'Black Beauty' is the sort of wholesome entertainment that builds sturdy tissue in the interesting picture industry."- New York American.

"Right after the two weeks' run of 'The Kid' the Strand theater presents this week 'Black Beauty'-another of the best pictures of the season. The picture is so refreshing in its atmosphere, so kind in its message and so clean in its purpose that it cannot fail to captivate the hearts of motion picture patrons."-New York Morning Telegraph.

"The presence of the various stable characteristics makes this picture one of the alluring novelties of the season. A very attractive production which, in the immortal words of any clothing advertisement, is 'fitted to customers of all ages'."-New York Herald.

"It's a job to be proud of, I think, having made 'Black Beauty' into a picture which will please infant and adult, a job which so easily might have been badly done, but is not. At the Strand there were hosts of unnaturally quiet little boys marshaled in to see it. They thought it was 'great stuff'."-New York Daily News.

"A picture that will attract thousands of animal lovers to the Strand this week. The film version of this tale follows the book closely."-New York Journal of Commerce.

"So skillfully has Vitagraph told this story on the screen that to many it will seem even better than the book itself."—New York Evening Telegram.

"As a picture it is indeed a novelty for which the producers deserve more than the usual credit."-New York Globe.

"On the silver sheet 'Black Beauty' is in many respects a remarkable picture. There are thrills a-plenty, likewise the race for the train in the final scene being one of the best filmings of its kind the motion picture world has produced, with a succession of sensational riding feats. Jean Paige has an appealing beauty. She screens and plays extremely well. Her supporting cast as of the best."-New York Evening Mail.

"One of the unique offerings of the season is 'Black Beauty,' which atones for many a vampire-laden blight of the past. It's a relief to meet with actors who aren't trying to register. Jean Paige leads the human battalion and does it as one to the manner and the saddle born."-New York Evening Sun.

"'Black Beauty' scores. There is an excellent race to climax the story."-New York Journal.
