EX-KAISER REMAINS AT BEDSIDE TO END

Prince Adalbert Also With ex-Empress at Death.

LIFE GRADUALLY FADES

Breathing Becomes Fainter and Painter Until It Ceases Exactly One Year After First Attack.

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—The death of the ex-empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, here this morning by a strange coincidence, came just one year after she suffered her first serious attack of heart disease in Berlin.

It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, the present home of the ex-empress of Germany, after her long residence at Amerongen, that she was stricken with what at the time was believed to be a fatal attack.

That was on April 11, 1920. For a few days there were reports that her death was momentarily expected, but she rallied and accompanied her husband to Doorn on May 15 last.

Attacks of her fatal malady occurred at frequent intervals, each sapping her vitality and nullifying the measures taken by specialists to restore her health.

Son's Suicide Kept Secret. When her son, ex-Prince Joachim, committed suicide in Berlin in July, she was in such a serious condition that news of his death was kept from her for a long time and it was said she never learned he killed himself.

Last autumn, the ex-empress' condition gradually became worse and on several occasions her children were called to Doorn, but her strength was such that she rallied bravely when the end was believed imminent. Since the first of this year it had been known that she was gradually sinking.

Ex-Empress and Prince Adalbert were at the bedside when the ex-empress died. They had been called by Dr. Haesener, who attended the ex-empress throughout her residence in Holland.

Death Came as Shock. The death came as a shock to the dwellers in Doorn castle, as during the last week the patient's condition had seemed less serious. Nevertheless, last Saturday, Dr. Haesener, after consultation with Professor Hyman, the Dutch heart specialist, thought it advisable to send a message to Princess Victoria Louise, the only daughter of the ex-empress and ex-king, calling her to Doorn. The princess, who then was in Vienna, had not reached Doorn when her mother died.

Last night the patient was only semi-conscious. She was kept from suffering by frequent hypodermic injections, her breathing appeared to become hourly more difficult.

Ex-Kaiser Stays Until End. As the day broke breathing became still more difficult, for the failing patient and her pulse grew weaker.

It was then evident to the physicians that the end was near, and Dr. Haesener advised ex-Emperor William and Prince Adalbert of their approach.

The ex-empress became unconscious and her breathing became fainter and fainter until at 9 o'clock life left her frail body.

The ex-emperor stood at the bedside with bent head as death came to his consort and she remained in the room for some time afterward.

FUNERAL TO BE IN POTSDAM. Officers Formerly of Imperial Body Guard to Accompany Body.

BERLIN, April 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—The funeral of ex-empress Augusta Victoria will be held in Potsdam Saturday. The body will arrive in the Wild Park railway station there Friday night and will remain until Saturday under guard of officers formerly of the imperial bodyguard.

Dr. Ernst von Dryander, ex-court chaplain, will accompany the body to Potsdam and will preach the funeral service at the temple tomb. Funeral arrangements were made six weeks ago and there will be no ostentatious ceremonies.

It was stated ex-Emperor William would accompany the body as far as the Dutch frontier.

FRENCH CONSIDER MARCH INTO BERLIN

Radical Steps Expected if Reparations Pay Fails.

EXACT FORM UNCERTAIN

Occupation of Ruhr Valley and Entire Industrial Region of Westphalia Proposed.

PARIS, April 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—It is no longer doubted in circles here, considered to have the best sources of information, that France will either alone or in common with the allies take radical action against Germany if satisfactory assurances regarding the payment of reparations are not forthcoming by May 1.

What form the action will take is still only a matter for surmise, but semi-official opinion is that it will be such as to impress the German people as they have not been impressed since the armistice.

The occupation of the Ruhr valley and entire industrial region of Westphalia has been advocated by some. Others are convinced that the French army should this time go to Berlin in order to make sure, they argue, of finishing a task which they hold would be accomplished much more cheaply in the long run by this method than through the successive application of lesser penalties.

It is thought in official circles here that the Berlin government is well aware that there remains no room for procrastination after the end of this month. Hence, after failing to interest the United States in her case, as the French interpret the outcome of the Berlin and Washington, Germany is understood to have made a tentative effort to draw Switzerland into the reparations question as a mediator.

It is understood Czechoslovakia is disposed to join in the application of economic penalties against Germany, and even to contribute if desired.

A change in the French government in May, with a cabinet headed by Poincaré, is expected. His power, is predicted in well-informed parliamentary circles in case Premier Briand should not succeed in putting effective pressure upon Germany.

The "Flying Money" of Dim Cathay

LONG ago Marco Polo visited Cathay, as the Chinese Empire was known to medieval Europe. Fabulous tales he told of his travels and the wonders which he had seen. Much he marveled at the bank notes which in the poetical language of the Flowery Kingdom were called "flying money." He tells us these Chinese notes consisted of pieces of cotton paper about a palm in length and breadth upon which certain lines, resembling the seal of Mangu Khan, were printed. These notes must have greatly facilitated the early commerce of China. For thousands of years Chinese merchants have had their caravans, their trade routes, and their far-away customers. Trade with the Orient was never more interesting and profitable than today. Through our connections with Oriental banking institutions, we are able to offer a direct and personal banking service in the important trade centers of Shanghai, Kankow, Hongkong, Changsha, Peking, Tientsin and Canton.
