BOND INTEREST OMITTED

Paving Company's Contract With Bend Mentions No Rates.

BEND, Or., April 10.—(Special.)—
The Western Willite Road Construction company, now beginning the pavmg of the downtown streets of Bend with sheet asphalt, may be forced to accept improvement bonds bearing an interest rate so close to the vanishing point as to be scarcely perceptible.

The company, through its president.
C. S. Reed, agreed to take city bonds at par in payment for the work, but the contract makes no mention of any interest which the bonds shall draw, City Recorder Farnham has discovered. The question is up to the ered. The question is up to the council, which may not consider the question for another month.
