Nothing succeeds in baseball like winning ball games, but even in face of the poor start the Beavers have made it does seem a little early to begin putting the whole team on the broiler. There will be plenty of time for the knockers to save the country

His youngsters have hardly been in training long enough to give a real line on their ability in this game, but they should give the Giants a real battle, at that. Bill has not announced who will fling for him, but the should be the country if the club continues its poor showing after a couple of weeks at home. This Dutch Rock whom Walter Mc-redie has signed for the Portland pitching staff is a large young man who has been hurling with great suc-cess for Watsonville in the California Mission league. He is about the classiest right-handed pitcher in that circuit. In one of the training season clashes between Watsonville and the San Francisco Seals he held the Seals runless during the seven innings he occupied the box. Rock is close to six feet tall and is very stockily built. He must weigh around 180 pounds, and from all accounts has a lot of stuff. Anyway, Charley Graham of the Seals liked him so much that he did everything to induce him to sign a San Francisco contract. Rock, however, preferred to break "If the young player was forced to start in at the bottom and work his way by gradual stages to the top, when he arrived it would be possible n under the tutelage of Walter Mc-Credie and voluntarily presented him-self to Walt. James John and Benson Tech to Cross Bats First.

NEW SCHEDULE ADOPTED

Crowding of Games and Conflicts With Faculty Meetings Overcome by League.

The Portland high school base ball season will open on Wednesday of next week with James John crossing bats with Benson Tech in the cial league schedule given out yes-terday by T. T. Davis, principal of Lincoln high school, and president of the Portland High School Athletic sociation.

Due to the fact that the tentative schedule drawn by the coaches and submitted to the directors of the league at their last meeting did not meet with the approval of the direct ors, Hugh J. Boyd, principal of Wash ington high and secretary of the as sociation, was instructed to plan another schedule. This schedule, which did not name the teams but was a skeleton affair drawn up by numbers only, was turned over to Pres'dent Davis and he assigned a number to each school. The draw was made the same as if all the schools had been represented personally.

New Schedule Better.

The new schedule appears to work out nicely and does not work a hard-ship on any of the teams, while the one planned by the coaches would have compelled some teams to crowd their games into a short space of time, and in other instances teams were left several days without a game. In some cases the schedule also conflicted with faculty meetings at some of the high schools.

Games in the high school league will be played three days each week. The schedule which calls for 21 games will close on May 24 with the final game between Benson and Lincoln Davis to Be Umpire. Sergeant Davis will umpire all high
